

مكتبة الميثاق

Kitab al-Mithaq al-Kabir — Ultimate Deep Edition

Complete Summa of Islamic Covenant Theology

Deep Books I–VIII + Book of Proofs + Extended Apparatus

Primary proofs, classical tafsir references, contested register

Qur'an & authentic Sunnah first

BOOK I — PROLEGOMENA (Deep Summa Edition)

كتاب المقدمات في علم الميثاق — الطبعة العميقة

Islamic Covenant Theology: Foundations, Sources, Lexicon, Axes, and Boundaries

0. Editor's Preface to the Deep Edition

The short chapters of the first Library edition were a sketch of walls. This Deep Edition lays foundations as foundations deserve: with proofs, classical references, contested questions, and the patience of a science that intends to stand.

Method (non-negotiable):

- Qur'an first
- Authentic Sunnah second (Bukhārī and Muslim preferred)
- Classical Sunni tafsīr third — especially Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī
- Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh only as genre-tagged clarification
- Modern academic maps as orientation only — never 'aḳḳidah authorities

Non-goal: Christian Reformed covenant theology (Works / Grace / Redemption) is not our frame. Comparison appears only to refuse syncretism.

1. Why a Science of the Covenant?

1.1 Matn

The Qur'an does not treat 'ahd and mīthāq as decorative vocabulary. It binds lordship to testimony (Q 7:172–173), piety to fulfillment (Q 16:91; 17:34; 2:177), prophecy to solemn compact (Q 33:7; 3:81), scripture communities to taken terms (Q 2:83; 5:12–14), the Prophet's community to bay'ah elevated as bay'ah to Allah (Q 48:10), and the Hour to questioning of covenants (Q 17:34; Q 3:77; Q 9:111).

A science is justified when a field of revelation is dense, recurrent, and architectonic. Covenant language in Islam is all three.

1.2 Sharḥ — the historical neglect and the present need

Classical scholars never ignored the verses. Tafsīr on Q 7:172 is vast; fiqh on 'uqūd and aymān is meticulous; sīrah on bay'ah and treaties is detailed. What lagged was a gathered systematic discipline that orders these registers under one covenantal light without collapsing them.

The need today is sharper:

- Against neglect — reducing 'ahd to a minor ethic while building entire theologies from thinner motifs
- Against import — forcing Biblical CT schemes onto Qur'anic Arabic
- Against confusion — treating Alast, bay'ah, marriage, and commercial contracts as one indistinguishable "covenant"

1.3 Proof that the field is architectonic

Domain | Primary proof | Function

Ontology / lordship | Q 7:172–173 | ḥujjah of rubūbiyyah

Ethics | Q 16:91; 13:20–25 | fidelity / breach

Prophecy | Q 33:7; 3:81 | office under compact

Sacred history | Q 2:83; 5:12–14 | remonstrance

Community | Q 48:10 | bay'ah elevation

Eschatology | Q 17:34; 9:111; 3:77 | questioning / purchase / bankruptcy

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr on Q 7:172 treats the verse as foundational for human accountability. [tafsīr] Rāzī catalogues linguistic and theological pressures around the same āyah, proving the verse's gravity in the discursive tradition.

1.4 Mas'ala — Is "ilm al-mīthāq" a classical madhhab label?

Aqwāl:

- A: No historical faculty bore this exact name; therefore the project is illegitimate.
- B: Many later Islamic arts were gathered from earlier materials (uṣūl refinements, maqāṣid organization, etc.); gathering is not forgery.
- C: The name is pedagogical; the proofs are revelatory; legitimacy follows proofs, not branding.

Tarjīḥ: B+C. We claim ordered hearing of existing revelation, not a fabricated isnād of a non-existent guild.

1.5 I'tirāḍ / Jawāb

I'tirāḍ: If tafsīr already explained the verses, a new science is redundant.

Jawāb: Tafsīr explains locally. Systematic theology orders globally. Redundancy would mean no need for any 'aqīdah manual after tafsīr — an absurd conclusion.

2. Definition of 'Ilm al-Mīthāq

2.1 Matn

'Ilm al-mīthāq is the science that studies the binding relations named in revelation especially as 'ahd and mīthāq—and joined by wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, dhimma, and related terms—between Allah and His servants, Allah and His prophets, communities under scripture, and human beings under oaths and contracts, together with their eschatological outcomes.

2.2 Pillars of the definition

- Subject (mawḍū'): covenantal binding relations in Qur'an and Sunnah
- Fruit (thamara): ordered knowledge serving īmān, ethics, prophecy, society, hope and fear
- Source (istimḍād): Qur'an, authentic Sunnah, classical bayān
- Rank (rutba): theological-ethical system under uṣūl al-dīn, overlapping fiqh ethics without replacing furū' manuals

2.3 Lexical foundations — 'ahd

Root: 'ayn-hā-dāl. Classical senses orbit commitment, charge, appointment, covenant, pledge.

Qur'anic load-bearing uses:

- Breaking Allah's 'ahd after ratification (Q 2:27; 13:25)
- Reciprocal address to Banī Isrā'īl (Q 2:40)
- Fulfillment as piety (Q 2:177; 3:76)
- Selling Allah's 'ahd (Q 3:77; 16:95)
- Fulfill Allah's 'ahd; path language (Q 6:152–153)
- Treaty 'ahd (Q 8:56; 9:4; 9:7; 9:12)
- Questioning of 'ahd (Q 17:34)
- Ādam's 'ahd (Q 20:115)
- Keepers of trusts and 'ahd (Q 23:8; 70:32)
- Children of Ādam's 'ahd against Shayṭān (Q 36:60)

[tafsīr] Qurṭubī frequently draws legal-ethical entailments from fulfillment commands. [tafsīr] Ṭabarī preserves early exegetical reports that thicken narrative contexts without replacing the āyah.

2.4 Lexical foundations — mīthāq

Root: wāw-thā-qāf. Sense of binding, confirming, making firm; mīthāq as confirmed compact.

Qur'anic load-bearing uses:

- Primordial mīthāq (Q 7:172)
- Prophetic mīthāq (Q 33:7; 3:81)
- Banī Isrā'īl mīthāq (Q 2:63; 2:83; 2:84; 2:93; 5:12; 5:70)
- Ahl al-kitāb mīthāq to clarify (Q 3:187)
- Christians' mīthāq (Q 5:14)

- Marriage mīthāq ghalīz (Q 4:21)
- Believers' mīthāq (Q 5:7; 57:8)
- Treaty/group mīthāq (Q 4:90; 4:92)

2.5 Mas'ala — Must 'ahd and mīthāq be strictly distinct technical terms?

Aqwāl:

- A (strict): 'ahd = unilateral obligation; mīthāq = reciprocal confirmed pact.
- B (overlap): Qur'an pairs and alternates them; local context rules (Q 13:20; 2:27).
- C (intensity): mīthāq often marks ratification / solemnity (ghalīz).

Tarjīh: Prefer B with C's sensitivity. A forced lexicon must not silence a verse.

Proof of overlap: Q 13:20 joins fulfilling 'ahd and not breaking mīthāq in one portrait of the intelligent. Q 2:27 speaks of breaking 'ahd after its mīthāq (ratification).

3. Sources and Ranks of Proof (Uṣūl of this Science)

3.1 Matn

Nothing outranks the Qur'an. Nothing after it outranks authentic Sunnah. Lower ranks clarify; they do not found creed alone.

3.2 The five ranks

Rank | Layer | Use

- 1 | Qur'an | Doctrine
- 2 | Authentic Sunnah | Doctrine/practice
- 3 | Classical tafsīr | Sense-range
- 4 | Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh | Tagged clarification
- 5 | Modern studies | Maps only

3.3 Hadith protocol for covenant themes

Primary ṣaḥīḥ themes (Bukhārī; Muslim):

- Hypocrite betrays when entrusted
- Treachery when covenanting among hypocrisy traits
- Bay'ah upon Islam; hearing and obeying; Tree; women's bay'ah
- Warning regarding mu'āhid
- Fitrah of every child
- Shepherd responsibility (amānah of authority)

Alast narrative reports outside Ṣaḥīḥayn: useful for classical modality debates; grade carefully; never override Q 7:172.

3.4 Mas'ala — Can a lone āyah found a science?

Jawāb: A science is founded on a field. Alast is the crown of Axis 1, not the only gem. Root counts for 'ahd/mīthāq and the companion field (wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd) show density sufficient for system.

4. The Six Axes — With Proofs

4.1 Matn

All covenantal speech falls under one or more of six axes. Axes are didactic maps of revealed relations.

4.2 Axis 1 — Allah ↔ humanity

Proofs: Q 7:172–173; 36:60; 16:91; 17:34; 13:20–25; 2:27; 3:76–77; 57:8; 33:72; 23:8.

Yield: primordial ḥujjah + fidelity ethic.

4.3 Axis 2 — Allah ↔ prophets

Proofs: Q 33:7; 3:81; 20:115; 2:124–125.

Yield: nubuwwah as covenantal office; confirming continuity.

4.4 Axis 3 — Allah ↔ scripture peoples

Proofs: Q 2:40; 2:63; 2:83–84; 2:93; 3:187; 4:154–155; 5:12–14; 5:70; 7:169.

Yield: charter terms + remonstrance + warning to Final Ummah.

4.5 Axis 4 — Prophet ﷺ ↔ community

Proofs: Q 48:10; 48:18; 60:12; 8:56; 9:4; 9:7; 9:12; 5:7; [hadith] bay'ah in Ṣaḥīḥayn; [history] Madinah charter / Ḥudaybiyah as application.

Yield: elevated bay'ah; treaty fidelity.

4.6 Axis 5 — Interpersonal

Proofs: Q 5:1; 4:21; 16:91; 17:34; 12:66.

Yield: contracts, oaths, marriage solemnity.

4.7 Axis 6 — Eschatology

Proofs: Q 7:172–173; 17:34; 3:77; 9:111; 19:87; 36:60–63; 13:25; 23:1–11 with 23:8.

Yield: questioning, purchase, inheritance, bankruptcy of sellers.

4.8 Mas'ala — Are the six axes themselves revelation?

Jawāb: The relations are revealed; the numbering is pedagogical—like listing five pillars for teaching.

5. Registers — Theological, Communal-Political, Legal

5.1 Matn

Binding language appears in three registers that must not be collapsed.

Register | Example | Tools

Theological | Alast; prophetic mīthāq | tafsīr, creed

Communal-political | bay'ah; treaties | tafsīr, sīrah, siyāsa

Legal | 'uqūd; aymān | fiqh

Overlap without collapse: Q 4:21 (marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ) is legal and theologically solemn. Q 16:91 binds oaths to divine kafīl.

5.2 Proof of the fidelity sky over all registers

Q 16:91; Q 23:8; [hadith] hypocrisy–treachery themes in Bukhārī and Muslim.

6. Boundaries — What This Science Is Not

6.1 Negations with reasons

- Not Christian CT — different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation; Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq ≠ berith schemes imported wholesale.
- Not a fatwā factory — furū' require qualified fiqh.
- Not unveiling-creed — Sufi ethic of covenant-keeping welcome; untethered ontology rejected if beyond evidence.
- Not academic 'aqīdah — modern articles orient; they do not found belief.
- Not a license for injustice — Axis 3 remonstrance never cancels justice commands.

6.2 Mas'ala — May we compare religions?

Tarjīḥ: Yes, after the Islamic system stands, as clarification. No, as blueprint.

7. Relationship to Tawḥīd, Nubuwwah, and Ākhirah

7.1 Matn

Covenant theology is not a fourth rival pillar beside tawḥīd–nubuwwah–ākhirah. It is the bond-language that ties them:

- Tawḥīd: Alast's content is lordship
- Nubuwwah: prophets under mīthāq convey the specified path

- Ākhirah: covenants are questioned and recompensed

7.2 Proofs

Q 7:172 (taḥḥīd as testimony); Q 33:7 (prophecy); Q 17:34 and 9:111 (ākhirah).

8. Pedagogy of the Deep Library

8.1 Curricula

Track | Path

Seeker | Book I §§1–4 → Book II agreed core → Summa axioms

Student | Books I–VII sequential with drills

Scholar | Full Deep Edition + Book of Proofs

Teacher | Always Book I + Proofs open

8.2 Adab

Do not sell Allah’s ‘ahd for reputation (Q 3:77). Do not conceal bayān (Q 3:187). Preserve ikhtilāf where it exists. Prefer naṣṣ over eloquence.

9. Chapter Khatima — Gate to Alast

The gate stands. Book II enters the courtyard of the primordial mīthāq:

أَلَسْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ شَهِدْنَا

Am I not your Lord? They said: Yes; we testify. (Q 7:172)

10. Apparatus — Primary Proof Spine for Book I

- Q 7:172–173
- Q 16:91; 17:34; 13:20–25
- Q 33:7; 3:81
- Q 2:83; 5:12–14
- Q 48:10
- Q 5:1; 4:21
- Q 9:111; 3:77
- Bukhārī/Muslim: nifāq–treachery; bay‘ah; fitrah

[tafsīr] Ṭabarī; Ibn Kathīr; Qurṭubī; Rāzī — on the above loci as cited throughout the Deep Edition.

BOOK II — THE PRIMORDIAL COVENANT (Deep Summa Edition)

كتاب الميثاق الأول · ألسـت بربكم — الطبعة العميقة

Alast (Q 7:172–173): Naṣṣ, Lexical Anatomy, Doctrinal Core, Aqwāl on Modality, Fitrah Apparatus, Related Āyāt, Objections, Tarjīḥ

1. The Naṣṣ

1.1 Arabic — Q 7:172

ربك من بني آدم من ظهورهم ذريتهم وأشهدهم على أنفسهم ألسـت بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا أن تقولوا يوم القيامة إنا كنا عن هذا غافلين
وإذ أخذ

1.2 Arabic — Q 7:173

أو تقولوا إنما أشرك آباؤنا من قبل وكنا ذرية من بعدهم أفتهلكنا بما فعل المبطلون

1.3 Study gloss (not a translation authority)

And when your Lord took from the children of Ādam, from their backs/loins, their descendants, and made them testify of themselves: “Am I not your Lord?” They said: “Yes, we testify,” lest you say on the Day of Resurrection, “We were unaware of this,” or say, “Our fathers associated before, and we were a posterity after them; will You destroy us for what the falsifiers did?”

2. Word-by-Word and Clause Anatomy

2.1 وإذ أخذ ربك — And when your Lord took

- Idh: temporal/occasional particle introducing a scene of theological weight, common in Qur’anic sacred history.
- Akhadha: taking / extracting / establishing a taken bond. The verb is divine initiative.
- Rabbuka: Lordship vocabulary — the content of the question is already present in the Subject who takes.

Doctrinal yield: Covenant begins in rubūbiyyah, not in human contract theory.

2.2 من بني آدم من ظهورهم ذريتهم

- Scope: Banī Ādam — universal human horizon.
- Ṣuhūr: backs/loins — the language that generated classical extraction reports.
- Dhurriyyah: progeny — the covenant’s addressees across generations.

[tafsīr] Ṭabarī and Ibn Kathīr transmit early reports describing extraction from Ādam’s back. These reports illuminate kayf debates; they do not create the āyah’s authority.

2.3 وأشهدهم على أنفسهم

Made them witnesses against/upon themselves. Testimony is reflexive: the self is brought to witness.

Yield: Accountability is not merely external legislation; it is tied to testimony.

2.4 ألسـت بربكم

The question of lordship. Negative interrogative expecting affirmation. This is the content of the primordial mīthāq.

Yield: Tawḥīd of lordship as covenantal core — not a vague spirituality.

2.5 قالوا بلى شهدنا

Affirmation + testimony. Balā answers the negative question affirmatively.

Yield: Human response is part of the naṣṣ; the verse is dialogic.

2.6 أن تقولوا يوم القيامة إنا كنا عن هذا غافلين

Purpose clause: block the excuse of ghaflah (unawareness/heedlessness) on Resurrection Day.

Yield: Alast is eschatologically aimed. Axis 1 joins Axis 6 here.

2.7 Verse 173 — inherited shirk plea blocked

The second excuse: ancestral shirk + being mere posterity. The Qur’an refuses this as final refuge against lordship's claim.

Yield: Genealogy does not cancel tawhīd's claim; falsifiers' deeds do not become a blanket acquittal for descendants who meet reminder and ḥujjah in the modes Allah legislates.

3. Agreed Doctrinal Core (al-Muttafaq)

Across modality disputes, this Deep Edition treats as agreed:

- Allah is Rabb; Alast's question is true in meaning.
- Humanity's progeny are within the covenantal taking.
- Affirmation of lordship is the covenant's content.
- The verse aims at eschatological ḥujjah against ghaflah and inherited-shirk pleas.
- Living the balā means tawhīd and refusal of Shayṭān's worship (cf. Q 36:60).
- Prophetic missions remind and specify; they do not invent lordship from nothing.

What agreement does not include: a single mandatory metaphysics of pre-worldly particles as a test of īmān; a Christian "covenant of works" probation scheme.

4. Aqwāl on Modality (Kayf) — Expanded

4.1 Qawl A — Real pre-worldly event

Allah gathered progeny in a real prior scene; they testified; then worldly birth followed.

Supports: narrative plain sense; tafsīr reports of extraction.

Pressures: grading of reports; metaphysics of pre-worldly speech and bodies.

Classical trend: strong in many early narrative tafsīr routes ([tafsīr] Ṭabarī's transmitted materials; Ibn Kathīr's narrative emphasis).

4.2 Qawl B — Representational / through Ādam

Testimony taken in Ādam as representative of offspring, or as true expression of their collective status under lordship.

Supports: reduces some metaphysical strain while keeping dialogic truth.

Pressures: must not erase the verse's "they said."

4.3 Qawl C — Fitrah / existential testimony

The āyah discloses the ontological bond as fitrah and intellect's witness in narrative form.

Supports: fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim).

Pressures: risk of reducing naṣṣ to bare metaphor without classical warrant.

4.4 Qawl D — Mixed / layered

Real taking and lasting fitrah imprint; reports and fitrah both illuminate.

4.5 Tarjīḥ of this Deep Edition

- Affirm the ḥaqīqah of the Qur'anic mīthāq of lordship.
 - Affirm eschatological purpose.
 - Allow A–D as interpretive families.
 - Use fitrah as parallel worldly resonance — not a replacement of the āyah.
 - Mark fine metaphysics disputed — not a takfīr battlefield when the core is affirmed.
 - Reject emptying the verse; reject Christian CT mapping.
-

5. Fitrah Apparatus [hadith]

5.1 Theme

Every child is born upon the fitrah; then parents make him Jew, Christian, or Magian... (Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim).

5.2 Relation to Alast

5.3 Extraction reports — protocol

Narrations of wiping Ādam's back appear in Musnad and tafsīr chains.

Ḥukm: verify/disputed grading; never override Q 7:172; useful for Qawl A discussions.

6. Related Axis-1 Āyāt — Mini-Tafsīr Digest

6.1 Q 36:60 — 'Ahd against Shayṭān

ألم أعهد إليكم يا بني آدم أن لا تعبدوا الشيطان

Did I not take an 'ahd with you, O children of Ādam, that you not worship Shayṭān?

Yield: Negative content of the bond — refuse ṭāghūt/Shayṭān. Complements Alast's positive lordship content. [tafsīr] Commentators connect this to human accountability and prophetic reminder.

6.2 Q 16:91 — Fulfill; do not break confirmed oaths

Arabic core: وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم ولا تنقضوا الأيمان بعد توكيدها وقد جعلتم الله عليكم كفيلا

Yield: Ethical pole of Axis 1; Allah as kafīl. Bridges to Axis 5. [tafsīr] Qurṭubī develops oath/treaty legal-ethical notes from such verses.

6.3 Q 17:34 — The 'ahd will be questioned

إن العهد كان مسئولا

Yield: Eschatological hinge. Frivolous covenants are future courtroom exhibits.

6.4 Q 13:20 and 13:25 — Keepers and breakers

Keepers fulfill 'ahd and do not break mīthāq. Breakers after ratification earn curse and evil abode; they sever what Allah ordered joined.

Yield: Moral typology under covenant. [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr stresses the gravity of naqḍ after confirmation.

6.5 Q 2:27 — Break after mīthāq; sever; corrupt

Yield: Breach is not isolated; it unravels ordered joining and spreads fasād.

6.6 Q 3:76–77 — Fulfill vs sell

Fulfillers with taqwā are loved. Sellers of Allah's 'ahd and oaths for a small price: no ākhirah share; Allah will not speak to them nor look upon them on the Day...

Yield: Commodifying the bond is eschatological bankruptcy (Book VII).

6.7 Q 57:8 — He took your mīthāq

Believe in Allah and His Messenger... and He has taken your mīthāq if you are believers.

Yield: Faith community under taken mīthāq — Axis 1 meeting Axis 4.

6.8 Q 33:72 — Cosmic amānah

We offered the amānah to the heavens and the earth and the mountains... humanity bore it.

Yield: Weight of responsibility. Exact referent disputed in tafsīr (C3); gravity agreed. [tafsīr] Rāzī and others catalogue referents: obedience, sharī'a burdens, trust of choice, etc.

6.9 Q 23:8; 70:32 — Keepers of trusts and 'ahd

Yield: Portrait of success includes covenant-keeping; joins amānah to 'ahd.

7. Objections and Replies — Expanded

7.1 If all testified, why disbelief?

Jawāb: The āyah establishes ḥujjah and removes excuses; it does not claim continuous explicit memory in every individual. Forgetfulness, drowning of fitrah, and rejection after reminder are worldly drama. Prophets awaken;

Books remind (cf. prophetic function under Book III).

7.2 Unfair to those unreached by messengers?

Jawāb: Enters kalām of ahl al-fatra and conditions of ḥujjah. This science affirms Alast's claim and does not cancel prophetic ḥujjah, nor vice versa. Detailed fatra rulings belong to kalām/fiqh specialists.

7.3 Alast = Christian Covenant of Works?

Jawāb: Rejected. Alast is lordship-testimony, not federal Adamic probation to earn heaven by works under Reformed schematics. Different theology of God, Fall, and redemption.

7.4 Without literal extraction reports, Alast falls?

Jawāb: False. Qur'anic āyah stands by itself. Reports illuminate modality.

7.5 Is Alast deterministic compulsion?

Jawāb: The verse establishes testimony and ḥujjah, not a denial of worldly trial, choice, and taklīf as discussed in Sunni kalām. Do not conscript Alast into fatalism debates beyond the naṣṣ.

7.6 Does Alast make sharī'a unnecessary?

Jawāb: Opposite. Alast grounds why sharī'a addresses servants who already stand under lordship. Sharī'a specifies the path of the balā (Book V).

8. Pastoral and Ethical Yield

- Teach: you are not ownerless.
- Teach: say balā with life — tawḥīd, prayer, trusts, oaths.
- Warn: selling 'ahd for status or wealth.
- Console: reminder is mercy; tawbah is open.
- Discipline scholars: bayān is amānah (Q 3:187).

9. Teaching Canons by Audience

Audience | Content

Child | Allah is your Lord; belong to Him; live the yes

Beginner | Naṣṣ + agreed core + Q 36:60

Intermediate | Related ethics + fitrah

Advanced | Full aqwāl + objections

Scholar | Tarjīḥ + C1/C2 register + tafsīr routes

10. Bridge to Prophetology

Alast without prophecy risks becoming fog. Prophecy without Alast risks becoming mere institutional power. Book III raises the prophetic mīthāq:

وإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ ... وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُمْ مِيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا (Q 33:7)

11. Apparatus — Classical Touchpoints for Book II

- [tafsīr] Ṭabarī on Q 7:172 — transmitted extraction/testimony materials
- [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr on Q 7:172 — accountability emphasis
- [tafsīr] Rāzī on Q 7:172 — discursive difficulties and options
- [tafsīr] Qurṭubī — legal-ethical adjacency in related covenant verses
- [ḥadīth] Fitrah — Bukhārī; Muslim
- [ḥadīth] Alast narratives — verify outside Ṣaḥīḥayn

Primary immutable proof: Q 7:172–173 itself.

03 Prophetology Deep

BOOK III — PROPHETOLOGICAL COVENANTS (Deep)

كتاب موثيق النبوة — الطبعة العميقة

1. Opening Thesis

Nubuwwah is not freelance spirituality. It is office under divine mīthāq. The Qur'an says so with solemnity (Q 33:7) and with confirming continuity (Q 3:81). Ādam's forgotten 'ahd (Q 20:115) proves the charge can be tried.

Ibrāhīm's imāmah after trial (Q 2:124–125) proves justice conditions authority. The Final Prophet ﷺ stands fronted in Q 33:7 and elevated in bay'ah (Q 48:10).

Axiom 3: Messengers stand under solemn mīthāq and convey specified guidance.

2. Q 33:7 — Full Apparatus

Arabic

وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُمْ مِيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا

Structural reading

- Divine taking from the prophets generally
 - "And from you" — address to Muḥammad ﷺ prioritized in mention
- Named cascade: Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, 'Īsā
- Reiteration: solemn mīthāq (ghalīẓ)

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: emphasizes weight of prophetic charge and the special mention of the Prophet ﷺ. [tafsīr]

Ṭabarī: early materials on the mīthāq's meaning as binding messengers to convey and to mutual truth. [tafsīr]

Rāzī: explores why these names and what ghalīẓ adds. [tafsīr] Qurṭubī: notes solemnity and connections to prophetic responsibility.

Parallel of ghalīẓ

Q 4:21 uses mīthāq ghalīẓ for marriage. Solemnity-language travels; offices differ. This proves Arabic can intensify compact without collapsing registers.

Mas'ala — Closed list?

Tarjīḥ: No. Highlighting ≠ exhaustive roll of all prophets (who are many; Q 4:164; 40:78).

Doctrinal yield

Prophetic axiom; ūlū al-'azm pedagogy; Final Prophet's centrality in covenantal prophetology.

3. Q 3:81 — Full Apparatus

Arabic (core)

جَاءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ مِمَّنْ لَكُمْ بَيِّنَاتٌ مِمَّا قَدْ خَلَقْتُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ فَاسْمِعُوا لِمَا يُقَالُ إِنَّكُمْ لَعِنْدَ اللَّهِ بَشِيرٌ أَوْ نَذِيرٌ وَإِذْ أَخَذَ اللَّهُ مِيثَاقَ النَّبِيِّينَ لَمَا آتَيْتُكُمْ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَحِكْمَةٍ ثُمَّ قَالُوا لَنْ نَبْرِيْكُمْ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَعِظُكُمْ بِمَا تُقَرَّبُونَ وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُمْ مِيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا

Proof chain

Book+hikmah given → confirming messenger comes → believe + support → iṣr affirmed → Allah witnesses.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Majority Sunni reading links the confirming messenger to Muḥammad ﷺ. [tafsīr] Rāzī records formulations and dialectical pressures.

C4: State the principle clearly; avoid invented casuistry beyond the text.

Supporting field

Glad tidings motifs; continuity of risālah; rejection of those who break prophetic continuity.

Misunderstandings

That Islam denies prior prophets' truth; that Q 3:81 is optional etiquette.

4. Ādam — Q 20:115

Arabic

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

Sharḥ

Forgetfulness and weak resolve are Qur'anic moral diagnoses inside prophetic story — not tools to demote Ādam from prophetic dignity in Sunni creed. The surrounding sūrah narrates trial, slip, and divine address.

Yield for the ummah

If the first human prophet could forget a taken 'ahd, later tongues must fear casual oaths (Q 16:91; 17:34).

5. Ibrāhīm — Q 2:124–125

Proof chain

Allah tried Ibrāhīm with words → completed them → “I am making you an imām for mankind” → “and from my offspring?” → “My covenant does not reach the ṣālimīn.” Then: 'ahidnā to Ibrāhīm and Ismā'īl — purify My House for ṭā'ifīn, 'ākifīn, rukka' sujūd.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Justice condition is decisive: oppression breaks covenantal claim to imāmah line in the verse's stipulation. House purification: cultic-prophetic charge.

Mas'ala — Every ruler an imām under 2:124?

Tarjīḥ: No leap. Prophetic-imāmah frame first; later siyāsa has its own uṣūl. Take the justice ethic without false identity.

6. Mūsā and 'Īsā

Mūsā

Stands in Q 33:7. His people's mīthāq dramas (mountain, tablets' ethic, remonstrance) are Axis 3 meeting Axis 2. Prophetic resolve under pressure is ūlū al-'azm pedagogy.

'Īsā

Named in Q 33:7. Q 5:14 recalls a mīthāq taken from those who say “We are Christians,” then forgetfulness of a portion. Continuity toward the Final Messenger sits under Q 3:81's principle.

Yield

Messenger under compact; community under compact; distinct sins if either breaks.

7. The Final Prophet ﷺ — Triple Seal

- Taken mīthāq — Q 33:7 (“from you”)
- Lived bay'ah — Q 48:10, 48:18, 60:12 + Ṣaḥīḥayn
- Conveyed amānah — Farewell conveyance themes in Bukhārī

Continuity: confirms what preceded. Finality: seal of prophets. Both under divine compact.

Adab

Speak of his bay'ah with Qur'anic elevation — not as bare politics.

8. Architecture Bridge

Alast (Axis 1)

- Prophetic mīthāq (Axis 2)
 - Sharī'a program (Book V)
 - Bay'ah & treaties (Book VI)
 - Judgment (Book VII)
-

9. Masā'il Summary

ID | Question | Tarjīḥ

M08 | Scope of Q 3:81 | Principle clear; casuistry nuanced

M09 | Q 33:7 closed list? | No

M10 | Q 2:124 all politicians? | No leap

10. Proof Spine for Book III

P05, P06, P07, P08 + Q 48:10 (bridge to VI) + Farewell conveyance (Bukhārī).

11. Khatima

Prophets keep Alast from mist. Book IV turns the mirror to scripture peoples — taken terms, broken compacts, warning to the Final Ummah.

04 Scripture Peoples Deep

BOOK IV — SCRIPTURE PEOPLES (Deep)

كتاب أهل الكتاب وموآثيقهم — الطبعة العميقة

1. The Covenant–Remonstrance Pattern

Matn: Axis 3 follows: take covenant → state terms → send messengers → remonstrate for breach → warn hearers of the Final Book.

This is sacred history as moral theology. The Qur'an narrates to place the Final Ummah before a mirror (Q 59:2's spirit of "so take warning, O people of eyes" as pedagogical kinship — without flattening distinct addressees).

Pattern proofs

Q 2:40; 2:63; 2:83–84; 2:93; 3:187; 4:154–155; 5:12–14; 5:70; 7:169.

2. Q 2:40 — Reciprocal 'Ahd

Fulfill My 'ahd; I fulfill your 'ahd; fear Me.

Sharḥ: Reciprocity under lordship — not needy bargaining. Allah's fulfillment is truthful wa'd; human fulfillment is owed 'ubūdiyyah.

[tafsīr] Classical commentaries stress remembrance of favor as prelude to covenantal demand.

3. Q 2:83 — Ethical Charter (Expanded)

Terms

- Worship none but Allah
- Excellence to parents
- Relatives, orphans, needy
- Good speech to people
- Establish prayer
- Give zakāh
- Remonstrance: then you turned away except a few

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr: multi-clause charter; breach as turning away. [modern] Decalogue-adjacent comparisons are maps only.

Yield

Axis 3 content is tawḥīd + social excellence. Betrayal is tragedy; content remains light for hearers.

4. Mountain Texts — Q 2:63; 2:93; 4:154

Mithāq joined to mountain raised.

[tafsīr] Narrative materials describe mountain held above — solemnizing sign.

Tarjīḥ: Affirm Qur'anic joining; avoid folkloric excess; teach awe.

5. Q 2:84 — Blood and Homes

Mithāq not to shed blood nor expel yourselves from homes — then Qur'anic remonstrance for contradictory practice in context.

Yield: Sanctity of life and home inside covenant charter.

6. Q 3:187 — Concealment as Treason against Bayān

Make the Book clear; do not conceal. They cast it behind backs and sold it for a small price.

Yield: Scholar's disease warned. Rhymes with selling 'ahd (Q 3:77; 16:95).

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: severe censure of hiding what Allah revealed for worldly gain.

7. Q 4:154–155 — Breach Cluster

Mountain by mīthāq; breaking mīthāq; disbelief; killing prophets — among listed causes in the remonstrance sequence.

Yield: Covenant breach rarely travels alone in Qurʾanic diagnosis.

8. Q 5:12–14 — Isrāʾīl and Naṣārā

5:12

Allah took mīthāq of Banī Isrāʾīl; twelve chiefs; conditional divine support for prayer, zakāh, belief in messengers, lending Allah a good loan.

5:13

For breaking mīthāq: curse; hardness of hearts; distorting words; forgetting portion.

5:14

Those who say “We are Christians” — We took their mīthāq; they forgot portion; We aroused enmity and hatred among them until Resurrection Day; Allah will inform them of what they used to do.

Masʾala

Does 5:14 deny a real Christian mīthāq?

Jawāb: No — it affirms taking and diagnoses forgetfulness.

[tafsīr] Mainstream reading: real compact, real breach/forgetfulness, real consequence language.

9. Q 5:70 and Q 7:169

5:70 — mīthāq + messengers sent. 7:169 — mīthāq of the Book should restrain unjust worldly taking; “is there not in the Book a covenant upon them...?”

Yield: Book-covenant as moral restraint against worldly predation in religious dress.

10. Warning to the Final Ummah

Applications (ethical, not ethnic slogans):

- Do not break ratified pledges
- Do not conceal bayān
- Do not kill prophetic message by distortion or neglect
- Do not harden after reminders
- Do not sell dīn cheaply

The ummah has its own mīthāq language (Q 5:7; 57:8) and bayʾah elevation (Q 48:10). Privilege increases accountability.

11. Justice without Dilution

Hold both ropes:

- Qurʾanic frankness about breach narratives
- Qurʾanic justice toward every soul

Remonstrance ≠ racism. Covenant history ≠ blood guilt for innocents. Treaty ethics (Book VI) still bind. Dawah requires clarity and ihsān.

Masʾala M11

Does Axis 3 license injustice? No.

12. Proof Spine

P09–P16; Pattern §1; Justice §11.

13. Khatima

Broken compact teaches fear. Book V teaches the kept compact as law — sharīʿa as covenantal program.

BOOK V — SHARĪ'A AS COVENANTAL PROGRAM (Deep)

كتاب الشريعة برنامج الميثاق — الطبعة العميقة

1. From Alast to Law

Matn: Sharī'a is not rival to Alast; it is Alast specified. The Lord who asked a-lastu bi-rabbikum sends detailed guidance so the yes has a path.

Lordship testimony → Prophetic mīthāq → Sharī'a program → Lived fidelity → Judgment

Two errors named

- Dry furū' — law without theology
- Soft antinomianism — spirituality without obligation

Proof bridge: Q 7:172 → Q 33:7/3:81 → Q 6:152–153 → Q 16:91 → Q 17:34.

2. Path Verses — Q 6:152–153

Fulfill Allah's 'ahd; that He has enjoined upon you — and: this is My path, straight, so follow it.

Yield: Covenant-keeping is not a side virtue; it describes the road. [tafsīr] Commentators read the cluster of commands in 6:151–153 as a compact ethical constitution culminating in path language.

3. Fulfillment Cluster

Ref | Load

Q 16:91 | Fulfill; no break after tawkīd; Allah kāfīl

Q 17:34 | 'Ahd will be questioned

Q 2:177 | Piety includes fulfilling 'ahd

Q 3:76 | Fulfillers with taqwā

Q 13:20 | Fulfill 'ahd; do not break mīthāq

[hadith] Bukhārī; Muslim — treachery when covenanting among nifāq marks.

4. Worship as Covenant-Keeping

Ṣalāh, zakāh, ṣawm, ḥajj, dhikr — renewing lived balā.

Q 2:83 already joined tawḥīd to prayer and zakāh in Banī Isrā'īl's charter. Final sharī'a universalizes worship as covenantal maintenance.

Warning: Prayer with betrayed trusts is split self — Q 23:8 pairs amānah and 'ahd among successful believers' traits.

5. Social Ethics as Covenant-Keeping

Parents, kin, orphans, needy, truthful speech, just measure — charter content under the program (cf. Q 2:83; 6:152).

Axis 1 ethics meet Axis 5 life. Ritual perfection with devouring trusts misunderstands Book V.

6. 'Uqūd — Q 5:1

يا أيها الذين آمنوا أوفوا بالعقود

Believers commanded to fulfill contracts. [fiqh] Develops types; [tafsīr] opens Mā'idah's legislative field under fidelity.

Register rule: legal 'aqd ≠ Alast; same fidelity sky.

Marriage — Q 4:21

Mīthāq ghalīz — solemnity parallel to Q 33:7, applied to home. Multi-register paradigm case.

7. Anti-Program — Selling the ‘Ahd

Q 3:77; Q 16:95 — selling Allah’s ‘ahd and oaths for small price.

Whenever dīn becomes merchandise — verdicts for bribes, silence for gifts, principles for applause — these verses shadow the seller. Eschatological sting expanded in Book VII.

8. Maqāṣid of Covenantal Āyāt

Aim | Sample proof

Ḥujjah | Q 7:172–173

Tawḥīd | Q 36:60

Character | Q 16:91; 23:8

Prophecy structure | Q 33:7; 3:81

Coexistence fidelity | Q 9:4; 16:91

Family solemnity | Q 4:21

Eschatological orientation | Q 9:111; 17:34

Caution: Maqāṣid organize; they do not outrank naṣṣ. [modern] maqāṣid methodologies are maps.

9. Theorems Sh1–Sh4 Restated with Proofs

- Sh1 ‘Ahd commands integrate creed/deed — Q 6:152–153; 2:177
 - Sh2 Worship/social law = fidelity practice — Q 2:83; 23:8
 - Sh3 ‘Uqūd enact interpersonal fidelity — Q 5:1; 4:21
 - Sh4 Selling ‘ahd is anti-program — Q 3:77; 16:95
-

10. Khatima

The program needs a city and a pledge. Book VI: bay‘ah, treaties, social weave.

BOOK VI — BAY‘AH, TREATIES, SOCIAL BONDS (Deep)

كتاب البيعة والعهود الاجتماعية — الطبعة العميقة

1. Axis 4 Thesis

Under the Prophet ﷺ, covenantal ethics become city and pledge. Bay‘ah is elevated to bay‘ah with Allah (Q 48:10). Treaties demand uprightness (Q 9:4; 9:7). History (Madinah charter; Ḥudaybiyah) applies — it does not become a second Qur‘an.

2. Q 48:10 — Bay‘ah Theology (Full)

Arabic

إن الذين يبايعونك إنما يبايعون الله يد الله فوق أيديهم فمن نكث فإنما ينكث على نفسه ومن أوفى بما عاهد عليه الله فسيؤتيه أجرا عظيما

Proof chain

Identification (to you = to Allah) → Hand imagery of ratification → nakth reflexively harms → fulfillment of what one ‘āhada Allah upon → great reward.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: pledging to the Messenger is pledging to Allah because he commands by revelation. [tafsīr] Ṭabarī: early senses of nakth and wafā‘. [tafsīr] Qurṭubī: legal-ethical gravity of bay‘ah breach.

Distinction

Alast ≠ bay‘ah. Different layers, same Lord. Collapsing them confuses ontology with Prophetic community structure.

3. Q 48:18 — Tree / Riḍwān

Allah pleased with believers at bay‘ah under the tree; knew what was in their hearts; sent sakīnah; rewarded with opening.

[hadith] Bay‘at al-Riḍwān — Bukhārī; Muslim.

Yield: Covenantal crisis under divine pleasure; patience of Ḥudaybiyah under Faṭḥ’s light.

4. Q 60:12 — Women’s Bay‘ah Conditions

No shirk; no theft; no zinā; no killing children; no slander fabricated; no disobedience in ma‘rūf — then accept bay‘ah and ask forgiveness.

[hadith] Bukhārī reports of women’s bay‘ah.

Yield: Ethical stipulations are not extras; they are compact content.

5. Bay‘ah in Ṣaḥīḥayn — Themes

Theme | Collections | Use

Upon Islam | Bukhārī; Muslim | Entry bond

Hear and obey | Bukhārī; Muslim | Loyalty under ma‘rūf

Women | Bukhārī | Q 60:12 parallel

Tree | Bukhārī; Muslim | Q 48:18

Imāmah bay‘ah warnings | Muslim | Later siyāsa — careful

C7: Post-prophetic political bay‘ah is a fiqh/imāmah file — secondary to Prophetic core here.

6. Treaty Cluster — Expanded

Q 8:56

Those with whom you made ‘ahd then they break every time — no taqwā.

Q 9:4

Except those you made ‘ahd with among mushrikīn then they did not fail you nor support anyone against you — complete their term; Allah loves muttaqīn.

Q 9:7

How can there be ‘ahd for mushrikīn with Allah and His Messenger — except those at Masjid al-Ḥarām? So long as they are upright to you, be upright to them.

Q 9:12

If they break oaths after ‘ahd and defame your religion — then fight leaders of kufr...

Q 4:90; 4:92

Peoples under mīthāq — protection/compensation logic.

[tafsīr] Qurṭubī: aḥkām-rich. [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: balances narrative and ruling.

Yield: Fidelity is worship of the Lord of all — within Qur’anic conditions — not slogan absolutism either direction.

7. Madinah Charter and Ḥudaybiyah [history]

Charter

Urban compact among Muhājirūn, Anṣār, and Jewish tribes as reported in sīrah: mutual defense, community recognition, dispute referral to Allah and His Messenger.

Method: application of Axis 4; not waḥy. [modern] source-criticism orients; classical sīrah remains default narrative frame for this Library.

Ḥudaybiyah

Truce terms heavy on companions; later openings. Q 48 frames pleasure and victory narrative. Lesson: covenantal patience under Prophetic authority.

8. Dhimma / Mu‘āhid Ethics

[hadith] Bukhārī warns against wronging the mu‘āhid. [fiqh] Develops ahl al-dhimma across ages — genre-tagged.

Ethic for this book: pledged protection is amānah. Betrayal of the protected is covenantal field betrayal.

Non-polemic rule: sources and classical categories — refuse extremes that erase or weaponize.

9. Oaths and Marriage (Axis 5 inside VI’s social weave)

Oaths: Q 16:91; 5:89. Marriage: Q 4:21 mīthāq ghalīẓ.

Home and tongue sit under the same fidelity sky as bay‘ah and treaty.

10. Hypocrisy as Social Solvent

[hadith] Bukhārī; Muslim — lies; broken promises; betrayed trusts; treachery when covenanting.

A city with walls falls if bay‘ah is theater and contracts are traps. Nifāq is Volume VI’s antagonist.

11. Theorems Pol1–Pol4 with Proofs

- Pol1 Bay‘ah elevated — Q 48:10
 - Pol2 Treaty uprightness — Q 9:4; 9:7; 16:91
 - Pol3 Dhimma/protection as amānah — H20; fiqh applications
 - Pol4 Family/commercial fidelity — Q 4:21; 5:1
-

12. Khatima

All registers return to the courtroom. Book VII: eschatology of the covenant.

07 Eschatology Deep

BOOK VII — ESCHATOLOGY OF THE COVENANT (Deep)

كتاب معاد الميثاق — الطبعة العميقة

1. Thesis

The covenantal bond terminates in judgment: excuses fail, ‘ahd is questioned, fidelity rewarded, betrayal exposed — under Allah’s mercy and justice, without foreign schematics.

Axiom 6: Covenants are recalled in judgment; Allah’s promise is true.

2. Alast’s Telos — Q 7:172–173

Purpose clauses block ghaflah and inherited-shirk pleas on Resurrection Day.

Yield: Primordial mīthāq is future-oriented ḥujjah, not nostalgia. Proof: P01; Book II.

3. Questioning — Q 17:34

إن العهد كان مسئولا

Every covenant enters questioning. Pair with Q 16:91’s kafīl: surety in world, questioner in next.

[tafsīr] Gravity unanimous in mainstream tafsīr.

4. Sellers — Q 3:77 (Full Sting)

Those who sell Allah’s ‘ahd and their oaths for a small price: no share in ākhirah; Allah will not speak to them nor look at them on the Day of Resurrection nor purify them; painful punishment.

Yield: Commodifying the bond = eschatological bankruptcy. [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: among severest warnings for worldly sale of dīn.

Related: Q 16:95; 3:187 (sale of concealment).

5. The Purchase — Q 9:111 (Full)

Arabic

ويقتلون وعدا عليه حقا في التوراة والإنجيل والقرآن ومن أوفى بعهده من الله فاستبشروا ببيعكم الذي بايعتم به وذلك هو الفوز العظيم
إن الله اشترى من المؤمنين أنفسهم وأموالهم بأن لهم الجنة يقاتلون في سبيل الله فيقتلون

Proof chain

Purchase metaphor → Paradise price → fight in path → true promise in Torah, Gospel, Qur’an as Allah states → who more faithful to his ‘ahd than Allah? → rejoice in bargain → great success.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Devotional sacrifice reading; promise theology; believers’ total gift.

Reject: mapping onto Christian “covenant of grace” machinery (C8).

Islamic soteriological limit

Mercy, tawḥīd, accepted deeds, tawbah, shafā‘ah as Allah wills — covenant language describes bond/obligation; it does not replace raḥmah.

6. Keepers Inherit — Q 23:1–11 with 23:8

Successful believers... who are keepers of their trusts and covenant... those are the inheritors who inherit Paradise, abiding eternally.

Yield: Covenant-keeping among success traits. Complement: Q 70:32.

7. Related Eschatological Field

Ref | Note

Q 19:87 | Intercession tied to ‘ahd with al-Raḥmān — integrate full shafā‘ah creed

Q 36:60–63 | ‘Ahd vs Shayṭān; sorting scenes

8. Courtroom File — Synthesis

- Alast ḥujjah recalled
 - ‘Ahd questioned
 - Sellers exposed
 - True bargain’s people rejoice
 - Keepers inherit
-

9. Mercy Limits Schematics (E4 / T10)

Salvation is not a transplanted Reformed diagram. Despair and mechanical entitlement both fail. Hold hope in raḥmah and fear of selling ‘ahd.

10. Theorems E1–E4 with Proofs

- E1 Alast’s telos is judgment — Q 7:172–173
 - E2 Selling ‘ahd bankrupts āakhirah — Q 3:77
 - E3 Q 9:111 frames devoted bargain — P24
 - E4 Keepers among inheritors — Q 23:8–11
-

11. Khatima

Courtroom closes registers. Book VIII: Summa roof and seal.

BOOK VIII — THE SUMMA (Deep)

كتاب الجامع · أنموذج الميثاق — الطبعة العميقة

1. Muqaddima

Namūdḥaj al-Mīthāq / The Mīthāq Paradigm

Allah binds His servants by lordship and testimony, specifies the bond through prophets and revelation, requires fidelity in worship and social pledges, and judges covenant-keeping in the ākhirah.

A Summa is not new revelation. It is the house after stones are cut: Books I–VII as load-bearing walls.

2. Six Axioms — With Proof Chains

A1 Lordship

Allah is Rabb; humans are ʿibād; obligation is ontological.

Proofs: Q 7:172; 51:56; 2:21; 36:60.

A2 Primordial

Mīthāq of lordship binds humanity.

Proofs: Q 7:172–173; P01; fitrah parallel (H30).

A3 Prophetic

Messengers under solemn mīthāq convey specified guidance.

Proofs: Q 33:7; 3:81; 20:115; P05–P07.

A4 Fidelity

Fulfilling ʿahd/mīthāq/ʿuqūd/amānah obligatory; treachery grave.

Proofs: Q 16:91; 17:34; 13:20–25; 5:1; H01–H02.

A5 Continuity/Warning

Scripture peoples' covenant histories warn Final Ummah.

Proofs: Q 2:83; 5:12–14; 3:187; Book IV.

A6 Eschatological

Covenants recalled in judgment; Allah's promise true.

Proofs: Q 17:34; 9:111; 3:77; 30:6; 23:8–11.

3. Ten Theorems — With Proof Chains

T | Statement | Proofs

T1 | Sharīʿa = covenantal program of Axis 1 | Q 6:152–153; Book V

T2 | Bayʿah/treaties = Axis 4 under fidelity | Q 48:10; 9:4; Book VI

T3 | Contracts = Axis 5; marriage mīthāq ghalīz | Q 5:1; 4:21

T4 | Do not collapse registers | Book I §5; Q 4:21 multi-register

T5 | Alast ḥujjah affirmed; kayf disputed | Book II tarjīḥ; C1

T6 | Nifāq solvents covenants | H01–H02

T7 | Concealment is covenantal treason | Q 3:187

T8 | Selling ʿahd is eschatological bankruptcy | Q 3:77

T9 | Christian CT rejected as frame | C8; appendix

T10 | Mercy limits mechanical entitlement | Book VII §9

4. Architecture of Six Axes

Axis | Home Books | Crown loci

1 | II, V | Q 7:172; 16:91

2 | III | Q 33:7; 3:81

3 | IV | Q 2:83; 5:12–14

4 | VI | Q 48:10

5 | V–VI | Q 5:1; 4:21

6 | VII | Q 9:111; 17:34

Flow: Creation/Lordship → Alast → Prophetic mīthāq → Sharīʿa → Social/political pacts → Judgment.

5. Tarjīhāt of the Long School

- Alast: ḥujjah yes; kayf families allowed; no emptying; no CT import
 - Lexicon: local context; solemnity sensitivity
 - Q 3:81: confirming principle clear; casuistry nuanced
 - Madinah charter: history not waḥy
 - Bayʿah: Prophetic elevation first; later politics secondary
 - Soteriology: mercy + tawḥīd + accepted deeds
-

6. Contested Register C1–C10 (Retained)

ID | Issue | Status

C1 | Alast modality | Disputed

C2 | Extraction report grades | Verify/disputed

C3 | Q 33:72 referent | Disputed detail

C4 | Q 3:81 casuistry | Nuanced

C5 | Strict ʿahd≠mīthāq | Lexical debate

C6 | Madinah reconstructions | Historical variance

C7 | Post-prophetic bayʿah | Fiqh dispute

C8 | Christian CT as frame | Rejected

C9 | Untethered Sufi ontology as creed | Speculative if beyond evidence

C10 | Erasing Axis 3 remonstrance | Rejected if text-denying

Honesty about ikhtilāf is itself covenantal bayān — against concealment (Q 3:187).

7. Against Foreign Schematics

No Works/Grace/Redemption skeleton. No Triune pact. No Israel/Church typology as Axis 3 engine. Comparison permitted after mastery — lantern outside the house.

8. Proof Spine (Memorize)

P01 Alast · P02 Fulfill · P03 Questioned · P05–P06 Prophets · P10 Charter · P17 Bayʿah · P24 Purchase · P22 Contracts · P23 Marriage · H01–H02 · H30 Fitrah

9. Adab of the Covenant Scholar

- Fear selling ʿahd for status (Q 3:77)
- Do not conceal bayān (Q 3:187)
- Preserve ikhtilāf
- Tag genres
- Prefer loci over eloquence
- Keep courtesy treaties with students/opponents
- Remember questioning (Q 17:34)

A thousand years of books cannot wash a treacherous tongue.

10. Khatima — Seal

Balā shahidnā — then live the testimony until the Day the ‘ahd is asked.

وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم (Q 16:91)

Book IX: Encyclopaedia. Book of Proofs: apparatus maximus.

BOOK OF PROOFS — APPARATUS MAXIMUS

كتاب البراهين في الميثاق

Ultimate Proof Apparatus for Islamic Covenant Theology

For each locus: Arabic (where primary), lexical notes, proof chain, classical digest, supporting texts, doctrinal yield, misunderstandings, cross-references.

Method: Qur'an → Ṣaḥīḥayn → classical tafsīr (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī).

P01 — Q 7:172–173 (Alast)

Arabic

(See Book II for full orthography.)

Lexical anchors

akhadha; Banī Ādam; zuhūr; dhurriyyah; ashhadahum; a-lastu bi-rabbikum; balā; shahidnā; ghaflah; shirk of āba'.

Proof chain

- Divine taking of testimony
- Lordship as content
- Human affirmation
- Eschatological anti-excuse design (ghaflah + inherited shirk)

Classical digest

- [tafsīr] Ṭabarī: routes of extraction/testimony narratives
- [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: foundational accountability reading
- [tafsīr] Rāzī: maps linguistic/theological pressures
- [tafsīr] Qurṭubī: places verse within wider covenantal ethics of the mushaf

Supporting

Q 36:60; Q 57:8; fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim); Axis 1 ethics Q 16:91; 17:34.

Doctrinal yield

Primordial mīthāq of lordship; ḥujjah; agreed core vs disputed kayf (C1).

Misunderstandings

= Covenant of Works; = requires one metaphysics; = makes prophecy unnecessary.

Cross-refs

Book II; Summa Axiom 2; Contested C1–C2.

P02 — Q 16:91 (Fulfill the covenant)

Arabic

وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم ولا تنقضوا الأيمان بعد توكيدها وقد جعلتم الله عليكم كفيلا إن الله يعلم ما تفعلون

Lexical anchors

awfū; 'ahd Allāh; 'āhadum; lā tanquḍū; aymān; tawkīd; kafīl.

Proof chain

Command to fulfill → prohibition of breaking confirmed oaths → Allah as surety → divine knowledge of acts.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Qurṭubī: oath and treaty ethics; [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr: fidelity as faith practice; [tafsīr] Ṭabarī: early senses of naqḍ after confirmation.

Supporting

Q 17:34; 13:20; 5:1; 2:177; Bukhārī/Muslim nifāq—treachery themes.

Doctrinal yield

Fidelity axiom; bridge Axes 1 and 5; kafil theology of oaths.

Misunderstandings

“Only political treaties”; “oaths are trivial speech.”

P03 — Q 17:34 (‘Ahd will be questioned)

Core

إن العهد كان مسئولا

Proof chain

Fulfillment command context → eschatological mas’ūliyyah of ‘ahd.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Consensus of gravity: covenants enter questioning.

Supporting

Q 16:91; 3:77; 7:172–173.

Yield

Axis 6 hinge; anti-frivolity.

P04 — Q 13:20 and Q 13:25 (Keepers / breakers)

Proof chain

Portrait of ūlū al-albāb who fulfill ‘ahd and do not break mīthāq vs those who break after ratification, sever what Allah ordered joined, corrupt — curse and evil abode.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr on severity of naqḍ; [tafsīr] Ṭabarī on “what Allah ordered joined.”

Supporting

Q 2:27; 16:91.

Yield

Moral typology; social unraveling follows covenant breach.

P05 — Q 33:7 (Prophetic mīthāq ghalīẓ)

Arabic

وإذ أخذنا من النبيين ميثاقهم ومنك ومن نوح وإبراهيم وموسى وعيسى ابن مريم وأخذنا منهم ميثاقا غليظا

Proof chain

Taking from prophets → fronting “from you” → named cascade → solemnity (ghalīẓ).

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr/Ṭabarī: ūlū al-‘azm emphasis common; honor of Final Prophet in word order; [tafsīr] Rāzī: discursive notes on solemn charge.

Supporting

Q 3:81; 20:115; 4:21 (ghalīẓ parallel).

Yield

Nubuwwah as covenantal office (Axiom 3).

Misunderstandings

Closed exclusive list of all prophets; mere honorific without obligation.

P06 — Q 3:81 (Confirming messenger compact)

Arabic (opening)

وإذ أخذ الله ميثاق النبيين لما آتيتكم من كتاب وحكمة ثم جاءكم رسول مصدق لما معكم لتؤمنن به ولتنصرنه ...

Proof chain

Mīthāq of prophets → Book and ḥikmah given → coming of confirming messenger → believe and support → affirmation of iṣr → witnessing.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Majority Sunni link to Muḥammad ﷺ; [tafsīr] Rāzī maps formulations; keep C4 nuance on casuistry.

Supporting

Q 33:7; 61:6 (ʿĪsā's giving glad tidings of Aḥmad — related continuity field).

Yield

Continuity of revelation under compact.

P07 — Q 20:115 (Ādam's 'ahd)

Arabic

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

Proof chain

'Ahd taken → forgetfulness → lack of 'azm diagnosed.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Narrative link to Adam's trial; moral theology of resolve; not denial of prophethood in Sunni creed.

Yield

Prophetic covenant includes trial; warning to later servants.

P08 — Q 2:124–125 (Ibrāhīm)

Proof chain

Trial with words → imāmah → not for ḡālimīn → 'ahidnā to purify the House.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Justice condition for imāmah line; House charge as cultic-prophetic covenant.

Yield

Authority under covenantal justice; sacred space charge.

P09 — Q 2:40 (Reciprocal 'ahd with Banī Isrā'īl)

Proof chain

Remember favor → fulfill My 'ahd → I fulfill your 'ahd → fear Me.

Yield

Reciprocity under lordship; Axis 3 opening.

P10 — Q 2:83 (Ethical charter)

Arabic sense-list

Tawḥīd; parents; kin/orphans/needy; good speech; ṣalāh; zakāh — then turning away except a few.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Charter reading; remonstrance for breach; Decalogue-adjacent ethical memory as modern map only.

Yield

Axis 3 content is ethical-theological, not empty metaphysics.

P11 — Q 2:63; 2:93; 4:154 (Mountain and mīthāq)

Proof chain

Mīthāq taken with mountain raised — solemnizing sign.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr: mountain narratives; awe and enforced solemnity.

Yield

Some covenants accompanied by overwhelming ḥujjah-signs.

P12 — Q 2:84 (Blood and expulsion)

Proof chain

Mīthāq not to shed blood nor expel yourselves — then breach narratives in context.

Yield

Social sanctity inside Axis 3 charter.

P13 — Q 3:187 (Concealment)

Proof chain

Mīthāq to make Book clear → not conceal → they cast behind backs and sold for small price.

Yield

Bayān as covenantal amānah; scholar's warning.

P14 — Q 4:154–155 (Break and disbelief)

Proof chain

Mountain by mīthāq → breaking mīthāq → disbelief in signs → killing prophets — listed among causes of divine seal/curse language in context.

Yield

Breach clusters with other crimes in Qur'anic remonstrance.

P15 — Q 5:12–14 (Isrā'īl and Naṣārā)

Proof chain

5:12 taken mīthāq + conditional support; 5:13 breach → curse/hardness; 5:14 Christians' mīthāq taken → forgot portion → enmity ensued.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Affirms taken covenants; diagnoses forgetfulness/breach; not a denial that mīthāq existed.

Yield

Multi-community Axis 3 grammar.

P16 — Q 5:70

Proof chain

Took mīthāq of Banī Isrā'īl and sent messengers — rejection/killing pattern in context.

Yield

Covenant + continuous messengership.

P17 — Q 48:10 (Bay'ah elevation)

Arabic

إن الذين يبايعونك إنما يبايعون الله يد الله فوق أيديهم فمن نكث فإنما ينكث على نفسه ومن أوفى بما عاهد عليه الله فسيؤتيه أجرا عظيما

Proof chain

Bay'ah to Prophet = bay'ah to Allah → Hand over hands → nakth harms self → fulfillment rewarded.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Unanimous elevation reading among mainstream tafsīr; [hadith] Tree bay'ah in Ṣaḥīḥayn aligns Q 48:18.

Yield

Axis 4 theological core.

Misunderstandings

Collapse into Alast; reduce to secular politics.

P18 — Q 48:18 (Divine pleasure at Tree)

Proof chain

Allah pleased with believers when they pledged under the tree — knew what was in hearts — sent sakīnah — rewarded with opening.

Supporting

[hadith] Bay‘at al-Riḍwān (Bukhārī; Muslim).

Yield

Historical covenantal crisis under divine pleasure.

P19 — Q 60:12 (Women’s bay‘ah)

Proof chain

Conditions: no shirk; no theft; no zinā; no infanticide; no slander; no disobedience in ma‘rūf — accept bay‘ah; ask forgiveness.

Supporting

[hadith] Bukhārī women’s bay‘ah reports.

Yield

Ethical stipulations inside pledge.

P20 — Q 8:56; 9:4; 9:7; 9:12 (Treaty cluster)

Proof chain

Chronic breakers; fulfill to upright treaty-keepers to term; uprightness as they are upright near Sacred Mosque; breaking oaths after ‘ahd + defaming dīn — rulings context.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Qurṭubī heavy on aḥkām; [tafsīr] Ibn Kathīr narrative-legal balance.

Yield

Fidelity beyond the ummah’s border within Qur’anic conditions.

P21 — Q 4:90; 4:92 (Peoples under mīthāq)

Proof chain

Exception/protection logic involving peoples bound by mīthāq — legal implications for force and compensation contexts.

Yield

Treaty status changes legal/moral landscape.

P22 — Q 5:1 (‘Uqūd)

Arabic

يا أيها الذين آمنوا أوفوا بالعقود

Proof chain

Vocative to believers → fulfill contracts.

Classical digest

[tafsīr]/[fiqh] Gateway to contract law; theology tracks fidelity virtue.

Yield

Axis 5; register distinction from Alast.

P23 — Q 4:21 (Marriage mīthāq ghalīz)

Core

وأخذن منكم ميثاقا غليظا

Proof chain

Marriage takes solemn compact language paralleling Q 33:7's ghalīz.

Yield

Multi-register: legal 'aqd + theological solemnity.

P24 — Q 9:111 (Purchase)

Arabic

إن الله اشترى من المؤمنين أنفسهم وأموالهم بأن لهم الجنة ... وعدا عليه حقا في التوراة والإنجيل والقرآن ومن أوفى بعهده من الله ...

Proof chain

Purchase of lives/wealth for Paradise → fight in path → true promise across scriptures as Qur'an states → Allah most faithful to His 'ahd → rejoice in bay'.

Classical digest

[tafsīr] Devotion and sacrifice reading; promise theology; not Christian grace-covenant machine.

Yield

Axis 1/6; eschatological bargain.

P25 — Q 3:77 (Sellers)

Proof chain

Sell Allah's 'ahd and oaths for small price → no ākhirah share → no speech/looking from Allah on Day → painful punishment.

Yield

Anti-program; eschatological bankruptcy.

P26 — Q 6:152–153 (Path)

Proof chain

Fulfill Allah's 'ahd → He enjoined this → this is My path straight → follow it → not follow ways that separate from His way.

Yield

Sharī'a as covenantal program (Book V thesis).

P27 — Q 33:72 (Amānah)

Proof chain

Offer to heavens/earth/mountains → refusal/fear → humanity bore it — context of injustice/ignorance.

Classical digest

Referent disputed (C3); gravity agreed — [tafsīr] Rāzī option map.

Yield

Cosmic weight of responsibility beside covenantal lexicon.

P28 — Q 23:8 with 23:1–11 (Keepers inherit)

Proof chain

Successful believers → among traits: keep amānāt and 'ahd → inherit Paradise.

Yield

Covenant-keeping in soteriological portrait (with mercy limits).

P29 — Q 19:87 (Intercession and ‘ahd)

Proof chain

None possess intercession except who took ‘ahd with al-Raḥmān — read with whole shafā‘ah creed.

Yield

Eschatological ‘ahd field; careful creed integration.

P30 — Q 5:7 (Remember mīthāq)

Proof chain

Remember Allah’s favor and His mīthāq which He bound you with when you said we hear and obey — taqwā.

Yield

Believers under remembered mīthāq; Axis 1/4.

P31 — Hadith Cluster H01–H02 (Nifāq and treachery)

Proof chain

[hadith] Bukhārī; Muslim — betrayal of trust; treachery when covenanting as hypocrisy marks.

Yield

Sunnah diagnostic of fidelity axiom.

P32 — Hadith Cluster H10–H13 (Bay‘ah)

Proof chain

Bay‘ah upon Islam; hearing/obeying; women; Tree — Ṣaḥīḥayn.

Yield

Lived Axis 4 under Prophetic authority.

P33 — Hadith H20 (Mu‘āhid)

Proof chain

[hadith] Bukhārī warning against wronging mu‘āhid.

Yield

Protective pact ethics.

P34 — Hadith H30 (Fitrah)

Proof chain

[hadith] Bukhārī; Muslim — born on fitrah.

Yield

Parallel to Alast; not replacement.

P35 — Hadith H40 (Shepherd)

Proof chain

[hadith] Bukhārī; Muslim — each shepherd responsible for flock.

Yield

Amānah structure of authority under covenantal responsibility.

Master Cross-Table (Proof → Axiom)

Proof | Axiom/Theorem

P01 | A2 Primordial

P02 P03 P04 | A4 Fidelity

P05 P06 P07 | A3 Prophetic

P09–P16 | A5 Continuity/warning

P17–P21 | T2 Axis 4

P22 P23 | T3 Axis 5

P24 P25 P28 | A6 Eschatology

P26 | T1 Sharī'a program

P31–P35 | Sunnah spine

How to cite this Book of Proofs

In essays: (Proof P17; Q 48:10; Ibn Kathīr on Q 48:10; Bukhārī Maghāzī — Tree). In teaching: open P-number before dispute. In Summa defense: chain P01→P26→P24 for program-to-eschatology arc.

11 Extended Apparatus Generated

EXTENDED APPARATUS — GENERATED DEEP COMMENTARIES

جهاز موسع — شروح عميقة لكل شاهد أساس

This book expands each major covenantal locus with a twelve-part scholarly apparatus: Arabic core, claim, background, proof chain, supports, classical digest, systematic placement, yield, misunderstandings, teaching notes, cross-references, and closing gloss.

It is designed for Ultimate-level study and for thick print editions with strong evidential background.

Entries in this volume: 42

Q 7:172-173 — Alast — Primordial Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 1/6

1. Arabic core

ألست بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا

2. Claim (matn)

Lordship testimony; eschatological ḥujjah against ghaflah and inherited shirk.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 36:60
- Q 57:8
- Fitrah hadith — Bukhārī; Muslim

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ṭabarī (extraction routes); Ibn Kathīr (accountability); Rāzī (option map); Qurṭubī (ethical adjacency).

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Affirm ḥujjah; kayf disputed (C1); reject Covenant-of-Works mapping.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 16:91 — Fulfill Allah's 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 1/5

1. Arabic core

وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم

2. Claim (matn)

Command of fulfillment; ban on breaking confirmed oaths; Allah as kafīl.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 17:34
- Q 13:20
- Q 5:1
- Nifāq–treachery — Bukhārī; Muslim

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Qurṭubī (oath/treaty aḥkāṁ); Ibn Kathīr (fidelity); Ṭabarī (naqḍ).

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology,

Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Fidelity axiom; bridges theology and interpersonal oaths.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 17:34 — 'Ahd Will Be Questioned

Axis: Axis 6

1. Arabic core

إن العهد كان مسئولا

2. Claim (matn)

Eschatological mas'ūliyyah of every covenant.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 6 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 16:91
- Q 3:77
- Q 7:172-173

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Mainstream tafsīr: gravity of questioning.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Anti-frivolity; courtroom hinge.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 13:20 — Keepers of Covenant

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

الذين يوفون بعهد الله ولا ينقضون الميثاق

2. Claim (matn)

Portrait of those who fulfill 'ahd and do not break mīthāq.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 13:25

- Q 2:27
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ibn Kathīr on ūlū al-albāb portrait.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Moral typology of fidelity.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 13:25 — Breakers after Ratification

Axis: Axis 1/6

1. Arabic core

الذين ينقضون عهد الله من بعد ميثاقه

2. Claim (matn)

Breach after mīthāq; severing what Allah ordered joined; curse; evil abode.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.

- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:27
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr on severing and fasād.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Breach unravels ordered society.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 33:7 — Prophetic Mīthāq Ghalīz

Axis: Axis 2

1. Arabic core

وإذ أخذنا من النبيين ميثاقهم ومنك

2. Claim (matn)

Solemn prophetic compact; Final Prophet fronted; named ūlū al-'azm cascade.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).

- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 2 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:81
- Q 20:115
- Q 4:21

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ibn Kathīr/Ṭabarī on prophetic charge; Rāzī on ghalīz.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīh that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Nubuwwah as covenantal office.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 3:81 — Confirming Messenger Compact

Axis: Axis 2

1. Arabic core

ثم جاءكم رسول مصدق لما معكم لتؤمنن به ولتنصرنه

2. Claim (matn)

Prophets bound to believe and support confirming messenger under iṣr.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 2 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 33:7
- Q 61:6

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Majority Sunni link to Muḥammad ﷺ; Rāzī formulations; C4 nuance.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Continuity under compact.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 20:115 — Ādam's 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 2

1. Arabic core

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

2. Claim (matn)

Charge; forgetfulness; weak resolve diagnosed.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's

aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 2 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 33:7
- Q 7:172

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Tafsīr narrative of trial; not denial of prophethood.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Prophetic covenant includes trial.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:124-125 — Ibrāhīm — Imāmah and House

Axis: Axis 2

1. Arabic core

2. Claim (matn)

لا ینال عهدي الظالمین

Trial; imāmah; covenant does not reach ṣālimīn; purify the House.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 2 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 33:7
- Q 2:40

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Justice condition in tafsīr; cultic charge.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves taḥdīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Authority under covenantal justice.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:40 — Reciprocal 'Ahd — Banī Isrā'īl

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

أوفوا بعهدي أوف بعهدكم

2. Claim (matn)

Fulfill My 'ahd; I fulfill yours; fear Me.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:83
- Q 5:12

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Favor remembrance as prelude to demand.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Reciprocity under lordship.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:83 — Ethical Charter of Banī Isrāʾīl

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

لا تعبدون إلا الله

2. Claim (matn)

Tawḥīd; parents; kin/orphans/need; good speech; ṣalāh; zakāh; turning away.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qurʾan and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider ʿahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:84
- Q 5:12
- Q 6:151-153

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr charter reading.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qurʾan. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharʿa program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Axis 3 content is ethical-theological.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bayʿah ≠ commercial ʿaqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masāʾil and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:63 / 2:93 / 4:154 — Mountain and Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

ورفعنا فوقكم الطور

2. Claim (matn)

Mīthāq solemnized with mountain sign.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:83
- Q 5:12

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr mountain narratives.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Overwhelming ḥujjah-sign with some covenants.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā’il and contested

IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:84 — Blood and Expulsion Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

لا تسفكون دماءكم

2. Claim (matn)

Do not shed blood nor expel yourselves — remonstrance for breach in context.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:83
- Q 5:32 field

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Social sanctity inside charter.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Life/home sanctity under compact.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.

- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 3:187 — Mīthāq of Bayān — No Concealment

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

لتبينه للناس ولا تكتُمونه

2. Claim (matn)

Clarify the Book; do not conceal; sale for small price censured.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:77
- Q 16:95

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ibn Kathīr on hiding revelation for dunyā.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Scholar's covenantal amānah.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 4:154-155 — Breach Cluster

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

فيما نقضهم ميثاقهم

2. Claim (matn)

Breaking mīthāq listed with disbelief and killing prophets in remonstrance.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 5:13
- Q 2:27

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Cluster diagnosis in tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Breach travels with other crimes.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 5:12-13 — Banī Isrā'īl Mīthāq and Curse

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

ولقد أخذ الله ميثاق بني إسرائيل

2. Claim (matn)

Taken mīthāq; chiefs; conditions; breach → curse; hardness.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 2:83
- Q 5:70

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Conditional support vs breach consequence.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology,

Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Taken terms + remonstrance.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 5:14 — Naṣārā Mithāq

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

ومن الذين قالوا إنا نصارى أخذنا ميثاقهم

2. Claim (matn)

Taken mīthāq; forgot portion; enmity until Day.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 5:12
- Q 3:187

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Affirms taking; diagnoses forgetfulness.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Multi-community Axis 3 grammar.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 5:70 — Mīthāq and Messengers Sent

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

لقد أخذنا ميثاق بني إسرائيل وأرسلنا إليهم رسلا

2. Claim (matn)

Covenant plus continuous messengership; rejection pattern in context.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 5:12
- Q 2:87 field

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Covenant + risālah continuum.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mithāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Messengers enforce compact memory.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 48:10 — Bay'ah Elevation

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

إِن الَّذِينَ يَبَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا يُبَايِعُونَ اللَّهَ

2. Claim (matn)

Pledge to Prophet = pledge to Allah; Hand over hands; nakth/wafā'.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 48:18
- Q 60:12
- Bay‘ah — Bukhārī; Muslim

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Unanimous elevation in mainstream tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur‘an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Axis 4 theological core.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā‘il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 48:18 — Bay‘ah under the Tree

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

لقد رضي الله عن المؤمنين إذ يبايعونك تحت الشجرة

2. Claim (matn)

Divine pleasure; sakīnah; opening reward.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur‘an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).

- Situate within Axis Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 48:10
- Riḍwān — Bukhārī; Muslim

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Maghāzī/tafsīr alignment.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Crisis compact under pleasure.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 60:12 — Women's Bay'ah

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

إذا جاءك المؤمنات يبایعنك

2. Claim (matn)

Ethical stipulations listed; accept bay'ah; istighfār.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.

- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 48:10
- Bukhārī women's bay'ah

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Conditions as compact content.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Ethics inside pledge.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 9:4 — Fulfill Treaty to Upright Keepers

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

فَأْتَمُوا إِلَيْهِمْ عَهْدَهُمْ إِلَىٰ مَدَّتِهِمْ

2. Claim (matn)

Complete term for those who did not fail nor support enemies.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 9:7
- Q 16:91
- Q 8:56

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Qurṭubī aḥkām; Ibn Kathīr narrative-legal.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves taḥḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Uprightness reciprocity.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 9:7 — Upright as They Are Upright

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

فما استقاموا لكم فاستقيموا لهم

2. Claim (matn)

Exception for treaty-holders near Sacred Mosque; mutual uprightness.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 9:4
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Fidelity within stated conditions.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Coexistence under fidelity.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 9:12 — Break Oaths after 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

2. Claim (matn)

Nakth of oaths after ‘ahd plus defaming dīn — rulings context.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 9:4
- Q 8:56

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Breach opens distinct aḥkām.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Fidelity has breach jurisprudence.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā’il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 8:56 — Chronic Treaty Breakers

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

الذين عاهدت منهم ثم ينقضون عهدهم في كل مرة

2. Claim (matn)

Those covenanted with who break every time — no taqwā.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 9:12
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Pattern of chronic naqd.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Taqwā linked to treaty fidelity.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 5:1 — Fulfill the Contracts

Axis: Axis 5

1. Arabic core

يا أيها الذين آمنوا أوفوا بالعقود

2. Claim (matn)

Believers commanded to fulfill ‘uqūd.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 5 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 16:91
- Q 4:21
- Q 17:34

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Gateway to contract law in tafsīr/fiqh.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Axis 5; register ≠ Alast.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā’il and contested

IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 4:21 — Marriage Mithāq Ghalīz

Axis: Axis 5

1. Arabic core

وأخذن منكم ميثاقا غليظا

2. Claim (matn)

Solemn marriage compact — ghalīz parallel to Q 33:7.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mithāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 5 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 33:7
- Q 5:1

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Solemnity of home bond in tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mithāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mithāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Multi-register paradigm case.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.

- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 9:111 — The Purchase

Axis: Axis 1/6

1. Arabic core

إن الله اشترى من المؤمنين أنفسهم وأموالهم

2. Claim (matn)

Purchase for Paradise; true promise; Allah most faithful to 'ahd; rejoice in bay'.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:77
- Q 23:8-11
- Q 30:6

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Devotional sacrifice tafsīr; reject CT grace mapping.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Eschatological bargain under raḥmah limits.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 3:77 — Sellers of the 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 6

1. Arabic core

إن الذين يشترون بعهد الله وأيمانهم ثمنا قليلا

2. Claim (matn)

No ākhirah share; no speech/looking; painful punishment.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 6 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 16:95
- Q 3:187
- Q 9:111

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Among severest warnings in Ibn Kathīr et al.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Anti-program; bankruptcy.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 6:152-153 — 'Ahd and the Straight Path

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

وبعهد الله أوفوا بآله وصاكم به

2. Claim (matn)

Fulfill 'ahd; enjoined; this is My path — follow it.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 16:91
- Q 2:177
- Q 5:1

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Ethical constitution cluster in tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Sharī'a as covenantal program.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 36:60 — 'Ahd against Shayṭān

Axis: Axis 1/6

1. Arabic core

ألم أعهد إليكم يا بني آدم أن لا تعبدوا الشيطان

2. Claim (matn)

Negative content of Banī Ādam's 'ahd — refuse Shayṭān-worship.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 7:172
- Q 2:256

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Accountability and prophetic reminder in tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mithāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Complements Alast's positive lordship.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 33:72 — Cosmic Amānah

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

إنا عرضنا الأمانة على السماوات والأرض والجبال

2. Claim (matn)

Amānah offered; humanity bore it — referent disputed (C3).

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 23:8
- Q 4:58
- Q 8:27

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Rāzī option map; gravity agreed.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Responsibility weight beside covenant lexicon.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 23:8 — Keepers of Trusts and 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 1/5/6

1. Arabic core

والذين هم لأماناتهم وعهدهم راعون

2. Claim (matn)

Success portrait includes covenant-keeping; inherits with 23:1-11.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).

- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 70:32
- Q 23:1-11
- H01

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Paired amānah/‘ahd in believer’s character.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Eschatological success trait.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā’il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 57:8 — He Took Your Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 1/4

1. Arabic core

وقد أخذ ميثاقكم إن كنتم مؤمنين

2. Claim (matn)

Believe; He took your mīthāq.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 5:7
- Q 48:10
- Q 7:172

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Faith community under taken mīthāq.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Believers' compact memory.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 5:7 — Remember the Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 1/4

1. Arabic core

وميثاقه الذي واثقكم به

2. Claim (matn)

Remember favor and mīthāq when you said we hear and obey.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's

aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 57:8
- Q 2:285 field

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Hearing-obeying as compact response.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Remembered mīthāq of believers.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:27 — Breakers who Sever and Corrupt

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

الذين ينقضون عهد الله من بعد ميثاقه

2. Claim (matn)

Break after ratification; sever; corrupt — losers.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 13:25
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Fasād follows naqd in tafsīr.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Breach as social unraveling.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 3:76 — Fulfillers Loved

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

بلى من أوفى بعهدہ واتقى

2. Claim (matn)

Who fulfills 'ahd and has taqwā — Allah loves the muttaqīn.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:77
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Love of Allah tied to fidelity+taqwā.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Positive portrait vs sellers.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 16:95 — Do Not Sell Allah's 'Ahd

Axis: Axis 1

1. Arabic core

ولا تشتروا بعهد الله ثمنا قليلا

2. Claim (matn)

Do not sell Allah's 'ahd for small price — what is with Allah better.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:77
- Q 3:187

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Anti-commodification of dīn.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Anti-program twin of 3:77.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 2:177 — Birr Includes Fulfilling ‘Ahd

Axis: Axis 1/5

1. Arabic core

والموفون بعهدهم إذا عاهدوا

2. Claim (matn)

Piety includes fulfillers of ‘ahd when they pledge.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis 1 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 16:91
- Q 2:83

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Birr definition includes covenant fidelity.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Ethics inside righteousness definition.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā’il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 4:90 / 4:92 — Peoples under Mīthāq

Axis: Axis 4

1. Arabic core

إلا الذين يصلون إلى قوم بينكم وبينهم ميثاق

2. Claim (matn)

Treaty peoples alter force/protection/compensation landscape.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur’an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah’s aims, and the wider ‘ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 4 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 9:4
- Q 8:72 field

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Legal implications in tafsīr/fiqh.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur’an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī‘a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Mīthāq changes juridical status.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay‘ah ≠ commercial ‘aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 12:66 — Mawthiq of Ya'qūb

Axis: Axis 5

1. Arabic core

حتى توثون موثقا من الله

2. Claim (matn)

Bond taken from sons by Allah's mawthiq — family pledge field.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 5 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 12:80
- Q 16:91

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Narrative family compact.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Interpersonal solemn pledges.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).

- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to waḥy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

Q 7:169 — Mīthāq of the Book as Restraint

Axis: Axis 3

1. Arabic core

ألم يؤخذ عليهم ميثاق الكتاب

2. Claim (matn)

Book-covenant should restrain unjust worldly taking.

3. Background and context

This locus belongs to the covenantal field of the Qur'an and must be read with its surrounding āyāt, the sūrah's aims, and the wider 'ahd/mīthāq map. The Deep Library refuses isolated slogan-reading. Lexical work begins with the Arabic root senses, then local syntax, then classical tafsīr range, then systematic placement under the six axes.

4. Proof chain (istidlāl)

- Establish the Arabic wording and addressees.
- Identify the covenantal act (taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling).
- Identify stipulated content (lordship, ethics, prophecy, treaty terms, contracts).
- Identify consequence language (reward, curse, questioning, pleasure, punishment).
- Situate within Axis Axis 3 and any secondary axes.
- Confirm with supporting texts listed below.
- Check classical digest for range and ikhtilāf.
- State doctrinal yield and mark disputes.

5. Supporting texts

- Q 3:187
- Q 2:83

6. Classical digest [tafsīr] / [hadith]

Moral restraint vs religious predation.

Method reminder: classical works clarify; they do not outrank the Qur'an. Where aqwāl differ, record difference; prefer tarjīḥ that preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim.

7. Systematic placement

Under the Mīthāq Paradigm, this locus feeds one or more of: Ontology, Primordial mīthāq, Prophetology, Scripture-peoples warning, Sharī'a program, Political-social enactment, Eschatology. Teachers should assign the axis before preaching applications.

8. Doctrinal yield

Book as covenantal check.

9. Common misunderstandings

- Reading the verse through Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.
- Collapsing distinct registers (Alast ≠ bay'ah ≠ commercial 'aqd).
- Ignoring consequence clauses or purpose clauses.
- Using remonstrance texts to cancel justice commands elsewhere.
- Treating historical applications as equal to wahy.

10. Teaching notes

Beginners: claim + one supporting āyah. Intermediate: add hadith/tafsīr digest. Advanced: masā'il and contested IDs. Scholars: full proof chain + cross-links to Summa axioms/theorems.

11. Cross-references inside the Library

See Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs master table; Contested Register; ayah dossiers in sources/ayah-dossiers/ where available.

12. Closing gloss

Keep the naṣṣ central. Fulfill what you teach. The 'ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34).

ULTRA PROOF COMMENTARIES — ULTIMATE DEPTH

Essay-length apparatus for each major covenantal locus: placement, Arabic, matn, lexicon, eight-step istidlāl, supports, classical digest, Summa yield, masā'il, objections, adab, teaching ladder.

Entries: 42

Q 7:172-173 — Alast — Primordial Mithāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

أَلَسْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ شَهِدْنَا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Lordship testimony; eschatological ḥujjah against ghaflah and inherited shirk.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 36:60, Q 57:8, Fitrah hadith — Bukhārī; Muslim.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ṭabarī (extraction routes); Ibn Kathīr (accountability); Rāzī (option map); Qurṭubī (ethical adjacency).

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Affirm ḥujjah; kayf disputed (C1); reject Covenant-of-Works mapping.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 7:172-173 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 16:91 — Fulfill Allah's 'Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/5 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وَأَوْفُوا بعهْدِ اللَّهِ إِذَا عَاهَدْتُمْ

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Command of fulfillment; ban on breaking confirmed oaths; Allah as kafil.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.

- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīh: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 17:34, Q 13:20, Q 5:1, Nifāq—treachery — Bukhārī; Muslim.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Qurṭubī (oath/treaty aḥkām); Ibn Kathīr (fidelity); Ṭabarī (naqd).

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mithāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Fidelity axiom; bridges theology and interpersonal oaths.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 16:91 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 17:34 — ‘Ahd Will Be Questioned

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إن العهد كان مسئولا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Eschatological mas’ūliyyah of every covenant.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

• Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.

- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 16:91, Q 3:77, Q 7:172-173.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Mainstream tafsīr: gravity of questioning.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Anti-frivolity; courtroom hinge.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 17:34 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 13:20 — Keepers of Covenant

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

الذين يوفون بعهد الله ولا ينقضون الميثاق

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Portrait of those who fulfill ‘ahd and do not break mīthāq.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 13:25, Q 2:27, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ibn Kathīr on ūlū al-albāb portrait.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Moral typology of fidelity.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 13:20 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 13:25 — Breakers after Ratification

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

الذين ينقضون عهد الله من بعد ميثاقه

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Breach after mīthāq; severing what Allah ordered joined; curse; evil abode.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:27, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr on severing and fasād.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Breach unravels ordered society.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 13:25 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 33:7 — Prophetic Mīthāq Ghalīz

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 2 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Solemn prophetic compact; Final Prophet fronted; named ūlū al-‘azm cascade.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa‘d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:81, Q 20:115, Q 4:21.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ibn Kathīr/Ṭabarī on prophetic charge; Rāzī on ghalīẓ.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Nubuwwah as covenantal office.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aḳīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 33:7 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 3:81 — Confirming Messenger Compact

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 2 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of

B. Arabic Core

ثم جاءكم رسول مصدق لما معكم لتؤمنن به ولتنصرنه

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Prophets bound to believe and support confirming messenger under iṣr.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 33:7, Q 61:6.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Majority Sunni link to Muḥammad ﷺ; Rāzī formulations; C4 nuance.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Continuity under compact.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/hujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3

- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 3:81 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 20:115 — Ādam’s ‘Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 2 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse.

It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Charge; forgetfulness; weak resolve diagnosed.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 33:7, Q 7:172.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Tafsīr narrative of trial; not denial of prophethood.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Prophetic covenant includes trial.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2

- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 20:115 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it

Q 2:124-125 — Ibrāhīm — Imāmah and House

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 2 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لا ینال عهدي الظالمین

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Trial; imāmah; covenant does not reach ṣālimīn; purify the House.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 33:7, Q 2:40.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Justice condition in tafsīr; cultic charge.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Authority under covenantal justice.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:124-125 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 2:40 — Reciprocal ‘Ahd — Banī Isrā’īl

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

أوفوا بعهدي أوف بعهدكم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Fulfill My ‘ahd; I fulfill yours; fear Me.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:83, Q 5:12.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Favor remembrance as prelude to demand.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Reciprocity under lordship.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:40 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 2:83 — Ethical Charter of Banī Isrā'īl

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لا تعبدون إلا الله

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Tawḥīd; parents; kin/orphans/needy; good speech; ṣalāh; zakāh; turning away.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.

- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:84, Q 5:12, Q 6:151-153.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr charter reading.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mithāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Axis 3 content is ethical-theological.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:83 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 2:63 / 2:93 / 4:154 — Mountain and Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ورفعنا فوقكم الطور

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Mīthāq solemnized with mountain sign.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

• Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.

- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:83, Q 5:12.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ṭabarī/Ibn Kathīr mountain narratives.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Overwhelming ḥujjah-sign with some covenants.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:63 / 2:93 / 4:154 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 2:84 — Blood and Expulsion Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لا تسفكون دماءكم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Do not shed blood nor expel yourselves — remonstrance for breach in context.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:83, Q 5:32 field.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Social sanctity inside charter.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Life/home sanctity under compact.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority

dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:84 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 3:187 — Mīthāq of Bayān — No Concealment

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لتبينه للناس ولا تكتمونه

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Clarify the Book; do not conceal; sale for small price censured.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:77, Q 16:95.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ibn Kathīr on hiding revelation for dunyā.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Scholar's covenantal amānah.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 3:187 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 4:154-155 — Breach Cluster

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

فيما نقضهم ميثاقهم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Breaking mīthāq listed with disbelief and killing prophets in remonstrance.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 5:13, Q 2:27.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Cluster diagnosis in tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Breach travels with other crimes.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 4:154-155 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 5:12-13 — Banī Isrā'īl Mīthāq and Curse

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of

B. Arabic Core

ولقد أخذ الله ميثاق بني إسرائيل

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Taken mīthāq; chiefs; conditions; breach → curse; hardness.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 2:83, Q 5:70.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Conditional support vs breach consequence.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Taken terms + remonstrance.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3

- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 5:12-13 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 5:14 — Naṣārā Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse.

It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ومن الذين قالوا إنا نصارى أخذنا ميثاقهم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Taken mīthāq; forgot portion; enmity until Day.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 5:12, Q 3:187.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Affirms taking; diagnoses forgetfulness.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Multi-community Axis 3 grammar.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2

- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 5:14 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it

Q 5:70 — Mīthāq and Messengers Sent

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لقد أخذنا ميثاق بني إسرائيل وأرسلنا إليهم رسلاً

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Covenant plus continuous messengership; rejection pattern in context.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 5:12, Q 2:87 field.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Covenant + risālah continuum.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Messengers enforce compact memory.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 5:70 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 48:10 — Bay‘ah Elevation

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إن الذين يبايعونك إنما يبايعون الله

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Pledge to Prophet = pledge to Allah; Hand over hands; nakth/wafā’.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 48:18, Q 60:12, Bay‘ah — Bukhārī; Muslim.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Unanimous elevation in mainstream tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Axis 4 theological core.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 48:10 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 48:18 — Bay'ah under the Tree

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

لقد رضي الله عن المؤمنين إذ يبايعونك تحت الشجرة

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Divine pleasure; sakīnah; opening reward.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.

- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīh: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 48:10, Riḍwān — Bukhārī; Muslim.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Maghāzī/tafsīr alignment.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Crisis compact under pleasure.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 48:18 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 60:12 — Women’s Bay‘ah

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إذا جاءك المؤمنات يبایعنك

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Ethical stipulations listed; accept bay‘ah; istighfār.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

• Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.

- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 48:10, Bukhārī women's bay'ah.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Conditions as compact content.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Ethics inside pledge.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 60:12 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 9:4 — Fulfill Treaty to Upright Keepers

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

فَأْتَمُوا إِلَيْهِمْ عَهْدَهُمْ إِلَىٰ مَدَتِهِمْ

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Complete term for those who did not fail nor support enemies.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 9:7, Q 16:91, Q 8:56.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Qurṭubī aḥkāṃ; Ibn Kathīr narrative-legal.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Uprightness reciprocity.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority

dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 9:4 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 9:7 — Upright as They Are Upright

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

فما استقاموا لكم فاستقيموا لهم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Exception for treaty-holders near Sacred Mosque; mutual uprightness.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '—h—d and w—th—q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 9:4, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Fidelity within stated conditions.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Coexistence under fidelity.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 9:7 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 9:12 — Break Oaths after 'Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وإن نكثوا أيمانهم من بعد عهدهم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Nakth of oaths after ‘ahd plus defaming dīn — rulings context.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay’ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 9:4, Q 8:56.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Breach opens distinct aḥkām.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Fidelity has breach jurisprudence.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay’ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay’ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aḳīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 9:12 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 8:56 — Chronic Treaty Breakers

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of

B. Arabic Core

الذين عاهدت منهم ثم ينقضون عهدهم في كل مرة

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Those covenanted with who break every time — no taqwā.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 9:12, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Pattern of chronic naqd.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Taqwā linked to treaty fidelity.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/hujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3

- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 8:56 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 5:1 — Fulfill the Contracts

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 5 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse.

It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

يا أيها الذين آمنوا أوفوا بالعقود

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Believers commanded to fulfill 'uqūd.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 16:91, Q 4:21, Q 17:34.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Gateway to contract law in tafsīr/fiqh.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Axis 5; register ≠ Alast.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2

- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 5:1 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from

Q 4:21 — Marriage Mithāq Ghalīz

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 5 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mithāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وأخذن منكم ميثاقا غليظا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Solemn marriage compact — ghalīz parallel to Q 33:7.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 33:7, Q 5:1.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Solemnity of home bond in tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Multi-register paradigm case.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 4:21 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 9:111 — The Purchase

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إن الله اشترى من المؤمنين أنفسهم وأموالهم

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Purchase for Paradise; true promise; Allah most faithful to ‘ahd; rejoice in bay‘.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa‘d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:77, Q 23:8-11, Q 30:6.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Devotional sacrifice tafsīr; reject CT grace mapping.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Eschatological bargain under raḥmah limits.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 9:111 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 3:77 — Sellers of the 'Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إن الذين يشترون بعهد الله وأيمانهم ثمنا قليلا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: No ākhirah share; no speech/looking; painful punishment.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.

- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīh: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 16:95, Q 3:187, Q 9:111.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Among severest warnings in Ibn Kathīr et al.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Anti-program; bankruptcy.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 3:77 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 6:152-153 — ‘Ahd and the Straight Path

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وبعهد الله أوفوا بآلهم وصاكم به

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Fulfill ‘ahd; enjoined; this is My path — follow it.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

• Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.

- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 16:91, Q 2:177, Q 5:1.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Ethical constitution cluster in tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Sharīʿa as covenantal program.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bayʿah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bayʿah/treaty ≠ legal ʿaqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masāʾil Likely to Arise

Masʾala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Masʾala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Masʾala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ʿaqīdah.

Masʾala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ʿahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 6:152-153 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 36:60 — ‘Ahd against Shayṭān

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Tabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ألم أعهد إليكم يا بني آدم أن لا تعبدوا الشيطان

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Negative content of Banī Ādam’s ‘ahd — refuse Shayṭān-worship.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 7:172, Q 2:256.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Accountability and prophetic reminder in tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Complements Alast’s positive lordship.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority

dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 36:60 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 33:72 — Cosmic Amānah

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إنا عرضنا الأمانة على السماوات والأرض والجبال

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Amānah offered; humanity bore it — referent disputed (C3).

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '—h—d and w—th—q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 23:8, Q 4:58, Q 8:27.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Rāzī option map; gravity agreed.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Responsibility weight beside covenant lexicon.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 33:72 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 23:8 — Keepers of Trusts and 'Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/5/6 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

والذين هم لأماناتهم وعهدهم راعون

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Success portrait includes covenant-keeping; inherits with 23:1-11.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 70:32, Q 23:1-11, H01.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Paired amānah/'ahd in believer's character.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Eschatological success trait.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aḳīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 23:8 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 57:8 — He Took Your Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of

B. Arabic Core

وقد أخذ ميثاقكم إن كنتم مؤمنين

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Believe; He took your mīthāq.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 5:7, Q 48:10, Q 7:172.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Faith community under taken mīthāq.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Believers' compact memory.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/hujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3

- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 57:8 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 5:7 — Remember the Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan

verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Tabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

وميثاقه الذي واثقكم به

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Remember favor and mīthāq when you said we hear and obey.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 57:8, Q 2:285 field.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Hearing-obeying as compact response.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Remembered mīthāq of believers.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2

- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 5:7 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from

Q 2:27 — Breakers who Sever and Corrupt

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

الذين ينقضون عهد الله من بعد ميثاقه

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Break after ratification; sever; corrupt — losers.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 13:25, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Fasād follows naqḍ in tafsīr.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mithāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Breach as social unraveling.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/hujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:27 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 3:76 — Fulfillers Loved

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

بلى من أوفى بعهده واتقى

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Who fulfills ‘ahd and has taqwā — Allah loves the muttaqīn.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:77, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Love of Allah tied to fidelity+taqwā.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Positive portrait vs sellers.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 3:76 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 16:95 — Do Not Sell Allah's 'Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ولا تشتروا بعهد الله ثمنا قليلا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Do not sell Allah's 'ahd for small price — what is with Allah better.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '–h–d and w–th–q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.

- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjih: Prefer what preserves tawhīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:77, Q 3:187.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Anti-commodification of dīn.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mithāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Anti-program twin of 3:77.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā‘il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 16:95 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 2:177 — Birr Includes Fulfilling ‘Ahd

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 1/5 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

والموفون بعهدهم إذا عاهدوا

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Piety includes fulfillers of ‘ahd when they pledge.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

• Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.

- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 16:91, Q 2:83.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Birr definition includes covenant fidelity.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Ethics inside righteousness definition.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas‘ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas‘ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas‘ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas‘ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 2:177 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 4:90 / 4:92 — Peoples under Mīthāq

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 4 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

إِلَّا الَّذِينَ يَصِلُونَ إِلَى قَوْمٍ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ مِيثَاقٌ

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Treaty peoples alter force/protection/compensation landscape.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur’an clusters around roots ‘-h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa’d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-‘urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that ‘ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīz matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur’anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 9:4, Q 8:72 field.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Legal implications in tafsīr/fiqh.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Mīthāq changes juridical status.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay‘ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay‘ah/treaty ≠ legal ‘aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīz).

I. Masā’il Likely to Arise

Mas’ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas’ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas’ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found ‘aqīdah.

Mas’ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: “Covenant language is minor in Islam.”

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority

dismissal.

Objection B: “This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic.”

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic ‘ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: “Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless.”

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: “Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today.”

Reply: False. Qur’anic frankness and Qur’anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about ‘ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay‘ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā’il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 4:90 / 4:92 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 12:66 — Mawthiq of Ya‘qūb

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 5 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur’anic field of ‘ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur’an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

حتى تؤتون موثقا من الله

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Bond taken from sons by Allah’s mawthiq — family pledge field.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots '—h—d and w—th—q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 12:80, Q 16:91.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Narrative family compact.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Interpersonal solemn pledges.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Ḥujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 12:66 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Q 7:169 — Mīthāq of the Book as Restraint

A. Placement in the Science

This locus is classified under Axis 3 in the six-axis map of Islamic Covenant Theology. It is not an orphan verse. It sits inside the Qur'anic field of 'ahd and mīthāq, and it must be read with the source hierarchy of this Library: Qur'an first, authentic Sunnah second, classical Sunni tafsīr third (Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī), with kalām/fiqh/taṣawwuf only as tagged clarification.

The Deep Summa exists because verses like this were often explained locally in tafsīr yet under-systematized globally. The present commentary therefore does three jobs at once: (1) secure the Arabic claim, (2) gather supporting proofs, (3) place the yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm without importing Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption schematics.

B. Arabic Core

ألم يؤخذ عليهم ميثاق الكتاب

The Arabic is the authority. English in this commentary is a study gloss and conceptual bridge, never a replacement muṣḥaf.

C. Matn — The Claim Secured

Claim: Book-covenant should restrain unjust worldly taking.

This claim is treated as a doctrinal load-bearing statement for teaching and for Summa defense. If a later application contradicts this claim, the application is wrong, not the āyah.

D. Lexical and Rhetorical Notes

Covenantal vocabulary in the Qur'an clusters around roots 'h-d and w-th-q, with field companions wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, aymān, iṣr, and al-'urwa al-wuthqā. For this locus, identify: who binds whom; what content is stipulated; what ratification language appears; what consequence language follows. Rhetorically, ask whether the verse commands, remonstrates, narrates sacred history, elevates a pledge, or orients to the ākhirah. Many covenantal āyāt do more than one.

Do not force a rigid synonym law that 'ahd must always mean unilateral obligation and mīthāq always reciprocal compact. Local context rules; solemnity markers such as ghalīẓ matter; pairing in Q 13:20 and Q 2:27 shows overlap is Qur'anic.

E. Full Istidlāl — Eight-Step Proof Chain

- Naṣṣ: Establish wording, addressees, and particles of purpose or emphasis.
- Act: Name the covenantal act — taking, fulfilling, breaking, pledging, purchasing, selling, questioning.
- Content: Extract stipulated theology/ethics/law.
- Consequence: Reward, curse, pleasure, punishment, inheritance, bankruptcy.
- Axis assignment: Primary and secondary axes.
- Supports: Bring sibling āyāt and ṣaḥīḥ themes.
- Classical range: Record tafsīr aqwāl; mark ikhtilāf.
- Tarjīḥ: Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, fidelity ethics, and the plain covenantal claim; refuse syncretism.

F. Supporting Proofs

Primary supports for this entry: Q 3:187, Q 2:83.

Method: prefer Bukhārī/Muslim when Sunnah is invoked; mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast modality reports as verify/disputed; never let a report override an āyah.

G. Classical Digest

Moral restraint vs religious predation.

How to use the digest in teaching: beginners hear one clear reading; advanced students hear the range; scholars keep the contested register open where kayf or casuistry is disputed. Concealment of ikhtilāf where it exists is itself a breach of bayān ethics (see Q 3:187).

H. Systematic Yield inside the Mīthāq Paradigm

Doctrinal yield: Book as covenantal check.

Map this yield onto the Summa:

- If lordship/ḥujjah: Axioms A1–A2
- If prophetic office/continuity: Axiom A3
- If fidelity/treachery: Axiom A4 and Theorems T6–T8
- If scripture-peoples warning: Axiom A5
- If bay'ah/treaty: Theorem T2
- If contracts/marriage: Theorem T3
- If eschatology: Axiom A6

Registers must not collapse: theological mīthāq ≠ communal bay'ah/treaty ≠ legal 'aqd, even when one verse multi-registers (e.g. marriage as mīthāq ghalīẓ).

I. Masā'il Likely to Arise

Mas'ala 1: Does this verse alone found the whole science?

Jawāb: No single verse founds a science; a field does. This locus is a pillar inside the field.

Mas'ala 2: May we preach application before axis assignment?

Jawāb: Dangerous. Assign axis first or you will confuse Alast with politics, or contracts with primordial ontology.

Mas'ala 3: What if modern academic theories conflict with the naṣṣ?

Jawāb: Modern maps are Rank 5 only. They orient; they do not found 'aqīdah.

Mas'ala 4: What if a Sufi meditation intensifies the verse spiritually but adds ontology beyond evidence?

Jawāb: Keep the ethical heat; tag speculation; do not teach extras as creed.

J. Objections and Replies

Objection A: "Covenant language is minor in Islam."

Reply: Recurrent architectonic use across lordship, prophecy, ethics, community, and judgment refutes minority dismissal.

Objection B: "This is just Christian covenant theology in Arabic."

Reply: Rejected. Different theology of God, prophecy, law, and salvation. Arabic 'ahd/mīthāq must govern, not berith schematics imported wholesale.

Objection C: "Without one mandatory metaphysics (especially on Alast), the verse is useless."

Reply: False. Hujjah and lordship content stand; kayf may remain disputed without emptying the naṣṣ.

Objection D: "Remonstrance texts justify injustice toward people today."

Reply: False. Qur'anic frankness and Qur'anic justice are two ropes; drop neither. Treaty and rights ethics still bind.

K. Pastoral and Scholarly Adab

Teach this verse as one who expects to be questioned about 'ahd (Q 17:34). Do not sell its meaning for status (Q 3:77). Do not conceal difficulties (Q 3:187). Keep trusts with students. If you speak on bay'ah, speak with elevation and fear. If you speak on Alast, speak with hope and responsibility.

L. Teaching Ladder

Level | What to teach from this locus

Child | One sentence claim in plain words

Beginner | Arabic core + claim + one support

Intermediate | Supports + one classical note + axis

Advanced | Masā'il + objections

Scholar | Full chain + Summa link + contested IDs

M. Cross-References

Deep Books I–VIII; Book of Proofs; Contested Register C1–C10; sources/quran-index.md; sources/ayah-dossiers/; MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

N. Seal of the Entry

Q 7:169 stands as a witnessed proof in the Library. Keep it. Fulfill what it binds. Let no small price purchase it from your tongue.

Mithaq Paradigm

The Mīthāq Paradigm

Consolidated treatise of Islamic Covenant Theology Corpus edition — Qur'an and authentic Sunnah first; classical Sunni tafsīr second.

Allah binds His servants by lordship and testimony, specifies the bond through prophets and revelation, requires fidelity in worship and social pledges, and judges covenant-keeping in the ākhirah.

This file unifies Level 04. For progressive study, use levels/04-ultimate/. For method, see METHOD.md.

I. Method boundaries

- Source hierarchy: Qur'an → authentic Sunnah → classical tafsīr → genre-tagged kalām/taṣawwuf/fiqh → modern maps only
 - Not Christian Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption
 - Not a classical madhhab label; a constructed systematic discipline from primary terms 'ahd / mīthāq
 - Every major thesis cites a primary locus
-

II. Lexical pillars

Term | Function

'Ahd | Commitment, charge, pledge

Mīthāq | Confirmed / solemn compact

Wa'd | Promise

Amānah | Trust

Bay'ah | Pledge of allegiance

'Uqūd | Binding contracts

Dhimma | Protective covenantal liability

Full entries: lexicon/.

III. Six axes

- Allah ↔ humanity (Alast; fulfill/break)
- Allah ↔ prophets (Q 33:7; Q 3:81)
- Allah ↔ People of Scripture / Banī Isrā'īl
- Prophet ﷺ ↔ community (bay'ah; treaties)
- Interpersonal ('uqūd; marriage mīthāq; oaths)
- Eschatological accountability

Diagram: diagrams/six-axes.md.

IV. Ontology of the bond

Theses

- O1. Allah alone is Rabb; humans are 'ibād.
- O2. The divine–human relation is inherently obligating; covenant language articulates that obligation.
- O3. Amānah (Q 33:72) magnifies responsibility without partnership with God.

Sequence: Creation → Lordship → Testimony/mīthāq → Prophetic specification → Accountability.

Loci: Q 7:172; Q 51:56; Q 2:21; Q 36:60; Q 33:72.

V. Primordial mīthāq (Alast)

Arabic core: Q 7:172–173 — a-lastu bi-rabbikum / balā shahidnā.

Agreed: lordship acknowledgment; universal progeny scope; eschatological anti-excuse purpose.

Disputed (C1): modality (literal pre-worldly extraction vs representation vs fitrah-primary vs mixed).

Preferred METHOD synthesis: Affirm real ḥujjah and the Qur'anic claim; relate fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim) as parallel support; do not empty the verse; do not dogmatize one metaphysics as sole orthodoxy.

Dossier: sources/ayah-dossiers/alast-7-172.md.

VI. Prophetological covenant

Loci: Q 33:7; Q 3:81; Q 20:115; Q 2:124–125.

Theses

- P1. Nubuwwah is covenantal office.
 - P2. Q 33:7 emphasizes the Prophet ﷺ within the solemn prophetic mīthāq.
 - P3. Q 3:81 encodes confirming-messenger continuity (C4 nuance on casuistry).
 - P4. Ādam's forgotten 'ahd warns about resolve under charge.
-

VII. Scripture communities

Pattern: terms taken → messengers sent → breach censured → warning to the final ummah.

Loci: Q 2:40; 2:63; 2:83–84; 2:93; 3:187; 4:154–155; 5:12–14; 5:70; 7:169.

Theses S1–S4: real earlier charges; Qur'anic judgment language for breach; warning inheritance; never a license for injustice.

VIII. Sharī'a as covenantal program

Sharī'a specifies how the lordship bond is kept in worship, ethics, and social law.

Loci: Q 6:152–153; 16:91; 17:34; 2:177; 5:1; 9:111.

Theses Sh1–Sh4: 'ahd commands integrate creed and deed; ritual/social duties are fidelity; 'uqūd enact interpersonal fidelity; selling Allah's 'ahd is anti-program.

IX. Political and social covenants

Bay'ah: Q 48:10 elevates pledge to the Messenger as pledge to Allah.

Treaties: Q 9:4; 9:7; 9:12; 8:56 — fidelity and rules for breach.

Marriage: Q 4:21 mīthāq ghalīz.

History: Madinah charter; Ḥudaybiyah — application, not wahy.

Sunnah: hypocrisy/treachery themes; mu'āhid warnings (Bukhārī; Muslim).

X. Eschatology

Loci: Q 7:172–173; 17:34; 3:77; 9:111; 19:87; 36:60–63; 13:25; 23:8 with 23:1–11.

Theses E1–E4: Alast's telos is judgment; selling 'ahd bankrupts the ākhirah; Q 9:111 frames devoted bargain; covenant-keeping marks success.

Soteriological limit: Mercy, tawḥīd, and accepted deeds—not a transplanted Christian grace-covenant mechanism.

XI. Axioms and theorems

Axioms

- Lordship
- Primordial mīthāq
- Prophetic mīthāq
- Fidelity
- Continuity/warning from earlier communities
- Eschatological recall and true divine promise

Theorems

- T1. Sharīʿa = covenantal program of Axis 1.
 - T2. Bayʿah/treaties = Axis 4 under fidelity axiom.
 - T3. Contracts = Axis 5; marriage uniquely solemn.
 - T4. Do not collapse registers.
 - T5. Alast synthesis affirms ḥujjah; modality remains disputed.
-

XII. Contested register (must retain)

See full list: levels/03-advanced/05-contested-issues.md.

Critical: C1 Alast modality · C4 Q 3:81 casuistry · C8 Christian CT mapping rejected.

XIII. Against Christian CT

Appendix: appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md.

Bottom line: compare as another religion's system; do not syncretize.

XIV. Primary proof spine (memorize)

Theme | Proof

Primordial bond | Q 7:172–173

Fulfill | Q 16:91; 17:34; 13:20

Prophets | Q 33:7; 3:81

Banī Isrāʾīl charter | Q 2:83

Bayʿah | Q 48:10

Purchase | Q 9:111

Contracts | Q 5:1

Marriage solemnity | Q 4:21

Hypocrisy/treachery | Bukhārī; Muslim

Fitrah support | Bukhārī; Muslim

XV. Architecture diagram

flowchart TB

subgraph ontology [Ontology]

Creation --> Lordship

Lordship --> Obligation

end

subgraph covenant [CovenantLayers]

Alast[Primordial_Mithaq]

Prophetic[Prophetic_Mithaq]

Sharia[Sharia_Program]

Social[Social_Political_Pacts]

end

Judgment[Eschatological_Judgment]

ontology --> Alast

Alast --> Prophetic

Prophetic --> Sharia

Sharia --> Social

Alast --> Judgment

Sharia --> Judgment

Social --> Judgment

End of consolidated treatise. Progressive chapters remain authoritative for study order.

Method

Method and Source Hierarchy

This corpus constructs Islamic Covenant Theology from primary Islamic sources. It does not treat modern academic reconstructions as creed.

Source hierarchy (hard rule)

Rank | Layer | Role

- 1 | Qur'an | Final authority for doctrine; all 'ahd / mīthāq and related roots mapped
- 2 | Authentic Sunnah | Bukhārī and Muslim first; then other Kutub al-Sittah and graded reports
- 3 | Classical tafsīr | Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, Qurṭubī, Rāzī — lexical and theological range
- 4 | Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh | Only where they illuminate Alast, prophetic mīthāq, contracts, dhimma — tagged by genre
- 5 | Modern studies | Orientation and bibliography only — never 'aqīdah authorities

Lower ranks never override higher ranks. Where classical scholars disagree, we record the disagreement; we do not invent consensus.

What this project is

- A systematic reading of Qur'anic covenantal language ('ahd, mīthāq, and cognates)
- A progressive path from foundations to a named framework: the Mīthāq Paradigm
- A corpus that keeps legal contracts ('uqūd), political treaties, and theological covenants distinct but related

What this project is not

- Christian Reformed covenant theology (Works / Grace / Redemption) applied to Islam
- A claim that "'ilm al-mīthāq" was a named classical madhhab science
- A substitute for studying Qur'an, hadith, and tafsīr with qualified teachers
- Syncretism with Biblical covenant schemes

Citation rules

Qur'an

Format: Q surah:ayah (e.g. Q 7:172). Optionally add short Arabic keyword.

Example: Primordial acknowledgment of lordship — Q 7:172.

Hadith

Format: collection + book/chapter if known + grading note.

Example: Bay'ah upon Islam — Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim (agreed-upon sense).

Prefer Bukhārī/Muslim. For other collections, note grade (ṣaḥīḥ / ḥasan / ḍa'īf) when known; if uncertain, mark grade: verify.

Tafsīr and classical works

Format: author, work, locus (surah/ayah or volume if known).

Example: Ibn Kathīr, Tafsīr, on Q 7:172.

Genre tags

Use inline tags when citing non-primary layers:

- [tafsīr]
- [hadith]
- [kalām]
- [taṣawwuf]
- [fiqh]
- [history] — e.g. Constitution of Madinah (application, not waḥy)
- [modern] — academic map only

Doctrinal claims

Every major doctrinal claim must cite at least one primary locus (āyah or graded hadith). Historical applications and modern maps may support illustration but not establish creed alone.

Preferred synthesis rule (Alast and contested issues)

Where classical positions diverge (e.g. literal pre-existential taking of the covenant vs representational/fitrah readings):

- State the Qur'anic wording first
- Summarize major classical positions without caricature
- Offer a preferred synthesis only under this METHOD: prioritize the plain sense of the āyah + authentic reports, then the strongest classical majority or most coherent reading under tawḥīd and accountability
- Mark remaining uncertainty as disputed or speculative

Related secondary lexicon

Treat as covenantal field terms (not always synonyms of mīthāq): wa'd, amānah, 'uqūd, aymān, bay'ah, dhimma, iṣr, al-'urwa al-wuthqā.

Study discipline

- Read lexicon entries before Level 01 chapters that assume them
- Use sources/quran-index.md as the master āyah map
- Escalate contested topics to Level 03 before accepting Level 04 synthesis as final

Christian Ct Contrast

Appendix: Contrast with Christian Covenant Theology

Read last. This appendix prevents syncretism. It is not a chapter of the Mīthāq Paradigm.

What Christian Reformed CT typically means

In much Reformed Protestant theology, “covenant theology” organizes redemptive history through schemes such as:

- Covenant of Works — Adam under probation for life by obedience
- Covenant of Grace — post-Fall saving covenant fulfilled in Christ
- Covenant of Redemption — eternal intra-Trinitarian pact (in some presentations)

Biblical covenants (Noahic, Abrahamic, Mosaic, Davidic, New) are often read inside that frame.

Why that frame is not Islam’s

Topic | Christian CT (typical) | Islamic Mīthāq Paradigm

God | Trinity; intra-divine covenant language in some systems | Strict tawḥīd; no Triune pact

Primordial bond | Often Works probation with federal Adam | Alast lordship testimony (Q 7:172)—not “earn heaven by Adamic probation” scheme

Center of salvation history | Christ event as covenant fulfillment | Qur’an and final Messenger ﷺ; prophetic mīthāq of confirmation (Q 3:81;

33:7)

Law and grace | Law/grace dialectics inside CT | Sharī’a as program of the bond; mercy and raḥmah without CT’s Works/Grace binary

Scripture peoples | Israel/Church typology debates | Banī Isrā’īl remonstrance as Qur’anic Axis 3—not Pauline supersession templates

Key vocabulary | berith / diathēkē via Biblical theology | ‘ahd / mīthāq via Qur’an and Sunnah

Permissible comparative use

- Historical curiosity: Ancient Near Eastern treaty forms as background conversation [modern]
- Ethical analogy: “keeping faith with pledges” as human moral common sense
- Clarifying contrast for students coming from Christian backgrounds

Impermissible use

- Importing Works/Grace/Redemption as Islam’s skeleton
- Forcing Alast to equal Covenant of Works
- Forcing Q 9:111 to equal “covenant of grace”
- Reading Islamic bay‘ah as “church covenant” membership theology

Bottom line

Study Christian CT as another religion’s system. Build Islamic covenant theology from ‘ahd/mīthāq sources. The Mīthāq Paradigm stands on its own.

Return

levels/04-ultimate/08-synthesis.md · METHOD.md

Dossier: Ādam's 'Ahd — Q 20:115

Axis: 2

Status: Agreed (with moral warning)

Arabic

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

Study gloss

We had already taken a covenant with Ādam before, but he forgot; and We found in him no firm resolve.

Doctrinal payload

- Prophetic charge can be forgotten
- Lack of 'azm (resolve) as moral diagnosis
- Complements prophetic mīthāq texts: office is weighty and trial-laden
- Not a denial of Ādam's prophetic status in Sunni creed

Cross-links

../../levels/04-ultimate/03-prophetological.md

Dossier: Alast — Q 7:172–173

Axis: 1 (humanity), 6 (eschatology)

Status: Agreed core; modality disputed (C1)

Arabic

7:172

ربك من بني آدم من ظهورهم ذريتهم وأشهدهم على أنفسهم ألست بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا أن تقولوا يوم القيامة إنا كنا عن هذا غافلين
وإذ أخذ

7:173

أو تقولوا إنما أشرك آباؤنا من قبل وكنا ذرية من بعدهم أفتهلكنا بما فعل المبطلون

Study gloss

And when your Lord took from the children of Ādam, from their backs/loins, their descendants, and made them testify concerning themselves: “Am I not your Lord?” They said: “Yes, we testify,” lest you say on the Day of Resurrection, “We were unaware of this,” or say, “Our fathers associated before, and we were descendants after them; will You destroy us for what the falsifiers did?”

Key terms

Arabic | Role

أخذ | took / extracted / established the taking

ذريتهم | their progeny

أشدهم | made them witnesses / testify

ألست بربكم | (Am I not your Lord? (Alast

بلى شهدنا | Yes; we testify

غافلين | unaware / heedless

Doctrinal payload

- Lordship acknowledgment as covenant content
- Universal scope (Banī Ādam’s progeny)
- Eschatological anti-excuse design (172–173)
- Inherited shirk is not a valid final plea

Tafsīr range [tafsīr]

- Ṭabarī / Ibn Kathīr: often narrate extraction from Ādam’s back and testimony scene
- Kalām-leaning readings: fitrah / representational accounts (see Level 03)
- Preferred METHOD synthesis: affirm ḥujjah and lordship bond; leave modality labeled disputed

Cross-links

../..levels/01-beginner/02-alast.md

../..levels/03-advanced/01-alast-debates.md

../..levels/04-ultimate/02-primordial-mithaq.md

Dossier: Banī Isrāʾīl Mīthāq — Q 2:83

Axis: 3

Status: Agreed

Arabic

وبالوالدين إحسانا وذي القربى واليتامى والمساكين وقولوا للناس حسنا وأقيموا الصلاة وآتوا الزكاة ثم توليتم إلا قليلا منكم وأنتم معرضون
وإذ أخذنا ميثاق بني إسرائيل لا تعبدون إلا الله

Study gloss

And when We took the covenant of the Children of Israel: Do not worship except Allah; and to parents, good treatment; and to relatives, orphans, and the needy; and speak good to people; and establish prayer and give zakāh. Then you turned away, except a few of you, while you were refusing.

Covenant terms (checklist)

- Tawḥīd in worship
- Parental excellence
- Kin, orphans, needy
- Good speech to people
- Ṣalāh
- Zakāh
- Remonstrance: most turned away

Cross-links

../../levels/02-intermediate/03-bani-israil-dossier.md

Dossier: Bay‘ah — Q 48:10

Axis: 4

Status: Agreed

Arabic

إن الذين يبايعونك إنما يبايعون الله يد الله فوق أيديهم فمن نكث فإنما ينكث على نفسه ومن أوفى بما عاهد عليه الله فسيؤتيه أجرا عظيما

Study gloss

Those who pledge bay‘ah to you [O Prophet] are only pledging bay‘ah to Allah; the Hand of Allah is over their hands. So whoever breaks (his pledge) breaks it only against himself; and whoever fulfills what he has covenanted with Allah—He will give him a great reward.

Doctrinal payload

- Bay‘ah to Messenger = bay‘ah to Allah
- Breach harms the breaker
- Fulfillment (awfā bimā ‘āhada) brings great reward
- Axis 4 theological elevation of Prophetic pledge

Related

Q 48:18 (Tree) · Q 60:12 (women) · Bukhārī/Muslim bay‘ah reports

Dossier: Fulfill the Covenant — Q 16:91

Axis: 1 / 5

Status: Agreed

Arabic

وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم ولا تنقضوا الأيمان بعد توكيدها وقد جعلتم الله عليكم كفيلا إن الله يعلم ما تفعلون

Study gloss

Fulfill the covenant of Allah when you have made a covenant, and do not break the oaths after their confirmation, while you have made Allah a surety over you. Surely Allah knows what you do.

Doctrinal payload

- Command: awfū bi-'ahdi Llāh
- Oaths after tawkid (confirmation) must not be broken
- Allah as kafīl (surety/guarantor) over the pledge
- Bridges theological fidelity and interpersonal oath ethics

Companion verses

Q 17:34 · Q 13:20 · Q 13:25 · Q 2:177 · Q 5:1

Ayah Dossier — marriage-4-21

Dossier: Marriage Mīthāq — Q 4:21

Axis: 5

Status: Agreed

Arabic (relevant clause)

وأخذن منكم ميثاقا غليظا

(within the wider verse on taking women in marriage and related rulings)

Study gloss

...and they have taken from you a solemn covenant.

Doctrinal payload

- Marriage carries mīthāq ghalīẓ—same solemn adjective as Q 33:7
- Family bond sits inside covenantal vocabulary without becoming Alast
- Exemplifies multi-register overlap: legal ʿaqd + theological solemnity

Cross-links

../../lexicon/mithaq.md · ../../levels/03-advanced/03-legal-vs-theological.md

Ayah Dossier — prophets-3-81

Dossier: Prophets' Compact — Q 3:81

Axis: 2

Status: Agreed principle; nuanced formulation (C4)

Arabic

جاءكم رسول مصدق لما معكم لتؤمنن به ولتنصرنه قال أأقررتم وأخذتم على ذلكم إصري قالوا أقررنا قال فاشهدوا وأنا معكم من الشاهدين
وإذ أخذ الله ميثاق النبيين لما آتيتكم من كتاب وحكمة ثم

Study gloss

And when Allah took the covenant of the prophets: “Whatever I give you of Book and wisdom, then there comes to you a messenger confirming what is with you—you shall believe in him and support him.” He said: “Do you affirm and take on that My burden/compact?” They said: “We affirm.” He said: “Then bear witness, and I am with you among the witnesses.”

Key terms

Arabic | Role

ميثاق النبيين | covenant of the prophets

رسول مصدق | a confirming messenger

إصري | (My burden / compact (field term

أقررنا | we affirm / acknowledge

Doctrinal payload

- Continuity of revelation under covenant
- Duty to believe and support the confirming messenger
- Divine witnessing of the affirmation

- Sunni tafsīr majority links to Muḥammad ﷺ—formulate carefully (C4)

Cross-links

../..../levels/02-intermediate/04-prophetic-mithaq-tafsir.md

Ayah Dossier — prophets-33-7

Dossier: Prophetic Mīthāq — Q 33:7

Axis: 2

Status: Agreed

Arabic

وإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَىٰ وَعِيسَىٰ ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُمْ مِيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا

Study gloss

And when We took from the prophets their covenant, and from you, and from Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, and ʿĪsā son of Maryam; and We took from them a solemn covenant.

Key terms

Arabic | Role

ميثاقهم | their covenant

وَمِنْكَ (ﷺ) and from you (address to Prophet | وَمِنْكَ)

ميثاقًا غَلِيظًا | solemn / thick / weighty covenant

Doctrinal payload

- Prophethood under divine compact
- Emphasis on the Prophet ﷺ by fronting “from you”
- Naming of ūlū al-ʿazm cluster (in many tafsīr readings)
- Parallel solemnity language with Q 4:21 (mīthāq ghalīẓ)

Cross-links

../../../../levels/01-beginner/04-prophets-intro.md · ../../../../../../levels/04-ultimate/03-prophetological.md

Dossier: The Purchase — Q 9:111

Axis: 1 / 6

Status: Agreed

Arabic

ويقتلون وعدا عليه حقا في التوراة والإنجيل والقرآن ومن أوفى بعهده من الله فاستبشروا ببيعكم الذي بايعتم به وذلك هو الفوز العظيم
إن الله اشترى من المؤمنين أنفسهم وأموالهم بأن لهم الجنة يقاتلون في سبيل الله فيقتلون

Study gloss

Allah has purchased from the believers their lives and their wealth so that theirs is Paradise: they fight in the path of Allah, so they kill and are killed—a true promise binding upon Him in the Torah, the Gospel, and the Qur'an. And who is more faithful to his covenant than Allah? So rejoice in your bargain that you have contracted. That is the great success.

Doctrinal payload

- Covenantal “sale/purchase” metaphor of devoted belief
- Allah's ‘ahd as the most faithful
- Continuity of the promise across scriptures (as Qur'an states)
- Eschatological joy in the bargain (bay')

Caution

Do not map this onto Christian “covenant of grace” machinery. Keep Islamic mercy/īmān/raḥmah frame (Level 04 eschatology).

Dossier: Fulfill the Contracts — Q 5:1

Axis: 5

Status: Agreed

Arabic

يا أيها الذين آمنوا أوفوا بالعقود

Study gloss

O you who believe, fulfill the contracts.

Doctrinal payload

- Direct command to believers: awfū bi-l-‘uqūd
- Anchors Axis 5 legal-ethical register
- Opens Sūrat al-Mā'idah's legislation under fidelity ethic
- [fiqh] develops contract types; theology tracks the virtue of fulfillment

Cross-links

../../lexicon/uqud.md

Library Supplement — 01-prolegomena/01-muqaddima

I.1 Muqaddima — Why This Science Exists

Matn

The Qur'an speaks repeatedly with the tongue of 'ahd and mīthāq. The Sunnah binds community life with bay'ah, amānah, and the censure of treachery. Across the ages, scholars of tafsīr, fiqh, and kalām touched these themes — yet the matter waited for a gathered science: a discipline that orders the bond of lordship, prophecy, law, society, and judgment under one covenantal light.

Sharḥ

Every mature Islamic science began as scattered lights. Tawḥīd was believed before it was systematized; uṣūl was practiced before it was named. So too covenant: the words were always there; the architecture was often implicit.

This Library does not invent revelation. It receives revelation's covenantal speech and arranges it so that the student may walk from Alast to the ākhirah without losing the thread.

The need (ḥājah)

- Against neglect — readers who treat 'ahd as a minor ethical aside
- Against import — readers who force Christian CT schemes onto Islam
- Against confusion — readers who collapse marriage contracts into the primordial mīthāq, or Alast into politics

The promise (wa'd of the book)

If the reader keeps METHOD, the Library yields:

- a stable lexicon
- a map of six axes
- settled cores and honest disputes
- a final Summa (Volume VIII) that can be defended from primary texts

Mas'ala

Is “ilm al-mīthāq” a classical madhhab science?

Jawāb: No as a historical label; yes as a legitimate constructed systematic discipline from primary sources — as many later arts were gathered from earlier materials. We do not forge isnāds of a non-existent guild; we forge order for existing proofs.

Close

Begin with fear of Allah, then with definitions. The covenant will be questioned (Q 17:34); so must our speech about it be careful.

I.2 Definition of ‘Ilm al-Mīthāq

Matn

‘Ilm al-mīthāq is the science that studies the binding relations—named in revelation especially as ‘ahd and mīthāq, and joined by wa‘d, amānah, bay‘ah, ‘uqūd, and related terms—between Allah and His servants, Allah and His prophets, communities under scripture, and human beings under oaths and contracts, together with their eschatological outcomes.

Sharḥ — the four pillars of the definition

- Subject (mawḍū‘): binding covenantal relations in the Qur’an and Sunnah
- Fruit (thamara): knowledge that orders īmān, ethics, prophecy, society, and hope/fear
- Source (istimdād): Qur’an, authentic Sunnah, then classical bayān
- Rank (rutba): a theological-ethical system under uṣūl al-dīn and overlapping fiqh ethics — not a fifth madhhab

Working English definition (corpus)

Islamic Covenant Theology is the systematic study of the binding relationships—expressed especially as ‘ahd and mīthāq—between Allah and His servants, between Allah and His prophets, among communities under revelation, and among humans under oaths and contracts, as these appear in the Qur’an and authentic Sunnah, and as classical scholars explained them.

Mas’ala — ‘ahd vs mīthāq as technical terms

Aqwāl:

- Qawl A: Strict distinction — ‘ahd unilateral obligation; mīthāq reciprocal confirmed pact
- Qawl B: Overlap — Qur’an uses both in neighboring contexts; local sense rules
- Qawl C: Intensity reading — mīthāq often marks ratification / solemnity (ghalīz)

Tarjīḥ: Prefer B with sensitivity to C. Never force a lexicon to silence a verse.

I’tirāḍ

If the definition includes contracts, the science becomes mere fiqh.

Jawāb: Fiqh treats ‘uqūd as rulings. This science treats them as register under the fidelity axiom, without swallowing furū‘. See Volume VI and the register diagram.

I.3 Sources and Ranks of Proof

Matn

Nothing in this Library outranks the Qur'an. Nothing after the Qur'an outranks the authentic Sunnah. Classical tafsīr opens meanings; kalām clarifies concepts; fiqh applies social registers; modern maps orient — none of the lower ranks create creed alone.

The five ranks (as in METHOD)

Rank | Layer | Authority

1 | Qur'an | Final for doctrine

2 | Authentic Sunnah | Bukhārī/Muslim first

3 | Classical tafsīr | Range and language

4 | Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh | Genre-tagged aid

5 | Modern studies | Maps only

Rules of citation

- Major doctrinal claim → at least one primary locus
- Historical documents (Madinah charter) → tagged [history]
- Disputed reports on Alast modality → never override Q 7:172
- When aqwāl conflict → record, then tarjīḥ under METHOD

Mas'ala — can a lone āyah found a “science”?

Jawāb: A science is founded on a field of related proofs. Alast is the crown jewel of Axis 1, not the only gem. The indexes of 'ahd/mīthāq roots show a field dense enough for system.

Practical canon for teachers

- Spine āyāt: Q 7:172–173; 16:91; 33:7; 3:81; 2:83; 48:10; 9:111; 5:1; 4:21
- Spine hadith themes: hypocrisy/treachery; bay'ah; fitrah; shepherd amānah; mu'āhid warning

Full apparatus: Volume IX · corpus sources/.

I.4 The Six Axes

Matn

All covenantal speech in revelation falls under one or more of six axes. The axes prevent category mistakes and guide tarjīḥ.

The axes

- Allah ↔ humanity — Alast; fulfill/break; cosmic amānah
- Allah ↔ prophets — mīthāq al-nabiyyīn; Ādam's 'ahd
- Allah ↔ scripture peoples — Banī Isrā'īl / ahl al-kitāb
- Prophet ﷺ ↔ community — bay'ah; treaties
- Interpersonal — 'uqūd; aymān; marriage mīthāq
- Eschatology — questioning; purchase; recompense

Sharḥ — how to assign an āyah

Ask: Who bound whom, to what content, with what consequence? Then tag axis numbers before theologizing.

Multi-axis verses

Some verses wear two cloaks: Q 9:111 (1 and 6); Q 16:91 (1 and 5); Q 4:21 (5 with theological solemnity). Multiplicity is allowed; collapse is not.

Mas'ala — are the six axes revealed?

Jawāb: The axes are an organizing tool of this science, like the five pillars as a pedagogical list. The relations are revealed; the numbering is didactic.

Diagrams

Corpus: diagrams/six-axes.md, registers.md, paradigm-flow.md.

I.5 Lexical Foundations

Matn

The science stands on Arabic. English is a bridge, never a replacement.

Core lexicon (epitome)

Term | Epitome

‘Ahd | Commitment, charge, pledge

Mīthāq | Confirmed / solemn compact

Wa‘d | Promise

Amānah | Trust

Bay‘ah | Pledge of allegiance

‘Uqūd | Binding contracts

Dhimma | Protective covenantal liability

Aymān | Oaths

Iṣr | Burden / compact-burden

Al-‘urwa al-wuthqā | Firmest handhold

Sharḥ — method of lexical work

- Gather Qur’anic occurrences (root search)
- Read local context before global theory
- Check classical tafsīr for sense-range
- Only then propose a technical usage for the Summa

Mas’ala — must every wa‘d be a mīthāq?

Jawāb: No. Allah’s wa‘d is always true; not every promise-statement is the Alast compact. Field membership ≠ identity.

Full entries: corpus lexicon/ · Volume IX encyclopaedia articles.

I.6 Boundaries — What This Science Is Not

Matn

A science is protected by its walls. Without walls, every foreign scheme enters and claims the house.

Negations

- Not Christian CT — no Covenant of Works/Grace/Redemption as Islam's skeleton
- Not a fatwā mill — furū' need qualified fiqh
- Not unveiling-creed — Sufi ethic welcome; untethered ontology rejected
- Not academic 'aqīdah — modern maps do not found belief
- Not a license for injustice — Axis 3 remonstrance never cancels justice

Mas'ala — may we compare religions?

Jawāb: Yes, in an appendix and for clarification — after the Islamic system is intact. Comparison is a lantern held outside the house, not a blueprint for rebuilding it.

See: appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md · Volume VIII final part.

I.7 Pedagogy of the Library

Matn

Teach as the ancients taught: definition before dispute; dispute before summa; summa before comparison.

Curricula

Track | Path

Seeker | Vol I (ch. 1–4) → II → VIII epitome

Student | Vol I–VII with drills from corpus levels

Scholar | Full Library + encyclopaedia + proof sheets

Teacher | Always Vol I + IX; assign by axis

Align with corpus: course/SYLLABUS.md, STUDY-GUIDE.md.

Adab

- Do not rush Alast modality into slogans
- Do not shame honest ikhtilāf
- Do not sell Allah's 'ahd for reputation or clicks (Q 3:77 as self-warning)

Khatima of Book I

The gate is open. Volume II enters the primordial courtyard — a-lastu bi-rabbikum.

Book I — Prolegomena

كتاب المقدمات في علم الميثاق

On the Science of the Covenant: Definitions, Sources, Axes, and Boundaries

Table of Contents

- Muqaddima: Why this science
 - Definition of 'ilm al-mīthāq
 - Sources and ranks of proof
 - The six axes
 - Lexical foundations
 - What this science is not
 - Pedagogy of the Library
-

Editor's note

This volume is the gateway. No thesis of Volumes II–VIII should be taught without the source hierarchy of Chapter 3 and the boundary rules of Chapter 6.

II.1 The Naṣṣ — Q 7:172–173

Arabic

7:172

ربك من بني آدم من ظهورهم ذريتهم وأشهدهم على أنفسهم ألست بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا أن تقولوا يوم القيامة إنا كنا عن هذا غافلين
وإذ أخذ

7:173

أو تقولوا إنما أشرك آبائنا من قبل وكنا ذرية من بعدهم أفتهلكنا بما فعل المبطلون

Structural reading (naẓm)

- Divine initiative: akhadha rabbuka — the Lord takes
- Scope: Banī Ādam → their progeny from their loins/back
- Testimony: ashhadahum ‘alā anfusihim
- Content: a-lastu bi-rabbikum
- Response: balā shahidnā
- Telos (172): block the plea of ghaflah on Resurrection Day
- Telos (173): block the plea of inherited shirk

Matn

The primordial covenant is the lordship-testimony taken from humanity’s progeny, establishing ḥujjah that resurrection excuses of unawareness and ancestral shirk cannot overturn.

Sharḥ

This is the locus classicus of Axis 1. Later volumes hang from it as lanterns hang from a beam: without the beam, the house of obligation loses its first light.

Corpus dossier: sources/ayah-dossiers/alast-7-172.md

II.2 Doctrinal Core — What Is Agreed

Matn

The people of this science — across their disputes on how — agree on what the āyah demands for belief and ethic.

Agreed points (al-muttafaq)

- Allah is Rabb; the question of Alast is true in meaning
- Humanity's progeny are addressed in the covenantal taking
- Affirmation of lordship is the covenant's content
- The verse aims at eschatological ḥujjah
- Heedlessness and inherited shirk are invalid final excuses against lordship
- Living as one who said balā means tawḥīd and refusal of Shayṭān's 'ibādah (cf. Q 36:60)

What agreement does not include

- A single mandatory metaphysics of pre-worldly particles
- A Christian-style "covenant of works" probation scheme
- Denial of worldly taklīf conditions ('aql, balāgh) as discussed in fiqh/kalām

Sharḥ — pastoral yield

Teach children and adults: You are not ownerless. Your Lord asked; the answer was yes. Live the yes.

This is the fruit even before modality debates.

II.3 Aqwāl on Modality

Matn

The kayf of the taking is disputed; the ḥaqq of the taking is not.

Aqwāl (position-families)

Qawl A — Real pre-worldly event

Allah gathered the progeny in a real prior scene; they testified; then they entered worldly birth thereafter.

- Support: narrative plain sense; tafsīr reports of extraction from Ādam's back
- Pressure: grading of reports; metaphysics of pre-worldly speech

Qawl B — Representational through Ādam

The testimony is taken in Ādam as federal/representative head of his offspring, or as a true expression of their collective status.

- Support: avoids some metaphysical strain
- Pressure: must honor dialogic form of the āyah

Qawl C — Fitrah / existential testimony

The verse discloses the ontological bond articulated as fitrah and intellect's witness; narrative form teaches what existence already carries.

- Support: fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim)
- Pressure: risk of reducing naṣṣ to bare metaphor without warrant

Qawl D — Mixed / layered

A real taking and lasting fitrah imprint; reports and fitrah both illuminate.

Tarjīḥ preview

Volume's preferred synthesis (Ch. 7): affirm ḥujjah; allow A–D as interpretive families; forbid denial of the āyah's covenantal claim; forbid forcing one kayf as a test of īmān.

II.4 Fitrah and the Parallel Sunnah

Matn

The fitrah hadith is a parallel support for the lordship-bond in worldly life; it does not replace Q 7:172.

Naṣṣ of the theme [hadith]

Every child is born upon the fitrah; then parents make him Jew, Christian, or Magian... (Bukhārī; Muslim — ṣaḥīḥ).

Sharḥ

Fitrah explains why tawḥīd finds an echo in the uncorrupted human disposition. Alast explains why lordship has covenantal ḥujjah. Together they rhyme; neither silences the other.

Mas'ala — reports of extraction

Narrations describing wiping Ādam's back circulate in Musnad and tafsīr.

Ḥukm in this Library:

- Useful for classical how debates
- Grade carefully (verify / disputed unless relied-upon takhrīj affirms)
- Never elevate above the āyah

Teaching rule

Beginners: āyah + agreed core. Advanced: aqwāl + fitrah + graded reports. Never: slogan wars over particles.

II.5 Related Āyāt of Axis 1

Matn

Alast is the fountain; other āyāt are streams of the same mountain.

Streams

Ref | Stream

Q 36:60 | 'Ahd with Banī Ādam against Shayṭān-worship

Q 16:91; 17:34 | Fulfill 'ahd; 'ahd will be questioned

Q 13:20; 13:25 | Keepers vs breakers of 'ahd/mīthāq

Q 2:27 | Break after ratification

Q 3:76–77 | Fulfill vs sell Allah's 'ahd

Q 57:8 | He took your mīthāq — believe

Q 33:72 | Cosmic amānah

Q 23:8; 70:32 | Keepers of trusts and covenants

Sharḥ — unity without sameness

These verses do not all repeat Alast; they live under its sky. Fidelity ethics (16:91) are how a community walks after saying balā. Selling the 'ahd (3:77) is how a community betrays the sky.

Nazm insight

Axis 1 has two poles: ontological bond (Alast) and ethical fidelity (fulfill/do not break). Volume V joins them to sharī'a; Volume VII to judgment.

II.6 Objections and Replies

I'tirāḍ 1

If all testified, why do people disbelieve?

Jawāb: The āyah establishes ḥujjah and removes excuses; it does not claim that every person presently remembers the scene. Forgetfulness, drowning of fitrah, and rejection after reminder are the drama of worldly life. Prophets awaken; books remind.

I'tirāḍ 2

Alast is unfair to those never reached by a messenger.

Jawāb: This enters wider kalām of ḥujjah and ahl al-fatra. This Library affirms the āyah's claim and refers detailed fatra rulings to kalām/fiqh. It does not use Alast to cancel prophetic ḥujjah, nor prophetic ḥujjah to cancel Alast.

I'tirāḍ 3

Alast equals the Christian Covenant of Works.

Jawāb: Rejected. Alast is lordship-testimony, not a federal probation to “earn heaven by Adamic merit” under Reformed schematics. See appendix and Volume VIII.

I'tirāḍ 4

Without literal extraction reports, Alast falls.

Jawāb: False. The āyah stands by itself. Reports illuminate modality; they do not create the obligation of belief in the Qur'anic claim.

II.7 Tarjih and Teaching Canons

Preferred synthesis (METHOD)

- Affirm the ḥaqīqah of the Qur’anic mīthāq of lordship
- Affirm eschatological purpose (Q 7:172–173)
- Allow modality aqwāl A–D as interpretive families
- Use fitrah hadith as parallel worldly resonance
- Mark fine metaphysics disputed — not a test of īmān when the core is affirmed
- Reject emptying the verse; reject Christian CT mapping

Teaching canons

Audience | Teach

Child | “Allah is your Lord; you belong to Him; say yes with your life.”

Beginner | Naṣṣ + agreed core + Q 36:60

Intermediate | Related Axis 1 ethics + fitrah

Advanced | Full aqwāl + objections

Scholar | Tarjih + contested register C1/C2

Khatima of Book II

The courtyard of Alast is entered. Volume III climbs the minaret of prophecy — the mīthāq of the nabiyyīn.

Book II — The Primordial Covenant

كتاب الميثاق الأول · ألسـت بربكم

On Alast: Text, Meanings, Aqwāl, and Tarjīḥ

Contents

- The naṣṣ of Q 7:172–173
- Doctrinal core agreed
- Aqwāl on modality
- Fitrah and the parallel sunnah
- Related āyāt of Axis 1
- Objections and replies
- Tarjīḥ and teaching canons

III.1 Q 33:7 — The Solemn Prophetic Mīthāq

Arabic

وإذ أخذنا من النبيين ميثاقهم ومنك ومن نوح وإبراهيم وموسى وعيسى ابن مريم وأخذنا منهم ميثاقا غليظا

Matn

Prophethood is covenantal office. Allah took from the prophets their mīthāq — and from you, O Muḥammad — a solemn compact.

Sharḥ

- Fronting “from you”: honor and centrality of the Final Messenger
- Named cascade: Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, ‘Īsā — ūlū al-‘azm in many tafsīr readings
- Ghalīz: weight that forbids treating risālah as spiritual hobby

Marriage also bears mīthāq ghalīz (Q 4:21). The language of solemnity travels across registers; the offices differ.

Mas’ala

Does Q 33:7 create a closed list of prophets?

Jawāb: No. It highlights; it does not exhaust the roll of prophets.

III.2 Q 3:81 — The Confirming Messenger

Arabic (opening)

وإِذْ أَخَذَ اللَّهُ مِيثَاقَ النَّبِيِّينَ لَمَا آتَيْتُكُمْ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَحِكْمَةٍ ثُمَّ جَاءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ مُصَدِّقٌ لِمَا مَعَكُمْ لَتُؤْمِنُنَّ بِهِ وَلَتَنْصُرُنَّهُ ...

Matn

Allah took the prophets' compact: when a confirming messenger comes, belief and support are obligatory under the taken iṣr.

Sharḥ

Continuity, not chaos: revelation confirms revelation. The compact binds messengers into one army of truth across time.

Aqwāl on scope (C4)

- Majority Sunni tafsīr: the confirming messenger is Muḥammad ﷺ
- Careful formulation: state the āyah's principle clearly; avoid inventing casuistry the text does not demand

Tarjīḥ

Teach the confirming-messenger duty as Qur'anic. When detailing hypotheticals, mark nuance and follow relied-upon tafsīr.

III.3 Ādam's 'Ahd — Q 20:115

Arabic

ولقد عهدنا إلى آدم من قبل فنسي ولم نجد له عزما

Matn

Even the first human prophet stands under 'ahd; forgetfulness and weak resolve are Qur'anic moral diagnoses — not denials of his status in Sunni creed.

Sharḥ

Prophetological covenant includes trial. The charge can be forgotten; 'azm can fail; tawbah and divine address continue the story (as the surrounding sūrah narrates).

Lesson for the ummah

If Ādam could forget a taken 'ahd, how dare the later servant treat oaths lightly?

III.4 Ibrāhīm — Trial and Imāmah

Matn

Ibrāhīm's covenantal trajectory joins trial, imāmah, and the charge of the House.

Loci

- Q 2:124 — trial with words; imāmah; not for ẓālimīn
- Q 2:125 — ‘ahidnā to Ibrāhīm and Ismā‘īl: purify My House

Sharḥ

- Leadership under covenant is conditioned by justice — oppression breaks the line of imāmah in the verse's stipulation
- Cultic charge (House) shows prophetic covenant includes sacred space and rite
- Ibrāhīm becomes a hinge between primordial lordship and later sharā‘ī

Mas’ala

Is every political leader an “imām” under Q 2:124?

Jawāb: Do not leap. The verse speaks in Ibrāhīm's prophetic-imāmah frame. Later political theory has its own uṣūl. This Library notes the justice condition as covenantal ethic for authority.

III.5 Mūsā and ʿĪsā in the Chain

Matn

Mūsā and ʿĪsā stand inside Q 33:7's solemn list and inside the wider covenants with Banī Isrāʾīl (Volume IV).

Mūsā

- Covenant dramas with his people: mountain, mīthāq, tablets' ethic
- Remonstrance when the people break
- Prophetic resolve (ūlū al-ʿazm) under pressure

ʿĪsā

- Named in Q 33:7
- Gospel community's mīthāq recalled in Q 5:14 — taken, then a portion forgotten
- Confirming continuity toward the Final Messenger under Q 3:81's principle

Sharḥ

Axis 2 (prophets) and Axis 3 (scripture peoples) meet here: the messenger is under compact; the community is under compact; breach of either is not the same sin, but both are covenantal failures.

III.6 The Final Prophet ﷺ under the Compact

Matn

The Final Prophet stands first in address (“from you”) in Q 33:7, receives bay‘ah that is bay‘ah to Allah (Q 48:10), and seals prophecy under the confirming principle of Q 3:81.

Sharḥ — three seals of covenantal prophetology

- Taken mīthāq (Q 33:7)
- Lived bay‘ah (Q 48:10, 48:18, 60:12)
- Conveyed amānah — “Have I conveyed?” in Farewell contexts (Bukhārī)

Continuity and finality

Continuity: he confirms what preceded. Finality: after him, no new prophet. Covenant: both truths sit under divine compact, not human careerism.

Adab

When speaking of his bay‘ah, speak with the Qur’an’s elevation — not as mere politics.

III.7 Synthesis — Prophetological Covenant

Theses (P1–P4 restated as book law)

- Nubuwwah is covenantal office
- Q 33:7 solemnizes the prophetic chain with emphasis on the Prophet ﷺ
- Q 3:81 binds confirming continuity
- Trial and forgetfulness (Ādam) warn; they do not erase office

Architecture

Alast (Axis 1)

↓ awakens / specifies

Prophetic mīthāq (Axis 2)

↓ legislates / conveys

Sharīʿa program (Vol V)

↓ enacts in community

Bayʿah & treaties (Vol VI)

Khatima

Prophets keep the sky of Alast from becoming a vague mist. Volume IV turns to those given Books — and the tragedy of broken compacts.

Book III — Prophetological Covenants

كتاب موثيق النبوة

Contents

- Q 33:7 — the solemn prophetic mīthāq
- Q 3:81 — the confirming messenger
- Ādam's 'ahd — Q 20:115
- Ibrāhīm — trial and imāmah
- Mūsā and 'Īsā in the chain
- The Final Prophet ﷺ under the compact
- Synthesis of prophetological covenant

IV.1 The Covenant–Remonstrance Pattern

Matn

Axis 3 follows a stable Qur’anic pattern: take covenant → state terms → send messengers → remonstrate for breach → warn the hearers of the Final Book.

Sharḥ

This is sacred history as moral theology. The Qur’an does not narrate for antiquarian sport. It places the Final Ummah before a mirror: do not become a people who took a mīthāq and then sold it.

Pattern steps

- Divine taking (akhadhnā mīthāq...)
- Content clauses (tawḥīd, ethics, prayer, zakāh, non-shedding of blood...)
- Prophetic continuum
- Breach vocabulary: naqḍ, turning away, hardness, killing prophets, concealment
- Consequence language: curse, curse’s social fruits, loss

Caution

Pattern recognition is not a permit for collective injustice today. Volume’s last chapter binds remonstrance to justice.

IV.2 Q 2:40 — Reciprocal ‘Ahd

Matn

Banī Isrā’īl are addressed: fulfill My ‘ahd; I fulfill your ‘ahd; and fear Me.

Sharḥ

The verse teaches reciprocity of fidelity under divine initiative. Allah’s fulfillment is not needy bargaining; it is truthful lordship answering kept faith. Human fulfillment is worship and obedience owed.

Lesson

Covenant is not flattery. It is a two-way speech where one side is Lord and the other is servant — yet the Lord binds Himself by promise (wa’d) that never fails.

IV.3 Q 2:83 — The Ethical Charter

Arabic sense-list

The mīthāq of Banī Isrāʾīl includes:

- Worship none but Allah
- Excellence to parents
- Relatives, orphans, needy
- Good speech to people
- Establish prayer
- Give zakāh

Then: you turned away, except a few.

Matn

Axis 3 covenants are not empty metaphysics; they carry a charter of tawḥīd and social excellence.

Sharḥ

Compare Decalogue-like memory in Late Antique religion [modern] map only — but teach from the Qurʾānic list itself. The charter's betrayal is the tragedy; the charter's content is still light.

IV.4 Mountain and Mīthāq

Loci

Q 2:63; 2:93; 4:154 — mīthāq and the mountain raised.

Matn

The Qur'an joins some Banī Isrā'īl covenants to an overwhelming sign — the mountain — so that acceptance is under manifest ḥujjah.

Tafsīr note [tafsīr]

Classical narratives describe the mountain held above them. Details vary by report; the doctrinal point is enforced solemnity: this was not a casual handshake.

Tarjīḥ

Affirm the Qur'anic joining of mīthāq and mountain. Leave folkloric excess. Teach awe.

IV.5 Q 5:12–14 — Isrāʾīl and Naṣārā

Matn

Allah took the mīthāq of Banī Isrāʾīl with conditional support (5:12); for breach, curse and hardness (5:13). From those who say “We are Christians,” a mīthāq was taken; they forgot a portion; enmity and hatred followed (5:14).

Sharḥ

Axis 3 includes multiple scripture communities. Breach takes different historical shapes; the covenantal grammar is shared: taken → forgotten/broken → consequence.

Masʾala

Does Q 5:14 deny that Christians ever had a real compact?

Jawāb: No — it affirms a taken mīthāq and diagnoses forgetfulness of a portion.

IV.6 Concealment — Q 3:187

Matn

Allah took the mīthāq of those given the Book: make it clear to people and do not conceal it. They cast it behind their backs and sold it for a small price.

Sharḥ

Concealment is covenantal treason against knowledge. Selling clarification for worldly gain rhymes with selling Allah's 'ahd (Q 3:77; 16:95).

Warning internalized

The Final Ummah's scholars inherit this fear: bayān is amānah. Hiding proofs for status is Axis 3's disease in a new body.

IV.7 Warning to the Final Ummah

Matn

Axis 3 is a mirror. The Qur'an tells earlier breaches so later hearers do not repeat them.

Applications (ethical, not ethnic)

- Do not break ratified pledges
- Do not conceal revelation's bayān
- Do not kill the prophetic message by neglect or distortion
- Do not harden hearts after reminders
- Do not sell dīn for a small price

Sharḥ

The ummah of Muḥammad ﷺ has its own mīthāq language (Q 5:7; 57:8) and bay'ah elevation (Q 48:10). Privilege increases accountability.

IV.8 Justice without Dilution

Matn

Hold two ropes and do not drop either: Qur'anic frankness about breach narratives, and Qur'anic justice toward every soul.

Sharḥ

- Remonstrance ≠ racism
- Covenant history ≠ blood guilt for innocents
- Dawah requires clarity and iḥsān
- Treaty and dhimma ethics (Volume VI) still bind

Khatima of Book IV

The broken compact teaches fear. Volume V teaches how the kept compact looks as law — sharī'a as covenantal program.

Book IV — Scripture Peoples and the Broken Compact

كتاب أهل الكتاب وموآثيقهم

Contents

- The covenant–remonstrance pattern
- Q 2:40 and reciprocal ‘ahd
- Q 2:83 — the ethical charter
- Mountain and mīthāq
- Q 5:12–14 — Isrā’īl and Naṣārā
- Concealment — Q 3:187
- Warning to the Final Ummah
- Justice without dilution

V.1 From Alast to Law

Matn

Sharīʿa is not a rival to Alast; it is Alast specified. The Lord who asked a-lastu bi-rabbikum sends detailed guidance so the “yes” has a path.

Sharḥ

Without prophecy and law, the primordial yes risks becoming a foggy feeling. Without Alast, law risks becoming mere statecraft. Volume V binds them:

Lordship testimony → Prophetic mīthāq → Sharīʿa program → Lived fidelity

Against two errors

Error | Name in this book

Law without theology | Dry furūʿ

Spirituality without obligation | Soft antinomianism

V.2 Fulfill Allah's 'Ahd — The Path Verses

Loci

- Q 6:152–153 — fulfill Allah's 'ahd; this is My path, straight — follow it
- Q 16:91 — fulfill; do not break confirmed oaths; Allah as kafīl
- Q 17:34 — fulfill; the 'ahd will be questioned
- Q 2:177 — piety includes fulfilling 'ahd

Matn

The command awfū is the legal-ethical heartbeat of the covenantal program.

Sharḥ

When Allah joins “fulfill My 'ahd” to “this is My path,” He teaches that covenant-keeping is not a side virtue — it is the road's description.

V.3 Worship as Covenant-Keeping

Matn

Ṣalāh, zakāh, ṣawm, ḥajj — and the remembrance of Allah — are how servants renew the lived balā.

Sharḥ

Banī Isrāʾīl's charter already joined tawḥīd to prayer and zakāh (Q 2:83). The Final sharīʿa perfects and universalizes worship as covenantal maintenance.

Amānah of rites

To pray while betraying trusts is a split self — the Qurʾan pairs keepers of amānah and ʿahd among the successful (Q 23:8). Worship without fidelity is theater; fidelity without worship is truncated ethics.

V.4 Social Ethics as Covenant-Keeping

Matn

Parents, kin, orphans, needy, truthful speech, justice in measures — these are not “extras.” They are charter content under the covenantal program.

Sharḥ

Axis 1 ethics and Axis 5 social life meet here. A believer who perfects ritual and devour trusts has not understood Volume V.

Hadith hinge [hadith]

Hypocrisy’s signs include betrayal of trust and treachery in covenant (Bukhārī; Muslim). The program has a diagnostic.

V.5 ‘Uqūd inside the Program

Matn

Q 5:1 — awfū bi-l-‘uqūd — places contracts inside faith’s obedience.

Sharḥ

Fiqh details sale, lease, marriage, agency. This book tracks the theological ethic: the believer’s word is worship-adjacent.

Marriage uniquely bears mīthāq ghalīẓ (Q 4:21) — solemnity borrowed from prophetic language, applied to the home.

Register reminder

Legal ‘aqd ≠ Alast. Same fidelity sky; different ground.

V.6 Selling the ‘Ahd — Anti-Program

Loci

Q 3:77; Q 16:95 — selling Allah’s ‘ahd and oaths for a small price.

Matn

The anti-program is commodifying the sacred bond.

Sharḥ

Whenever dīn becomes merchandise — verdicts for bribes, silence for gifts, principles for applause — the seller stands under these verses’ shadow.

Eschatological sting

Q 3:77: no share in the ākhirah, Allah will not speak to them... Volume VII expands the courtroom.

V.7 Maqāṣid of the Covenantal Program

Matn

Covenantal āyāt serve higher aims visible in the text: ḥujjah, tawḥīd, character, prophecy, community fidelity, family solemnity, eschatological orientation.

Table (epitome)

Aim | Sample

Establish ḥujjah | Q 7:172–173

Guard tawḥīd | Q 36:60

Form character | Q 16:91; 23:8

Structure prophecy | Q 33:7; 3:81

Enable coexistence under fidelity | Q 9:4; 16:91

Solemnize family | Q 4:21

Orient to ākhirah | Q 9:111; 17:34

Caution

Maqāṣid organize; they do not outrank naṣṣ.

V.8 Synthesis — Sharī‘a Program

Law of the book

Sh1–Sh4: ‘ahd commands integrate creed and deed; worship and social law are fidelity; ‘uqūd enact interpersonal fidelity; selling ‘ahd is anti-program.

Khatima

The program needs a city and a pledge. Volume VI enters bay‘ah, treaties, and the social weave.

Book V — Sharī'a as the Covenantal Program

كتاب الشريعة برنامج الميثاق

Contents

- From Alast to law
- Fulfill Allah's 'ahd — the path verses
- Worship as covenant-keeping
- Social ethics as covenant-keeping
- 'Uqūd inside the program
- Selling the 'ahd — anti-program
- Maqāṣid of the covenantal program
- Synthesis

VI.1 Bay'ah Theology — Q 48:10

Arabic core

إن الذين يبايعونك إنما يبايعون الله يد الله فوق أيديهم

Matn

Pledge to the Messenger is pledge to Allah. Breach harms the breaker; fulfillment brings great reward.

Sharḥ

Axis 4 receives Qur'anic elevation unique among political acts. This is not secular contract theory. Hand over hand under the Hand.

Distinguish from Alast: different layer, same Lord.

VI.2 Bay'ah in the Sunnah

Themes [hadith]

- Bay'ah upon Islam
- Hearing and obeying
- Women's conditions (Q 60:12 parallel)
- Tree / Riqdān (Q 48:18)

Bukhārī; Muslim — ṣaḥīḥ.

Sharḥ

Sunnah shows bay'ah as lived covenantal technology of the Prophetic city: entry, loyalty, ethical stipulations, crisis solidarity.

Later politics [fiqh]

Post-prophetic bay'ah to rulers is a separate juristic file. This volume's core remains Prophetic bay'ah.

VI.3 Treaty Fidelity in the Qur'an

Loci

Q 8:56; 9:4; 9:7; 9:12; 16:91; 4:90; 4:92

Matn

Uprightness toward treaty-keepers is commanded; chronic breach and hostility have rulings; treachery is censured.

Sharḥ

Covenantal ethics do not vanish at the border of the ummah. Fidelity is a worship of the Lord of all, even when the other party is not Muslim — within the Qur'an's own conditions.

VI.4 Madinah Practice as Application [history]

Matn

The Charter of Madinah and Ḥudaybiyah illustrate Axis 4 under the Prophet ﷺ. They are historical applications — not additional Qur'an.

Sharḥ

- Urban compact among communities
- Referral of disputes to Allah and His Messenger
- Truce patience at Ḥudaybiyah under later sūrat al-Faṭḥ light

Method

History shows how; revelation shows what must bind.

VI.5 Dhimma and the Protected Pact

Matn

Dhimma names protective covenantal liability. Wronging a mu‘āhid is warned against in ṣaḥīḥ teaching.

Sharḥ

Fiqh develops details across ages. This book teaches the ethic: pledged protection is amānah. Betrayal of the protected is betrayal in the covenantal field.

Non-polemic rule

Speak from sources and classical categories; refuse sloganized modern extremes that either erase or weaponize the file.

VI.6 Oaths and Marriage

Oaths

Q 16:91 — do not break after confirmation; Allah made kafīl. Q 5:89 — expiation path exists; frivolity remains blameworthy.

Marriage

Q 4:21 — mīthāq ghalīẓ. The home receives prophetic solemnity-language.

Sharḥ

Axis 5 is where theology becomes furniture and family. A broken oath and a betrayed spouse are not “private” in the covenantal sky.

VI.7 Hypocrisy as Social Solvent

Matn

Nifāq dissolves covenants: lies, broken promises, betrayed trusts, treachery when covenanting (Bukhārī; Muslim).

Sharḥ

A city can have walls and still fall if bay'ah is theater and contracts are traps. Volume VI's antagonist is hypocrisy.

VI.8 Synthesis

Pol1–Pol4 as book law

Bay‘ah elevated; treaty uprightness; dhimma as amānah; family/commercial fidelity under the same sky.

Khatima

All registers return to the courtroom. Volume VII opens eschatology.

Book VI — Bay‘ah, Treaties, and Social Bonds

كتاب البيعة والعهود الاجتماعية

Contents

- Bay‘ah theology — Q 48:10
- Bay‘ah in the Sunnah
- Treaty fidelity in the Qur‘an
- Madinah practice as application
- Dhimma and the protected pact
- Oaths and marriage
- Hypocrisy as social solvent
- Synthesis

VII.1 Alast's Eschatological Telos

Matn

Q 7:172–173 exist so that Resurrection Day not become a festival of excuses.

Sharḥ

The primordial covenant is future-oriented. It is not nostalgia; it is ḥujjah stored for the Hour.

VII.2 The ‘Ahd Will Be Questioned

Naṣṣ

Q 17:34 — inna al-‘ahda kāna mas’ūlan.

Matn

Every covenant enters the questioning. Frivolous tongues write heavy books for the Day.

Sharḥ

Pair with Q 16:91’s kafīl: Allah is surety in the world and questioner in the next.

VII.3 Sellers of the ‘Ahd

Naṣṣ

Q 3:77 — those who sell Allah’s ‘ahd and oaths for a small price: no share in ākhirah; no speech from Allah; nor looking upon them; painful punishment.

Matn

Commodifying the bond is eschatological bankruptcy.

VII.4 The Purchase — Q 9:111

Matn

Allah purchases the believers' lives and wealth for Paradise; His 'ahd is the most faithful; rejoice in the bargain.

Sharḥ

This is covenantal devotion language — sale as total gift. Not Christian “covenant of grace” machinery. Islamic frame: īmān, sacrifice in the path, Allah's true wa'd, raḥmah.

VII.5 Keepers Who Inherit

Loci

Q 23:1–11 with 23:8 — successful believers include keepers of amānāt and ‘ahd; they inherit Paradise.

Matn

Covenant-keeping is among the traits of those who inherit.

VII.6 Mercy and the Limits of Schematics

Matn

Salvation is by Allah's mercy, tawḥīd, and what He accepts of deeds — not by a transplanted Reformed schematic.

Sharḥ

Covenant language describes bond and obligation. It does not replace tawbah, shafāʿah as Allah wills, and raḥmah. Volume VII refuses both despair and mechanical entitlement.

VII.7 Courtroom Synthesis

The Day's covenantal file

- Alast ḥujjah recalled
- 'Ahd questioned
- Sellers exposed
- Purchasers of the true bargain rejoicing
- Keepers inheriting

Khatima of Book VII

The courtroom closes the registers. Volume VIII gathers the entire Library into the Summa.

Book VII — Eschatology of the Covenant

كتاب معاد الميثاق

Contents

- Alast's eschatological telos
- The 'ahd will be questioned
- Sellers of the 'ahd
- The purchase — Q 9:111
- Keepers who inherit
- Mercy and the limits of schematics
- Courtroom synthesis

VIII.1 Muqaddima of the Summa

Matn

The Summa gathers Volumes I–VII into one paradigm: Namūdhaj al-Mīthāq.

Allah binds His servants by lordship and testimony, specifies the bond through prophets and revelation, requires fidelity in worship and social pledges, and judges covenant-keeping in the ākhirah.

Sharḥ — what a Summa is

A Summa is not a new revelation. It is the house after the stones are cut: definitions (I), Alast (II), prophecy (III), scripture peoples (IV), law-program (V), social pacts (VI), eschatology (VII) — now load-bearing walls under one roof.

Voice of long refinement

Written as if generations clarified terms, sorted aqwāl, and refused syncretism — while confessing: the Qur'an was always enough; we only ordered our hearing.

VIII.2 Axioms

The six axioms

- Lordship axiom — Allah is Rabb; humans are ‘ibād; obligation is ontological before it is contractual theater.
- Primordial axiom — A mīthāq of lordship binds humanity (Q 7:172).
- Prophetic axiom — Messengers stand under solemn mīthāq and convey specified guidance (Q 33:7; 3:81).
- Fidelity axiom — Fulfilling ‘ahd/mīthāq/‘uqūd/amānah is obligatory piety; treachery is grave.
- Continuity axiom — Scripture communities’ covenant histories warn and instruct the Final Ummah.
- Eschatological axiom — Covenants are recalled in judgment; Allah’s promise is true.

Sharḥ

Axioms are not “above” the Qur’an; they are compressed hearing of it. Challenge an axiom only with a higher naṣṣ — there is none.

VIII.3 Theorems

Derived theorems

- T1. Sharī'a is the covenantal program specifying Axis 1 in law and worship.
- T2. Bay'ah and treaties are Axis 4 enactments under the fidelity axiom.
- T3. Legal contracts are Axis 5 enactments; marriage uniquely bears mīthāq ghalīz.
- T4. Registers must not be collapsed (theological ≠ merely legal ≠ merely political).
- T5. Preferred Alast synthesis affirms real ḥujjah; modality remains disputed (C1).

Additional theorems of the long school

- T6. Hypocrisy is the social solvent of covenants (H01–H02).
- T7. Concealment of bayān is covenantal treason (Q 3:187).
- T8. Selling Allah's 'ahd is eschatological bankruptcy (Q 3:77).
- T9. Comparison with Christian CT is clarifying only after the paradigm stands (C8 reject as frame).
- T10. Mercy limits all mechanical entitlement schematics (Vol VII).

VIII.4 Architecture of the Six Axes

Map

Axis | Volume home | Crown loci

1 Humanity | II, V | Q 7:172; 16:91

2 Prophets | III | Q 33:7; 3:81

3 Scripture peoples | IV | Q 2:83; 5:12–14

4 Prophetic community | VI | Q 48:10

5 Interpersonal | V–VI | Q 5:1; 4:21

6 Eschatology | VII | Q 9:111; 17:34

Flow

Creation/Lordship → Alast → Prophetic mīthāq → Sharī'a program → Social/political pacts → Judgment.

VIII.5 Preferred Positions (Tarjīḥāt)

Settled preferences of this Library

- Alast: Affirm ḥujjah; modality families allowed; no emptying; no CT import
- ‘Ahd/mīthāq lexicon: Local context rules; solemnity sensitivity; no forced rigid synonym law
- Q 3:81: Confirming-messenger principle clear; casuistry nuanced (C4)
- Madinah charter: History, not waḥy
- Bay‘ah core: Prophetic elevation first; later politics secondary fiqh file
- Soteriology: Mercy + tawḥīd + accepted deeds; no Reformed grace-covenant machine

Rule of tarjīḥ

Prefer what preserves tawḥīd, prophetic finality, ethical fidelity, and the plain covenantal claim of the āyah — without inventing metaphysics Allah did not require as creed tests.

VIII.6 Contested Register Retained

Even a thousand-year school keeps its ikhtilāf ledger honest.

ID | Issue | Status

C1 | Alast modality | Disputed

C2 | Extraction reports' grades | Verify/disputed

C3 | Referent of Q 33:72 amānah | Disputed detail

C4 | Casuistry of Q 3:81 | Nuanced

C5 | Strict 'ahd#mīthāq technicalism | Lexical debate

C6 | Madinah charter reconstructions | Historical variance

C7 | Post-prophetic political bay'ah | Fiqh dispute

C8 | Christian CT as Islamic frame | Rejected

C9 | Untethered Sufi ontology as creed | Speculative if beyond evidence

C10 | Erasing Axis 3 remonstrance | Rejected if text-denying

Full notes: corpus levels/03-advanced/05-contested-issues.md.

VIII.7 Against Foreign Schematics

Matn

The Summa refuses to wear another religion's coat.

Negations restated

- No Covenant of Works as Alast
- No Covenant of Grace as Q 9:111
- No Covenant of Redemption as Triune pact
- No Israel/Church typology as Axis 3 engine

Permitted

Comparison after mastery — lantern outside the house.

Appendix: appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md

VIII.8 Proof Spine

Memorize and defend

| Theme | Proof

1 | Primordial bond | Q 7:172–173

2 | Fulfill | Q 16:91; 17:34; 13:20

3 | Prophets | Q 33:7; 3:81

4 | Banī Isrāʾīl charter | Q 2:83

5 | Bayʾah | Q 48:10

6 | Purchase | Q 9:111

7 | Contracts | Q 5:1

8 | Marriage solemnity | Q 4:21

9 | Hypocrisy/treachery | Bukhārī; Muslim

10 | Fitrah support | Bukhārī; Muslim

Worked sheets: levels/04-ultimate/09-proof-sheets.md

VIII.9 Adab of the Covenant Scholar

Matn

The scholar of mīthāq must be a keeper of ‘ahd — or his science testifies against him.

Adab list

- Fear selling Allah’s ‘ahd for status (Q 3:77)
- Do not conceal bayān (Q 3:187)
- Preserve ikhtilāf where it exists
- Tag genres honestly
- Prefer primary loci over eloquence
- Keep treaties of courtesy with students and opponents
- Remember the ‘ahd will be questioned (Q 17:34)

Sharḥ

A thousand years of books cannot wash a treacherous tongue.

VIII.10 Khatima — The Thousand-Year Seal

Matn

We seal the Summa as a completed architecture of hearing — not as a rival to the Book of Allah.

What stands finished

- Definitions and walls (I)
- Alast courtyard (II)
- Prophetic minaret (III)
- Mirror of scripture peoples (IV)
- Law as program (V)
- City of pledges (VI)
- Courtroom (VII)
- Roof and seal (VIII)
- Keys and indexes (IX)

Final sentence

Balā shahidnā — then live the testimony until the Day the ‘ahd is asked.

Next

Volume IX — Encyclopaedia of terms, proofs, and masā’il.

Book VIII — The Summa

كتاب الجامع · أنموذج الميثاق

The Mīthāq Paradigm Complete — Crown of the Library

Contents

- Muqaddima of the Summa
- Axioms
- Theorems
- Architecture of the six axes
- Preferred positions (tarjīḥāt)
- Contested register retained
- Against foreign schematics
- Proof spine
- Adab of the covenant scholar
- Khatima — the thousand-year seal

IX.1 How to Use the Encyclopaedia

Matn

Volume IX is the keyring. Volumes I–VIII are the rooms.

Habits

- Meet an Arabic term → Terms A–Z
- Need a proof → Proof catalogue
- Hit a dispute → Masā'il index → Contested register
- Want classical names → Authorities
- Want study links → Corpus cross-index

Never let the encyclopaedia replace reading the naṣṣ.

IX.2 Encyclopaedia of Terms A–Z

‘Ahd (عهد)

Commitment, pledge, charge. Often obligation-language. Spine ethic: fulfill; do not sell. See Vol I, V.

‘Ahd Allāh

Allah’s covenant — to be fulfilled (Q 16:91) and not sold (Q 3:77; 16:95).

Aqwāl

Recorded interpretive positions in a mas’ala.

Alast

The primordial address a-lastu bi-rabbikum (Q 7:172). Vol II.

Amānah

Trust. Cosmic (Q 33:72) and social (Q 4:58; 23:8).

Axis

One of six covenantal relationship lanes (Vol I.4).

Aymān

Oaths. Confirmed oaths must not be broken (Q 16:91).

Balā shahidnā

“Yes; we testify” — human response in Alast.

Bay‘ah

Pledge of allegiance. Elevated in Q 48:10. Vol VI.

Dhimma

Protective covenantal liability. Vol VI.

Fidelity axiom

Fourth axiom of the Summa — keep covenants; treachery is grave.

Fitrah

Innate disposition; parallel support to Alast (Bukhārī; Muslim).

Ghalīẓ

Solemn/weighty — of mīthāq in Q 33:7 and Q 4:21.

Hujjah

Established proof/argument against excuse — Alast’s telos.

Iṣr

Burden/compact-burden (Q 3:81; 2:286).

Ikhtilāf

Disagreement among scholars — retained honestly in this Library.

Kafīl

Surety — Allah made kafīl over confirmed oaths (Q 16:91).

Kayf

Modality (“how”) — disputed for Alast; not to erase the anna (that).

Mīthāq

Confirmed solemn compact. Primordial, prophetic, communal, marital uses.

Mīthāq al-nabiyyīn

Prophetic covenant — Q 33:7; 3:81. Vol III.

Mīthāq Paradigm / Namūdhaj al-Mīthāq

The Summa's systematic framework. Vol VIII · MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

Mu'āhid

Party under covenant/treaty — rights warned in Sunnah.

Nifāq

Hypocrisy — solvent of covenants (Bukhārī; Muslim themes).

Register

Theological / communal-political / legal layers of binding language.

Tarjīh

Preferred synthesis under METHOD.

‘Uqūd

Contracts — Q 5:1. Axis 5.

Al-‘urwa al-wuthqā

Firmest handhold — Q 2:256; 31:22.

Wa‘d

Promise — Allah does not break His (Q 30:6).

Ūlū al-‘azm

Prophets of strong resolve — often read into Q 33:7's named list.

IX.3 Catalogue of Primary Proofs

Qur'an — spine

Code | Ref | Role

P-Q01 | 7:172–173 | Alast
P-Q02 | 36:60 | 'Ahd vs Shayṭān
P-Q03 | 16:91 | Fulfill; oaths; kafīl
P-Q04 | 17:34 | 'Ahd questioned
P-Q05 | 13:20; 13:25 | Keep / break
P-Q06 | 33:7 | Prophetic mīthāq ghalīẓ
P-Q07 | 3:81 | Confirming messenger
P-Q08 | 20:115 | Ādam's 'ahd
P-Q09 | 2:40 | Reciprocal 'ahd
P-Q10 | 2:83 | Banī Isrā'īl charter
P-Q11 | 5:12–14 | Taken / broken among ahl al-kitāb
P-Q12 | 3:187 | Concealment
P-Q13 | 48:10; 48:18 | Bay'ah
P-Q14 | 60:12 | Women's bay'ah
P-Q15 | 9:4; 9:7; 9:12 | Treaty ethic
P-Q16 | 5:1 | 'Uqūd
P-Q17 | 4:21 | Marriage mīthāq ghalīẓ
P-Q18 | 9:111 | Purchase
P-Q19 | 3:77 | Sellers
P-Q20 | 23:8 | Keepers

Sunnah — spine

Code | Theme | Grade

P-H01 | Hypocrite betrays trust | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H02 | Treachery when covenanting | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H10 | Bay'ah upon Islam | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H13 | Tree bay'ah | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H20 | Mu'āhid warning | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H30 | Fitrah | ṣaḥīḥ
P-H40 | Shepherd amānah | ṣaḥīḥ

Expand: sources/hadith-expanded.md · dossiers: sources/ayah-dossiers/

IX.4 Masā'il Index

| Mas'ala | Home | Status

M01 | Is 'ilm al-mīthāq a classical madhhab label? | I.1 | Constructed science from sources

M02 | Strict 'ahd vs mīthāq distinction? | I.2 / C5 | Local context preferred

M03 | Can one āyah found a science? | I.3 | Field of proofs founds it

M04 | Are six axes revealed numbering? | I.4 | Didactic tool

M05 | Alast modality kayf | II.3 / C1 | Disputed

M06 | Do extraction reports bind creed? | II.4 / C2 | No over āyah

M07 | Why disbelief if all testified? | II.6 | Reminder/forgetfulness drama

M08 | Scope of Q 3:81 | III.2 / C4 | Nuanced

M09 | Is Q 33:7 a closed prophet list? | III.1 | No — highlights

M10 | Q 2:124 and all political leaders? | III.4 | No leap

M11 | Does Axis 3 license injustice? | IV.8 | No

M12 | Does Q 5:14 deny Christian mīthāq? | IV.5 | No — affirms taken

M13 | Is sharī'a rival to Alast? | V.1 | No — specification

M14 | Are 'uqūd identical to Alast? | V.5 | No — register

M15 | Is Madinah charter wahy? | VI.4 | No — history

M16 | Post-prophetic bay'ah | VI.2 / C7 | Fiqh file

M17 | Is Q 9:111 "covenant of grace"? | VII.4 / C8 | Rejected mapping

M18 | Mechanical entitlement by schematic? | VII.6 | Rejected

Navigate disputes via Summa VIII.6.

IX.5 Authorities in the Conversation

Genre-tagged. Not a fake isnād of a non-existent guild — a map of who illuminates what.

Revelation

- Allah's Kitāb

- Sunnah of the Messenger ﷺ (Bukhārī; Muslim first)

Tafsīr [tafsīr]

- al-Ṭabarī — narrative breadth
- Ibn Kathīr — accessible synthesis
- al-Qurṭubī — rulings sensitivity
- al-Rāzī — discursive option maps

Hadith

- Compilers of Ṣaḥīḥayn and the Six Books
- Later muḥaddithūn for grading non-Ṣaḥīḥayn Alast reports

Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh

- Used where they clarify taklīf, fitrah, 'uqūd, dhimma — always tagged

Modern maps [modern]

- Lombard, Jaffer, maqāṣid content analyses, EI3 — orientation only

This Library's voice

A constructed long school: orders the above without claiming a medieval faculty title that did not exist under this name.

IX.6 Thematic Chronology

Not a modern historicist timeline — a salvation-history reading order for teaching.

- Creation and lordship — ontology
- Alast — primordial mīthāq
- Ādam's charge and trial — Q 20:115
- Nūḥ → Ibrāhīm → Mūsā → 'Īsā — prophetic chain under Q 33:7
- Banī Isrā'īl covenants and breaches — Axis 3
- Final Prophet ﷺ — mīthāq, bay'ah, Madinan pacts
- Sharī'a program — fulfill 'ahd in the Final law
- Ummah's ongoing fidelity / hypocrisy struggle
- Ākhirah — questioning, purchase, inheritance

Teachers may narrate this arc in one sitting as qīṣṣat al-mīthāq.

IX.7 Cross-Index to Corpus

Need | Corpus path

Method | METHOD.md

Consolidated treatise | MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md

Study guide | STUDY-GUIDE.md

Course | course/SYLLABUS.md

Levels 00–04 | levels/

Lexicon | lexicon/

Qur'an index | sources/quran-index.md

Āyah dossiers | sources/ayah-dossiers/

Hadith expanded | sources/hadith-expanded.md

Diagrams | diagrams/

Christian CT contrast | appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md

Books I–IX | books/

Book ↔ Level map

Book | Level

I | 00–01

II | 01 + 03 Alast

III–IV | 02

V–VI | 02–03

VII–VIII | 04

IX | all apparatus

IX.8 Colophon

ختم الموسوعة وختم المكتبة

Completed — by Allah's help — the Library of the Covenant (Maktabat al-Mīthāq): nine books ordering Islamic Covenant Theology from prolegomena to encyclopaedia, as a matured systematic hearing of 'ahd and mīthāq.

What we claim

- A coherent Ultimate paradigm (Namūdhaj al-Mīthāq)
- Honest ikhtilāf where classical dispute remains
- Primary-proof spines
- Pedagogy from seeker to scholar

What we do not claim

- Replacement of the Qur'an or living teachers
- Infallibility
- A medieval faculty that historically bore this exact name

Seal

(Fulfill the covenant of Allah when you have made a covenant. (Q 16:91 وأوفوا بعهد الله إذا عاهدتم

Al-ḥamdu lillāhi Rabbi l-'ālamīn.

Book IX — Encyclopaedia

كتاب الموسوعة في الميثاق

Terms · Proofs · Masā'il · Indices — Apparatus of the Library

Contents

- How to use the Encyclopaedia
- Encyclopaedia of terms A–Z
- Catalogue of primary proofs
- Masā'il index
- Who's who in the conversation
- Thematic chronology
- Cross-index to corpus
- Colophon

Why Covenant in Islam?

The problem

Islamic theology is rich in tawḥīd, nubuwwah, and ākhirah. The Qur'an is also dense with 'ahd and mīthāq—yet “covenant theology” is not a classical named science like uṣūl al-fiqh. Modern readers either:

- Import Christian CT categories into Islam, or
- Underestimate how central covenantal language is to Qur'anic ethics and prophetology

This corpus chooses a third path: build the system from Islamic primary sources.

Why the theme is central

- Accountability: The primordial address “Am I not your Lord?” (Q 7:172) ties lordship to human response.
- Ethics: Fulfilling covenants and not breaking ratified pledges is repeated as a mark of faith (Q 13:20; 16:91; 17:34).
- Prophetology: Allah takes a mīthāq from the prophets (Q 3:81; Q 33:7).
- Sacred history: Banī Isrā'īl are repeatedly addressed through covenants taken and broken (Q 2:83; 5:12–13).
- Community: Bay'ah to the Messenger is bay'ah to Allah (Q 48:10).
- Eschatology: Covenants will be questioned; a “purchase” binds believers' lives to Allah (Q 17:34; Q 9:111).

Working definition

Islamic Covenant Theology is the systematic study of the binding relationships—expressed especially as 'ahd and mīthāq—between Allah and His servants, between Allah and His prophets, among communities under revelation, and among humans under oaths and contracts, as these appear in the Qur'an and authentic Sunnah, and as classical scholars explained them.

What success looks like

By Level 04 you should be able to state the Mīthāq Paradigm: axioms of the divine–human bond, how prophecy and sharī'a sit inside it, and how legal contracts relate without confusion.

Next

02-study-path.md

Study Path and Tools

Order

- METHOD.md
- lexicon/README.md — at least ʿahd and mīthāq
- Level 00 (this folder)
- Level 01 Beginner — do not skip Alast
- sources/quran-index.md — skim full map
- Level 02 Intermediate — hadith + Banī Isrāʿīl + history
- Level 03 Advanced — disputes before Ultimate claims
- Level 04 Ultimate — Mīthāq Paradigm
- appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md — only after Level 04

Tools in this repo

Tool | Path

Citation template | sources/citation-template.md

Qurʿan index | sources/quran-index.md

Hadith index | sources/hadith-index.md

Bibliography | sources/bibliography.md

Six axes diagram | diagrams/six-axes.md

Study habits

- Read Arabic key terms before English glosses harden into “definitions”
- When tafsīr disagree, write both views before choosing a preferred synthesis
- Tag genre: [tafsīr] [hadith] [kalām] [history] [modern]
- Historical documents (Madinah charter) illustrate practice; they are not waḥy

Next

03-boundaries.md

Boundaries of the Discipline

Inside the fence

- Qur'anic 'ahd / mīthāq and the six axes
- Authentic Sunnah on bay'ah, amānah, treachery, treaty fidelity
- Classical tafsīr on Alast, prophetic mīthāq, Banī Isrā'īl
- Clear distinction: theological covenant vs legal 'aqd vs political treaty

Outside the fence (or only in appendix)

- Using Covenant of Works / Grace / Redemption as Islam's skeleton
- Treating academic theories as 'aqīdah
- Flattening all Islamic history into one "covenant people" narrative borrowed from Biblical theology
- Fatwā factory: this corpus is theology/ethic, not a substitute for qualified fiqh verdicts

Humility clauses

- "Ultimate" means systematic completeness within this project's method, not infallibility
- Disputed items stay labeled disputed
- Teachers and primary texts outrank this repository

Next

Proceed to ../01-beginner/

Drill — Level 00 Foundations

A. Short answers

- What is the source hierarchy order (5 ranks)?
- What does this project refuse to import from Christian theology?
- Name four secondary lexicon terms besides 'ahd and mīthāq.
- What is the difference between [history] and primary waḥy in METHOD?

B. True / False

- Modern academic articles can establish 'aqīdah in this corpus.
- Islamic Covenant Theology here is a constructed systematic discipline.
- Kalām citations need genre tags.

C. Self-check

- [] I read METHOD.md
- [] I can define 'ahd and mīthāq from the lexicon
- [] I know the six axes by number

Answer key (brief)

A1: Qur'an → authentic Sunnah → classical tafsīr → kalām/taṣawwuf/fiqh → modern maps A2: Works/Grace/Redemption as frame A3: e.g. wa'd, amānah, bay'ah, 'uqūd, dhimma, aymān, iṣr A4: History illustrates practice; it is not revelation B: F / T / T

Level 00 — Foundations

Start here after METHOD.md and the lexicon/.

| Chapter | File

1 | Why covenant in Islam | 01-why-covenant.md

2 | Study path and tools | 02-study-path.md

3 | Boundaries of the discipline | 03-boundaries.md

— | Drills | drills/drill.md

What Is a Covenant in the Qur'an?

Claim

In the Qur'an, a covenant is a solemn binding arrangement—named chiefly as ʿahd or mīthāq—between Allah and servants, Allah and prophets, communities under revelation, or humans under oaths and contracts.

Primary loci

- Q 16:91 — fulfill Allah's ʿahd when you make it; do not break oaths after confirming them
- Q 13:20 — who fulfill Allah's ʿahd and do not break the mīthāq
- Q 5:1 — fulfill the contracts (ʿuqūd)
- Q 7:172 — primordial mīthāq of lordship

Two lead words

Term | Rough feel | See

ʿAhd | Commitment, charge, pledge | lexicon/ahd.md

Mīthāq | Confirmed compact / ratified covenant | lexicon/mithaq.md

They can appear together (Q 13:20; Q 2:27). Do not force a rigid synonym rule; read each verse.

Not every bond is the same

- Theological: Alast; prophetic mīthāq
- Communal/historical: covenants with Banī Isrāʾīl; treaties in Madinan surahs
- Legal-ethical: ʿuqūd, aymān, marriage mīthāq (Q 4:21)

Beginner rule: ask who bound whom, to what, with what consequence?

Field terms

Waʿd (promise), amānah (trust), bayʿah (pledge), dhimma (protective pact)—see lexicon. They orbit covenant; they are not always identical to it.

Status

Agreed in broad classical sense that fulfilling covenants is obligatory piety and breaking them is censure.

Next

02-alast.md

The Primordial Covenant (Alast)

Claim

Allah took a mīthāq from the children of Ādam acknowledging His lordship—the foundation of human accountability.

Primary loci

- Q 7:172 — And when your Lord took from the children of Ādam, from their loins, their descendants, and made them testify of themselves: “Am I not your Lord?” They said: “Yes, we testify...”
- Q 7:173 — lest you say on the Day of Resurrection, “We were unaware of this,” or plead ancestral shirk

Why it matters

- Establishes that ignorance is not a blank check against the claim of lordship
- Ties rubūbiyyah (Lordship) to human response
- Frames later prophetic reminders as reactivation of a known bond, not an alien imposition

Related: Q 36:60 — ‘ahd with children of Ādam not to worship Shayṭān.

Beginner reading (without settling disputes)

The āyah states:

- A divine taking of testimony from human progeny
- A question of lordship: a-lastu bi-rabbikum
- An affirmative response
- An eschatological purpose: cut off excuses

How this taking occurred (literal extraction of particles/souls vs representation through Ādam vs fitrah-language) is disputed among classical scholars—see Level 03. Beginners hold the Qur’anic claim firmly and postpone mechanism debates.

Sunnah note

Reports describing extraction from Ādam’s back circulate in tafsīr literature; chains vary. Per METHOD: Qur’an first; reports as support with grading caution (sources/hadith-index.md).

Status

- Agreed: the āyah establishes primordial acknowledgment and accountability
- Disputed: metaphysical modality of the event

Next

03-fulfill-the-covenant.md

Fulfill the Covenant

Claim

Faith includes keeping covenants, oaths, and trusts; breaking ratified pledges is a major Qur'anic censure.

Primary loci

Ref | Teaching

Q 16:91 | Fulfill Allah's 'ahd; do not break oaths after confirming them

Q 17:34 | Fulfill the 'ahd; the 'ahd will be questioned

Q 13:20 | Fulfill 'ahd; do not break mīthāq

Q 13:25 | Breakers of 'ahd after ratification: curse and evil abode

Q 2:27 | Breakers of Allah's 'ahd after mīthāq; sever what Allah ordered joined

Q 2:177 | Piety includes fulfilling 'ahd when pledged

Q 3:76–77 | Fulfillers vs those who sell Allah's 'ahd for a small price

Q 6:152 | Fulfill Allah's 'ahd

Q 5:1 | Fulfill the 'uqūd

Q 23:8; 70:32 | Believers keep trusts and covenants

Dual direction

- Toward Allah: do not sell His 'ahd cheaply (Q 16:95; 3:77)
- Toward people: oaths and contracts made in His name bind (Q 16:91)

Hypocrisy link [hadith]

Agreed-upon hadith list treachery when covenanting among traits of hypocrisy (Bukhārī; Muslim). See Level 02.

Practical beginner ethic

- Do not swear casually
- Do not make pledges you intend to break
- Treat contracts and trusts as worship-adjacent ethics
- Political treaties fall under the same fidelity principle (details Level 02–04)

Status

Agreed: covenant-keeping is obligatory ethic; willful breach is grave.

Next

04-prophets-intro.md

Covenant with the Prophets (Introduction)

Claim

Allah took a mīthāq from the prophets—a prophetological covenant binding messengers to Allah's purpose, including affirmation of later revelation.

Primary loci

- Q 33:7 — And when We took from the prophets their mīthāq, and from you, and from Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, and ʿĪsā son of Maryam; We took from them a solemn mīthāq
- Q 3:81 — When Allah took the mīthāq of the prophets: “Whatever I give you of Book and ḥikmah, then there comes to you a messenger confirming what is with you—you shall believe in him and support him...”
- Q 20:115 — We took an ʿahd from Ādam before, but he forgot; We found in him no firm resolve

Beginner synthesis

- Prophethood is not a freelance spiritual career; it sits under divine compact
 - Q 33:7 names a chain of major messengers with emphasis on the Prophet ﷺ (“from you”)
- Q 3:81 frames continuity: earlier prophets bound to affirm a confirming messenger
- Ādam's ʿahd (Q 20:115) shows prophetic charge can be forgotten/failed in resolve—human messengers under trial

Ibrāhīm note

Q 2:124–125 (trial; purification of the House) are read in tafsīr within covenantal imāmah and charge—details expand at Level 02–03.

Status

Agreed: a prophetic mīthāq is Qurʾanic; exact legal-theological implications of Q 3:81 are discussed in tafsīr (Level 02+).

Next

05-six-axes-overview.md

Six Axes Overview

Full diagram: diagrams/six-axes.md

The map

Axis | Relation | Beginner anchors

1 | Allah ↔ humanity | Q 7:172; 16:91; 13:20–25

2 | Allah ↔ prophets | Q 33:7; 3:81; 20:115

3 | Allah ↔ People of Scripture | Q 2:40; 2:83; 5:12–13

4 | Prophet ﷺ ↔ community | Q 48:10; 48:18; 60:12; treaty āyāt in Q 9

5 | Interpersonal | Q 5:1; 4:21; 17:34

6 | Eschatology | Q 9:111; 17:34; 7:172–173

How to use the axes

Every covenantal text in this corpus is tagged to one or more axes. When you meet a new āyah, assign an axis before theologizing. This prevents collapsing marriage contracts into Alast, or Alast into politics.

Preview of later levels

- Level 02 deepens Axes 3–4 with hadith and history
- Level 03 tests Axis 1 mechanisms (Alast debates)
- Level 04 unifies all six into the Mīthāq Paradigm

Checkpoint

Before Level 02, you should be able to:

- Define ‘ahd and mīthāq without Christian CT vocabulary
- State what Q 7:172 claims (and what it leaves disputed)
- List at least five “fulfill/do not break” references
- Name Q 33:7 and Q 3:81 as prophetic covenant pillars
- Sketch the six axes from memory

Next

../02-intermediate/

Level 01 Addendum — Memorization Cards

Copy/print. Arabic first.

Card 1 — Alast

أَلَسْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ شَهِدْنَا (core clause) Q 7:172

Am I not your Lord? They said: Yes; we testify.

Card 2 — Fulfill

وَأَوْفُوا بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ إِذَا عَاهَدْتُمْ (core) Q 16:91

Fulfill Allah's covenant when you have made a covenant.

Card 3 — Prophets

وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ... مِيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا (core) Q 33:7

We took from the prophets their covenant, and from you... a solemn covenant.

Card 4 — Bay'ah

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَبَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا يَبَايِعُونَ اللَّهَ (core) Q 48:10

Those who pledge to you pledge only to Allah.

Card 5 — Contracts

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَوْفُوا بِالْعُقُودِ Q 5:1

O you who believe, fulfill the contracts.

Drill — Level 01 Beginner

A. Locate the āyah

Match:

- Alast lordship question
- Fulfill 'ahd; do not break confirmed oaths
- Prophets' solemn mīthāq including "from you"
- Prophets' compact to support confirming messenger
- Fulfill the contracts

Options: Q 5:1 · Q 3:81 · Q 7:172 · Q 16:91 · Q 33:7

B. Explain in 3 sentences each

- Why Q 7:173 matters for accountability
- Why bay'ah is not the same as Alast
- What "sell Allah's 'ahd for a small price" means ethically (Q 3:77)

C. Axis tagging

Assign axis numbers to: Q 2:83 · Q 48:10 · Q 4:21 · Q 9:111 · Q 20:115

Answer key

A: 7:172 · 16:91 · 33:7 · 3:81 · 5:1 C: 3 · 4 · 5 · 1/6 · 2

Level 01 — Beginner

Plain synthesis of major covenantal āyāt. Primary loci only; deep disputes wait for Level 03.

| Chapter | File

1 | What is a covenant in the Qur'an? | 01-what-is-covenant.md

2 | The primordial covenant (Alast) | 02-alast.md

3 | Fulfill the covenant | 03-fulfill-the-covenant.md

4 | Covenant with the prophets | 04-prophets-intro.md

5 | Six axes overview | 05-six-axes-overview.md

6 | Memorization cards | 06-memorization-cards.md

— | Drills | drills/drill.md

Bay‘ah Dossier

Claim

Bay‘ah is the lived covenantal pledge binding the community to the Messenger ﷺ—and, by Qur’anic judgment, to Allah.

Primary loci

- Q 48:10 — Those who pledge bay‘ah to you [O Prophet] pledge bay‘ah to Allah; the Hand of Allah is over their hands; whoever breaks, breaks against himself; whoever fulfills what he has covenanted with Allah, He will give a great reward
- Q 48:18 — Allah was pleased with the believers when they pledged bay‘ah to you under the tree
- Q 60:12 — Bay‘ah of believing women: conditions (no shirk, no theft, no zinā, no infanticide, no slander, no disobedience in ma‘rūf)

Sunnah [hadith]

- Bay‘ah upon Islam and upon hearing and obeying — Bukhārī; Muslim (ṣaḥīḥ)
- Women’s bay‘ah with stipulations — Bukhārī (ṣaḥīḥ), aligning Q 60:12
- Ḥudaybiyah / Tree — Bukhārī; Muslim (ṣaḥīḥ), aligning Q 48:18

See sources/hadith-index.md.

Theological structure

Believer --bay‘ah--> Messenger ﷺ --(Q 48:10)--> Allah

Breaking bay‘ah is not a mere political inconvenience; the Qur’an frames self-harm in breach and reward in fulfillment.

Distinctions

Bond | Nature

Alast (Q 7:172) | Primordial, all progeny

Prophetic mīthāq (Q 33:7) | Upon prophets

Bay‘ah | Historical pledges in the Prophet’s community

Do not collapse these three. They reinforce one architecture of obligation at different layers.

Later political bay‘ah [fiqh]

Post-prophetic bay‘ah to rulers is a fiqh/imāmah topic. This dossier’s core is Prophetic bay‘ah as Axis 4. Extend carefully with classical political theory only after primary texts.

Status

Agreed: bay‘ah to the Prophet ﷺ is a covenantal axis with explicit Qur’anic elevation (Q 48:10).

Next

02-amanah-hypocrisy.md

Amānah and Hypocrisy

Claim

Keeping trusts and covenants is a mark of faith; betrayal when entrusted or when covenanting is linked to hypocrisy in the Sunnah.

Primary loci

- Q 4:58 — Allah commands you to render amānāt to their rightful owners
- Q 8:27 — Do not betray Allah and the Messenger, nor betray your amānāt
- Q 23:8; 70:32 — Believers who keep trusts and covenants
- Q 33:72 — The amānah offered to heavens, earth, mountains; humanity bears it [tafsīr] disputed referent details

Sunnah [hadith]

Signs of the hypocrite include: when entrusted, he betrays (Bukhārī; Muslim — ṣaḥīḥ).

Four traits of hypocrisy include treachery when covenanting / promising (Bukhārī; Muslim — ṣaḥīḥ). Exact wording varies by narration; sense is stable.

Synthesis

Amānah is the content of responsibility; ‘ahd/mīthāq is the form of the bond. Hypocrisy attacks both: empty speech without fidelity.

Cosmic amānah (Q 33:72)

Classical tafsīr offers readings: sharī‘a obligations, trust of obedience, the weight of choice, etc. Status: disputed detail on exact referent; agreed that the verse magnifies human responsibility.

Next

03-bani-israil-dossier.md

Banī Isrāʾīl and People of Scripture — Dossier

Claim

The Qurʾan repeatedly frames Banī Isrāʾīl (and more broadly ahl al-kitāb) through covenants taken, terms stated, and breach censured—a major Axis 3 pattern.

Primary loci — taken covenants

Ref | Content sketch

Q 2:40 | Fulfill My ʿahd; I fulfill yours; fear Me

Q 2:63; 2:93; 4:154 | Mīthāq; mountain raised above them

Q 2:83 | Mīthāq; worship Allah; parents; orphans; poor; speak good; pray; zakāh

Q 2:84 | Mīthāq; do not shed blood nor expel yourselves from homes

Q 5:12 | Mīthāq of Banī Isrāʾīl; twelve chiefs; Allah’s support if conditions met

Q 5:70 | Mīthāq; messengers sent

Q 3:187 | Mīthāq of those given the Book: make it clear to people; not conceal

Q 5:14 | Mīthāq from those who say “We are Christians”; forgetfulness of portion; enmity ensued

Primary loci — breach and consequence

Ref | Note

Q 2:27; 2:100 | Breaking ʿahd patterns

Q 4:155 | Breaking mīthāq; disbelief in Allah’s signs; killing prophets

Q 5:13 | Breaking mīthāq → curse; hardness of hearts

Q 7:169 | Mīthāq of the Book should have restrained taking worldly portion unjustly

Tafsīr notes [tafsīr]

- Mountain raised: Ṭabarī, Ibn Kathīr, and others transmit that Banī Isrāʾīl were brought under the mountain as a sign enforcing acceptance of the covenant—narrative details vary by report
- Q 2:83: often linked to a Decalogue-like ethical core adapted in Qurʾanic phrasing
- Q 5:14: breach among Christians framed as forgotten portion of reminder—not a denial that a mīthāq was taken

Doctrinal caution

- Axis 3 describes Qurʾanic sacred history and remonstrance, not a license for injustice toward any people
- Covenant breach in scripture communities is a warning pattern for this ummah too (do not conceal; do not sell ʿahd cheaply)
- Interfaith ethics today must still obey Qurʾanic justice and treaty fidelity (Axes 4–5)

Status

Agreed: covenants with Banī Isrāʾīl / ahl al-kitāb are a major Qurʾanic theme with ethical terms and consequences for breach.

Next

04-prophetic-mithaq-tafsir.md

Prophetic Mithāq in Tafsīr

Claim

Classical tafsīr treats Q 33:7 and Q 3:81 as foundational prophetological covenants: messengers are bound to Allah's charge and to mutual affirmation of confirming revelation.

Primary loci

- Q 33:7 — mīthāq from the prophets; emphatic “from you”; Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, ʿĪsā; solemn mīthāq
- Q 3:81 — mīthāq of the prophets to believe and support a messenger confirming what they have
- Q 20:115 — ʿahd with Ādam; forgetfulness
- Q 2:124–125 — Ibrāhīm's trial; charge concerning the House

Tafsīr synthesis [tafsīr]

On Q 33:7

- The verse singles out ūlū al-ʿazm (prophets of strong resolve) in many commentaries, with the Prophet ﷺ addressed first (“from you”)
- “Solemn mīthāq” (mīthāqan ghalīẓan) stresses weight of the charge—parallel language to marriage mīthāq ghalīẓ (Q 4:21) shows the root's intensity across domains

On Q 3:81

- Readings include: all prophets bound to affirm Muḥammad ﷺ when sent; or a general principle of confirming continuity among messengers
- Classical majority among Sunni tafsīr links it to affirmation of the final Prophet—record discussion on exact legal formulation, but the confirming messenger motif is clear in the āyah

On Ādam (Q 20:115)

- Reminder that prophetic covenant includes vulnerability: forgetting and weak resolve
- Not a denial of Ādam's prophethood in Sunni creed; a Qur'anic moral about charge-keeping

On Ibrāhīm

- Imāmah after trial (Q 2:124): covenantal leadership conditioned on not extending to zālimīn—major theological point for justice in leadership
- House purification (Q 2:125): cultic-prophetic charge

Status

Agreed: prophetic office stands under divine mīthāq. Disputed/nuanced: precise juristic entailments of Q 3:81's wording across all hypotheticals.

Next

05-madinah-treaties.md

Madinah Practice and Treaties [history]

Claim

Under the Prophet ﷺ, written and sworn pacts applied covenantal ethics to a plural city and to external tribes.
These are historical applications of Axis 4—not additional Qur'an.

Qur'anic treaty ethic (primary)

Ref | Ethic

Q 8:56 | Those you made 'ahd with, then they break every time

Q 9:4 | Fulfill 'ahd to the end of term for those who kept it and did not support enemies

Q 9:7 | Exception for treaty-holders near al-Masjid al-Harām—be upright as they are upright

Q 9:12 | If they break oaths after 'ahd and defame your religion...

Q 16:91 | Fulfill 'ahd; do not break oaths after confirmation

Q 4:90; 4:92 | Peoples bound by mīthāq—legal implications of killing/protection

Constitution / Charter of Madinah [history]

- A foundational urban pact among Muhājirūn, Anṣār, and Jewish tribes (as reported in sīrah sources)
- Functions as constitutional covenant: mutual defense, recognition of communities, referral of disputes to Allah and His Messenger
- Use: illustrate Axis 4 practice; cite as history, not waḥy
- Source-critical notes exist in modern scholarship [modern]—orientation only; classical sīrah remains the default narrative frame for this corpus

Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah [history] + Qur'an

- Negotiated truce with Quraysh; companions' distress; later openings
- Q 48 frames divine pleasure at bay'ah and the broader victory narrative
- Lesson: covenantal patience and fidelity under prophetic authority even when terms seem unfavorable

Dhimma / mu'āhid ethics [hadith] [fiqh]

- Warnings against wronging those under covenant/protection appear in ṣaḥīḥ material (see hadith index)
- Classical fiqh develops ahl al-dhimma rules—genre-tagged; not the theological core of Alast

Method reminder

History shows how the Prophet's community enacted fidelity. Theology still rests on Qur'an and authentic Sunnah. Do not reverse the hierarchy.

Status

Agreed: treaty fidelity is Qur'anic; Madinan pacts exemplify application.

Next

06-hadith-study-notes.md

Hadith Study Notes (Level 02)

Companion sheet to sources/hadith-index.md.

Priority list (memorize themes)

- Hypocrisy and covenants — betrayal when entrusted; treachery when covenanting (Bukhārī; Muslim)
- Bay‘ah — Islam; hearing and obeying; women; Tree (Bukhārī; Muslim)
- Injustice to mu‘āhid — grave warning (Bukhārī)
- Fitrah — every child born on fitrah (Bukhārī; Muslim)—used in Alast/fitrah discussions at Level 03
- Shepherd amānah — each responsible for flock (Bukhārī; Muslim)

Alast-related reports

- Narrations of Allah wiping Ādam’s back and taking testimony appear in Musnad and tafsīr chains
- Protocol: useful for classical how debates; grade carefully; never override Q 7:172
- Label: verify / disputed chains unless your relied-upon muhaddith grades otherwise

How to write a Level 02 note

Use sources/citation-template.md:

- State claim in one sentence
- Give Qur’an locus if any
- Give Bukhārī/Muslim first
- Tag status: agreed / disputed / historical only

Checkpoint before Level 03

- Explain bay‘ah via Q 48:10 without confusing it with Alast
- List Banī Isrā‘īl covenant terms from Q 2:83
- Separate Madinah charter (history) from Qur’an
- Name two ṣaḥīḥ themes linking hypocrisy to covenant breach

Next

../03-advanced/

Level 02 Addendum — Classical Tafsīr Anthology (Short)

Curated classical notes for Intermediate study. Paraphrase study-aid; verify in the Arabic tafsīr.

Q 7:172 — Alast

- Ṭabarī: transmits routes describing Allah taking the progeny from Ādam's back and taking testimony
- Ibn Kathīr: similar narrative emphasis; links to accountability
- Rāzī: catalogues linguistic and theological difficulties; useful map of options
- Qurṭubī: legal-ethical and narrative angles appear in discussion of related covenant texts

Q 2:83 — Banī Isrā'īl terms

- Classical tafsīr commonly read the verse as a multi-clause ethical-theological charter
- "Then you turned away" as remonstrance against breach after clear terms

Q 3:81 — Prophetic compact

- Many Sunni commentaries: covenant regarding belief in and support of Muḥammad ﷺ as confirming messenger
- Keep C4 nuance: state the āyah's confirming-messenger principle clearly; avoid over-casuistry

Q 33:7 — Solemn prophetic mīthāq

- "From you" prioritized; ūlū al-'azm often highlighted
- Ghalīẓ = weight and solemnity of the charge

Q 48:10 — Bay'ah

- Tafsīr stresses that pledging to the Prophet is pledging to Allah
- Breach returns upon the breaker; fulfillment rewarded

How to use

Quote the āyah → skim this anthology → open full tafsīr → write your note with genre tag [tafsīr].

Drill — Level 02 Intermediate

A. Hadith themes

Name the collection pair (Bukhārī/Muslim) theme for:

- Betrayal when entrusted
- Bay‘ah under the tree
- Child born on fitrah
- Shepherd responsibility

B. Banī Isrā‘īl

List six terms of the mīthāq in Q 2:83.

C. History vs revelation

Classify each as Qur‘an / Sunnah / History:

- Charter of Madinah
- Q 9:4 treaty ethic
- Women’s bay‘ah conditions in Bukhārī
- Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah narrative in sīrah

D. Short essay (10–15 lines)

How does Q 48:10 elevate Axis 4 without collapsing it into Axis 1?

Answer key notes

A: H01 · H13 · H30 · H40 (see hadith-expanded) B: tawḥīd; parents; kin/orphans/need; good speech; ṣalāh; zakāh C: History · Qur‘an · Sunnah · History

Level 02 — Intermediate

Hadith synthesis, Banī Isrāʾīl dossier, and historical covenantal practice.

| Chapter | File

1 | Bayʿah dossier | 01-bayah-dossier.md

2 | Amānah and hypocrisy | 02-amanah-hypocrisy.md

3 | Banī Isrāʾīl and People of Scripture | 03-bani-israil-dossier.md

4 | Prophetic mīthāq in tafsīr | 04-prophetic-mithaq-afsir.md

5 | Madinah practice and treaties | 05-madinah-treaties.md

6 | Hadith study notes | 06-hadith-study-notes.md

7 | Tafsīr anthology (short) | 07-afsir-anthology.md

— | Drills | drills/drill.md

Classical Debates on Alast (Q 7:172)

Fixed Qur'anic data

Whatever the modality debate, the āyah establishes:

- A divine act of taking testimony from Banī Ādam's descendants
- Acknowledgment of Allah's lordship
- Eschatological cutting-off of the excuse of unawareness / inherited shirk (Q 7:172–173)

Major classical position-types [tafsīr] [kalām]

These are families of reading, not exhaustive school labels.

Position A — Real pre-worldly event

Allah extracted (or otherwise gathered) the progeny from Ādam's loins/back in a real prior scene; they testified; then they were returned to the loins until worldly birth.

- Often supported by reports in tafsīr collections
- Strength: matches narrative plain sense for many early transmitters
- Pressure point: grading and interpretation of reports; metaphysics of pre-worldly speech

Position B — Representational / through Ādam

The testimony is taken in Ādam's person as representative of his offspring; or the “taking” is a way of stating divine establishment of capacity and charge.

- Strength: avoids some metaphysical puzzles
- Pressure point: must still honor the dialogic form of the āyah

Position C — Fitrah / continuous existential testimony

The covenant is expressed as the ongoing fitrah and intellect's witness to lordship; the Qur'anic scene is a true disclosure of that ontological bond in narrative form.

- Often linked to fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim)
- Strength: strong ethical-theological grip in worldly life
- Pressure point: must not reduce the āyah to mere metaphor without classical warrant

Position D — Mixed / layered

Some scholars combine: a real taking and lasting fitrah imprint; reports and fitrah both illuminate.

Preferred synthesis under METHOD

- Affirm the ḥaqīqah of the Qur'anic claim: Allah took a mīthāq of lordship from humanity's progeny with eschatological purpose
- Prefer readings that preserve (a) real divine address and human responsibility, (b) consistency with tawḥīd, (c) the fitrah hadith as parallel support without forcing one modality
- Treat fine metaphysics of the pre-worldly scene as disputed—not a test of īmān when the āyah's doctrinal core is affirmed
- Reject dismissals that empty the verse of covenantal accountability

What not to do

- Dogmatize a single modality as the only “orthodox” mechanism without acknowledging classical range
- Use Alast to invent a Christian-style “covenant of works” scheme
- Ignore Q 7:173's purpose clause

Status

- Agreed: primordial acknowledgment and accountability
- Disputed: exact modality of the taking

Next

02-kalam-sufi.md

Kalām and Sufi Receptions [kalām] [taṣawwuf]

Purpose

Genre-tagged survey: how speculative theology and spiritual traditions received the covenantal theme—especially Alast—without replacing Qur'an/Sunnah.

Kalām concerns

Kalām asks questions such as:

- When does taklīf (moral-legal responsibility) begin?
- How does primordial testimony relate to worldly capacity ('aql, balāgh)?
- How to speak of pre-worldly events without violating divine transcendence or inventing unfounded modality?

Typical outcomes relevant to this corpus:

- Accountability is real; Allah's ḥujjah is established
- Fitrah and prophecy jointly awaken and specify the bond
- Disputes over Alast modality often track broader debates on time, souls, and speech

Use rule: kalām clarifies conceptual pressure-points; it does not outrank āyah/hadith.

Sufi / ethico-spiritual receptions [taṣawwuf]

Many Sufi writers treat Alast as the heart's remembered (or forgettable) intimacy of lordship—yearning, dhikr, and ethical vigilance as “keeping the covenant.”

- Valuable as spiritual ethic: live as one who already said “yes”
- Risk: poetic ontology stated as creed without evidence
- Use rule: retain ethical heat; verify doctrinal claims against METHOD hierarchy

Rāzī and discursive tafsīr [tafsīr]

Fakhr al-Dīn al-Rāzī and similar encyclopedic tafsīr often catalogue linguistic, theological, and philosophical angles on Q 7:172. Use them as maps of options, then return to preferred synthesis under METHOD.

Boundary

Allowed | Not allowed

Spiritual reminder to keep the mīthāq | Claiming unveiling overrides Qur'an

Kalām precision about taklīf | Making kalām vocabulary mandatory for beginners

Citing Sufi ethic of covenant-keeping | Syncretic merger with non-Islamic covenant myths

Next

03-legal-vs-theological.md

Legal ‘Aqd vs Theological Mīthāq

Claim

Islamic Covenant Theology must distinguish registers of binding language so that fiqh contracts and primordial theology illuminate rather than confuse each other.

Three registers

Register | Example | Primary tools

Theological mīthāq | Alast Q 7:172; prophetic Q 33:7 | Tafsīr, creed, ethic

Communal/political ‘ahd | Treaties Q 9:4; bay‘ah Q 48:10 | Tafsīr, sīrah, siyāsa

Legal ‘aqd | Sale, lease, marriage; Q 5:1 | Fiqh

Overlap without collapse

- Q 4:21 calls marriage a mīthāq ghalīẓ—theological solemnity inside a legal contract
- Q 16:91 binds oaths that secure human agreements to divine fidelity ethics
- Q 23:8 pairs amānāt and ‘ahd in the believer’s character—one ethic across registers

Analytical rules

- Start with the verse’s parties and stipulated content
- Assign axis (1–6)
- Ask whether breach consequence is eschatological, communal, or juristic (or more than one)
- Do not export furū‘ rulings from Alast, or Alast metaphysics from commercial ‘aqd

Why this matters for “Ultimate” system

The Mīthāq Paradigm (Level 04) needs a spine: lordship → obligation → specification by prophecy/sharī‘a → social enactment → judgment. Legal contracts sit mainly at “social enactment” without being the ontology of Axis 1.

Status

Agreed methodological distinction; applied cases may be multi-register (e.g. marriage).

Next

04-maqasid-covenants.md

Maqāṣid of Covenants

Claim

Read across the Qur'an, covenantal language serves identifiable higher objectives—without turning maqāṣid theory into a source above the text.

Method note

Classical maqāṣid discourse (protection of dīn, life, intellect, lineage, property, etc.) and modern maqāṣid methodologies [modern] can organize insights. Primary proofs remain āyāt and authentic Sunnah.

Objectives visible in the text

Objective | How covenants serve it | Sample loci

Establish ḥujjah | Primordial testimony blocks excuse | Q 7:172–173

Secure tawḥīd | 'Ahd against worship of Shayṭān | Q 36:60

Form ethical character | Fulfill 'ahd; keep amānah | Q 16:91; 23:8

Structure prophecy | Mīthāq of prophets | Q 33:7; 3:81

Discipline scripture communities | Terms + remonstrance for breach | Q 2:83; 5:12–13

Enable coexistence | Treaty fidelity; protection pacts | Q 9:4; 16:91

Anchor family | Solemn marriage mīthāq | Q 4:21

Orient eschatology | Questioning of 'ahd; purchase | Q 17:34; 9:111

Peace and force (careful reading)

Covenantal āyāt appear near rules of war and treaty (e.g. Sūrat al-Tawbah). Maqāṣid reading must not:

- Erase legitimate defensive/juridical force the Qur'an legislates, nor
- Ignore the Qur'an's emphasis on uprightness toward treaty-keepers (Q 9:7)

Faithful synthesis: fidelity and justice under revelation, not sloganized absolutism.

Status

Agreed that covenantal texts pursue lordship, ethics, prophecy, and social fidelity. Formal maqāṣid lists are organizational aids.

Next

05-contested-issues.md

Contested Issues Register

Use this register before accepting any Level 04 sentence as creed. Status labels follow METHOD.

ID | Issue | Status | Notes / loci

C1 | Modality of Alast (literal extraction vs representation vs fitrah-primary) | Disputed | Q 7:172; Level 03 ch. 1

C2 | Exact grading/authority of Alast narrative hadiths | Verify / disputed | Hadith index

C3 | Precise referent of cosmic amānah (Q 33:72) | Disputed detail | Tafsīr range

C4 | Juristic scope of Q 3:81 (all prophets' pledge regarding Muḥammad ﷺ) | Nuanced / discussed | Majority Sunni tafsīr link; formulate carefully

C5 | Whether 'ahd and mīthāq are strictly distinct technical terms | Lexical debate | Overlap in Qur'an; prefer local context

C6 | Constitutional details of Madinah charter as historical reconstruction | Historical-critical variance [history] [modern] | Application only

C7 | Post-prophetic political bay'ah conditions | Fiqh dispute | Outside core theology dossier

C8 | Mapping Islamic axes onto Christian CT (Works/Grace/Redemption) | Rejected as framework | Appendix contrast only

C9 | Sufi ontological elaborations of Alast as binding creed | Speculative if beyond evidence | Ethic OK; creed caution

C10 | Modern pluralist readings that erase Axis 3 remonstrance | Rejected if text-denying | Keep justice + keep text

Agreed core (non-exhaustive)

- Allah took a primordial mīthāq of lordship (Q 7:172)
- Fulfilling covenants is obligatory piety; breaking ratified pledges is grave
- Prophets stand under mīthāq (Q 33:7; 3:81)
- Banī Isrā'īl / ahl al-kitāb covenants are major Qur'anic themes
- Bay'ah to the Prophet ﷺ is bay'ah to Allah (Q 48:10)
- Allah's promise is truthful; humans will be questioned about 'ahd

Speculative (do not teach as creed)

- Detailed dramatizations of the pre-worldly scene beyond āyah + reliable report
- Syncretic "covenant of redemption" analogues
- Claims that covenant theology was a named classical madhhab 'ilm

Next

../04-ultimate/

Level 03 Addendum — Uṣūl Notes for Covenant Claims

Claim types

Claim type | Required proof weight

Creed core (e.g. Alast ḥujjah) | Explicit Qur'an (+ clarifying ṣaḥīḥ if needed)

Ethical obligation (fulfill 'ahd) | Qur'an command + supporting Sunnah

Historical application | Sīrah/history; do not call waḥy

Speculative modality | Label disputed; no takfīr games

Bayān ranks (practical)

- Naṣṣ Qur'an clear in covenantal command
- Ṣaḥīḥayn clarifying practice (bay'ah, nifāq traits)
- Classical tafsīr consensus vs ikhtilāf
- Kalām conceptual clarification
- Modern secondary maps

Forbidden moves

- Elevating a ḍa'īf Alast story above the āyah
- Building 'aqīdah from academic theory alone
- Ignoring ikhtilāf where it exists

Next

Return to 05-contested-issues.md before Level 04.

Drill — Level 03 Advanced

A. Positions on Alast

In your own words, state Positions A–D (literal event / representational / fitrah-primary / mixed). Which does METHOD prefer as synthesis, and what remains disputed?

B. Register sorting

Sort into theological / communal-political / legal:

- Q 7:172
- Q 5:1
- Q 9:4
- Q 4:21 (explain why it may be multi-register)

C. Contested IDs

Without looking, recall what C1, C4, and C8 mean in the contested register.

D. Critique

Write two paragraphs: why a Sufi meditation on Alast can be ethically useful yet doctrinally dangerous if untagged.

Checkpoint

- [] I will not teach modality as mandatory creed
- [] I can separate 'aqd from mīthāq analytically
- [] I can list at least five maqāṣid served by covenantal āyāt

Corpus — levels/03-advanced/README.md

Level 03 — Advanced

Classical debates, kalām/Sufi receptions, maqāṣid, and a contested-issues register.

| Chapter | File

1 | Alast debates | 01-alast-debates.md

2 | Kalām and Sufi receptions | 02-kalam-sufi.md

3 | Legal ‘aqd vs theological mīthāq | 03-legal-vs-theological.md

4 | Maqāṣid of covenants | 04-maqasid-covenants.md

5 | Contested issues register | 05-contested-issues.md

6 | Uṣūl notes for covenant claims | 06-usul-notes.md

— | Drills | drills/drill.md

The Mīthāq Paradigm — Overview

Name

Mīthāq Paradigm (namūdḥaj al-mīthāq): a systematic account of Islamic covenantal theology built from Qur'an and authentic Sunnah, ordered by the six axes, and bounded by METHOD.

One-sentence core

Allah binds His servants by lordship and testimony, specifies the bond through prophets and revelation, requires fidelity in worship and social pledges, and judges covenant-keeping in the ākhirah.

Architecture

flowchart LR

```
Creation[Creation_and_Lordship]
Alast[Primordial_Mithaq]
Prophets[Prophetic_Mithaq]
Sharia[Sharia_Program]
Social[Social_and_Political_Pacts]
Judgment[Eschatological_Accountability]
```

```
Creation --> Alast
Alast --> Prophets
Prophets --> Sharia
Sharia --> Social
Alast --> Judgment
Sharia --> Judgment
Social --> Judgment
```

Relation to Christian CT

This paradigm is not Covenant of Works / Grace / Redemption. See appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md only after Chapter 08.

How to read Level 04

Each chapter states axioms or theses with primary loci. Where Level 03 marked dispute, the chapter preserves the dispute and offers METHOD-compliant preferred synthesis.

1. Ontology of the Divine–Human Bond

Thesis

The covenantal bond presupposes creation, lordship (rubūbiyyah), and human capacity for response. Obligation is not a negotiation between equals; it is the structure of being a servant (‘abd) under the Lord (Rabb).

Primary loci

- Q 7:172 — lordship question and testimony
- Q 51:56 — I did not create jinn and humans except to worship Me
- Q 2:21 — worship your Lord who created you
- Q 36:60 — ‘ahd with Banī Ādam against worship of Shayṭān
- Q 33:72 — cosmic amānah borne by humanity

Ontological sequence

- Creation — contingent beings from the Creator
- Lordship — Allāh as Rabb deserves exclusive worship and obedience
- Testimony / mīthāq — acknowledgment of that lordship (Alast)
- Specification — prophets and sharī‘a detail how the bond is kept
- Accountability — return and questioning

Axioms (Ontology)

- O1. Allāh alone is Rabb; human beings are ‘ibād.
- O2. The divine–human relation is inherently obligating; covenant language articulates that obligation.
- O3. Human amānah (Q 33:72) marks responsibility’s weight without making humans ontological partners with God.

Limits

- No bilateral “contract among equals” model
- No absorption of God into process theology
- No denial of divine freedom or of human acquisition/responsibility as taught in Sunni creed schools (details of kasb etc. belong to kalām, not this chapter’s core)

Cross-links

Lexicon: mithaq.md, amanah.md · Beginner: Alast · Advanced: Alast debates

2. Primordial Mīthāq (Alast)

Thesis

The primordial mīthāq (Q 7:172–173) is the foundational covenantal event of Islamic theology: humanity's acknowledgment of Allah's lordship establishing ḥujjah and grounding later revelation's claim.

Primary loci

- Q 7:172–173
- Q 36:60
- Fitrah reports — Bukhārī; Muslim (ṣaḥīḥ) as parallel support

Preferred synthesis (METHOD)

- Affirm the reality of the Qur'anic mīthāq of lordship
- Affirm its eschatological purpose against excuses
- Allow classical modality dispute (C1) without emptying the verse
- Relate fitrah hadith as worldly resonance of the same lordship-bond—not a replacement of the āyah

Theses

- A1. Every human stands under the lordship mīthāq.
- A2. Prophetic missions remind and specify; they do not invent lordship from nothing.
- A3. Forgetfulness and shirk are breaches relative to that bond, not proofs that no bond existed.

Disputed (do not harden)

- Exact metaphysical mechanism of the taking (C1, C2)

Cross-links

../01-beginner/02-alast.md · ../03-advanced/01-alast-debates.md

3. Prophetological Covenant

Thesis

Prophets stand under a solemn divine mīthāq that structures revelation's continuity, mutual confirmation, and the weight of conveyance.

Primary loci

- Q 33:7 — mīthāq from the prophets; mīthāq ghalīz
- Q 3:81 — mīthāq to believe and support a confirming messenger
- Q 20:115 — 'ahd with Ādam
- Q 2:124–125 — Ibrāhīm's trial and House charge
- Farewell conveyance themes — Bukhārī (ṣaḥīḥ)

Theses

- P1. Nubuwwah is covenantal office, not private mysticism.
 - P2. Q 33:7 places the Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ within—and emphatically among—the prophets of solemn mīthāq.
- P3. Q 3:81 encodes continuity: confirmation, not cancellation as betrayal of prior truth.
- P4. Prophetic fallibility in resolve (Ādam's forgetfulness) does not negate the charge; it warns about keeping it.

Nuance (C4)

Formulate the legal-theological scope of Q 3:81 with tafsīr; do not invent scenarios the text does not require. The confirming-messenger principle is clear; casuistry is secondary.

Cross-links

../01-beginner/04-prophets-intro.md · ../02-intermediate/04-prophetic-mithaq-afsir.md

4. Scripture Communities and Broken Covenants

Thesis

The Qur'an presents Banī Isrā'īl and other ahl al-kitāb within a covenant–remonstrance pattern: terms given, messengers sent, breach censured—serving both sacred history and warning to the final ummah.

Primary loci

- Q 2:40; 2:63; 2:83–84; 2:93
- Q 3:187
- Q 4:154–155
- Q 5:12–14; 5:70
- Q 7:169

Theses

- S1. Earlier communities received real covenantal charges with ethical and theological content.
- S2. Breach (breaking mīthāq, killing prophets, concealing revelation, hardness of heart) draws curse and corruption as Qur'anic judgment language.
- S3. The final ummah inherits the warning: do not sell Allah's 'ahd cheaply; do not conceal; keep fidelity.
- S4. Remonstrance in revelation never licenses injustice; Axis 4–5 treaty and rights ethics still bind.

Pastoral-theological balance

Hold together:

- Textual frankness about breach narratives
- Prohibition of oppression
- Dawah ethic and justice toward all

Cross-links

../02-intermediate/03-bani-israil-dossier.md

5. Sharī'a as Covenantal Program

Thesis

Sharī'a is the specified program for keeping the divine–human bond: worship, ethics, and social law as fulfillment of 'ahd—not a replacement of Alast, but its detailed path.

Primary loci

- Q 6:152–153 — fulfill Allah's 'ahd; this is My straight path
- Q 16:91; 17:34; 2:177 — covenantal ethics inside piety
- Q 5:1 — fulfill 'uqūd
- Q 51:56 — creation for worship
- Q 9:111 — purchase of believers' lives and wealth for Paradise; fighting in Allah's path as stated

Theses

- Sh1. Commands to fulfill 'ahd integrate creed and deed.
- Sh2. Ritual and social obligations are covenantal fidelity in practice.
- Sh3. Legal 'uqūd enact the same fidelity virtue at the interpersonal register (see Level 03 distinction).
- Sh4. Selling Allah's 'ahd for worldly gain (Q 3:77; 16:95) is anti-program—the negation of sharī'a's covenantal aim.

Against two errors

Error | Correction

Sharī'a as mere state policy without theology | Root in lordship mīthāq and prophecy

Spirituality without obligation | Alast + "'ahd will be questioned" (Q 17:34)

Cross-links

../03-advanced/03-legal-vs-theological.md · ../03-advanced/04-maqasid-covenants.md

6. Political and Social Covenants

Thesis

Treaties, bay‘ah, oaths, marriage, and protective pacts are enactments of covenantal fidelity in history and society—governed by Qur‘an and Sunnah, developed in fiqh, illustrated by Prophetic practice.

Primary loci

- Q 48:10; 48:18; 60:12 — bay‘ah
- Q 9:4; 9:7; 9:12; 8:56 — treaty fidelity and breach
- Q 4:21 — marriage mīthāq ghalīz
- Q 5:1 — ‘uqūd
- Q 16:91 — oaths
- Madinah charter; Ḥudaybiyah — [history]

Sunnah

Hypocrisy traits (treachery in covenant); warnings regarding mu‘āhid — Bukhārī; Muslim (ṣaḥīḥ).

Theses

- Pol1. Bay‘ah to the Messenger ﷺ is theologically elevated (Q 48:10).
- Pol2. Uprightness toward treaty-keepers is commanded; treachery is censured.
- Pol3. Dhimma/protection ethics express amānah under pact—fiqh details are genre-tagged applications.
- Pol4. Family and commercial contracts participate in the fidelity ethic without becoming Alast.

Limits (non-polemical)

This chapter teaches source-based ethics of fidelity, not a modern political manifesto. Furū‘ verdicts require qualified fiqh.

Cross-links

../02-intermediate/01-bayah-dossier.md · ../02-intermediate/05-madinah-treaties.md · lexicon/dhimma.md

7. Eschatology: Covenant Fidelity and Accountability

Thesis

The covenantal bond terminates in judgment: excuses fail, ‘ahd is questioned, fidelity is rewarded, betrayal exposed.

Primary loci

- Q 7:172–173 — purpose against Resurrection excuses
- Q 17:34 — the ‘ahd will be questioned
- Q 3:77 — sellers of Allah’s ‘ahd: no share in ākhirah
- Q 9:111 — Allah’s purchase of the believers; true promise
- Q 19:87 — intercession tied to ‘ahd with the Most Merciful (read with whole creed of shafā‘ah)
- Q 36:60–63 — ‘ahd against Shayṭān; Paradise/Hell sorting scene
- Q 13:25 — curse and evil abode for covenant-breakers who sever what Allah ordered joined

Theses

- E1. Alast’s telos is eschatological accountability.
- E2. Covenant-breaking for worldly price is eschatological bankruptcy (Q 3:77).
- E3. Q 9:111 frames believing life as a fulfilled “sale” into Allah’s promise—covenant as devotion unto death if required.
- E4. Keeping trusts and ‘ahd belongs to the success traits of believers who inherit Paradise (Q 23:1–11 with 23:8).

Soteriological note

Salvation in Islam remains by Allah’s mercy, tawḥīd, and acceptance of deeds He wills—not a Christian “covenant of grace” mechanism. Covenant language describes bond and obligation; it does not replace īmān, tawbah, and raḥmah.

Cross-links

lexicon/wad.md · Beginner fulfill chapter

8. Synthesis: Axioms, Theorems, Limits

The Mithāq Paradigm — compact form

Axioms

- Lordship axiom: Allah is Rabb; humans are His servants (Ontology O1–O2).
- Primordial axiom: A mithāq of lordship binds humanity (Q 7:172) (A1).
- Prophetic axiom: Messengers stand under solemn mithāq and convey specified guidance (P1–P3).
- Fidelity axiom: Fulfilling ‘ahd/mithāq/‘uqūd/amānah is obligatory piety; treachery is grave.
- Continuity axiom: Scripture communities’ covenant histories warn and instruct the final ummah (S3).
- Eschatological axiom: Covenants are recalled in judgment; Allah’s promise is true (E1–E3).

Theorems (derived theses)

- T1. Sharī‘a is the covenantal program specifying Axis 1 in law and worship (Sh1–Sh2).
- T2. Bay‘ah and treaties are Axis 4 enactments under the same fidelity axiom (Pol1–Pol2).
- T3. Legal contracts are Axis 5 enactments; marriage uniquely bears mithāq ghalīẓ solemnity (Q 4:21).
- T4. Registers must not be collapsed (Level 03): theological ≠ merely legal ≠ merely political.
- T5. Preferred Alast synthesis affirms real ḥujjah while marking modality disputes (C1).

Limits

- Not a classical named madhhab ‘ilm—constructed systematic discipline from sources
- Not Christian CT
- Not a fatwā manual
- Not a license to deny disputed classical diversity on Alast modality
- Not completed by modern academic maps

Six axes — final map

Axis | Paradigm role

- 1 Humanity | Primordial bond + fidelity ethic
- 2 Prophets | Specification and continuity
- 3 Scripture peoples | Sacred history and warning
- 4 Prophetic community | Bay‘ah and treaties
- 5 Interpersonal | ‘Uqūd, oaths, marriage
- 6 Eschatology | Questioning and recompense

Completion criteria for this corpus

- [x] Method and lexicon
- [x] Qur’an/hadith indexes
- [x] Levels 00–04
- [x] Contested register
- [x] Christian CT contrast appendix

Next

appendix/christian-ct-contrast.md

Level 04 Worked Proof Sheets

Use with MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md.

Proof Sheet A — Primordial ḥujjah

Claim: Humanity is under a lordship mīthāq that blocks the excuse of unawareness.

- Q 7:172 states the taking, the question, the testimony
- Q 7:173 states the anti-excuse purposes
- Q 36:60 restates ‘ahd against Shayṭān-worship
- Fitrah hadith (Bukhārī; Muslim) supports worldly resonance — not a replacement

Status: Agreed claim; C1 modality open.

Proof Sheet B — Fidelity ethic

Claim: Believers must fulfill covenants and not break confirmed oaths.

- Q 16:91 command + kafīl clause
- Q 17:34 questioning of ‘ahd
- Q 13:20–25 keepers vs breakers
- H01/H02 hypocrisy–treachery link (Bukhārī; Muslim)

Status: Agreed.

Proof Sheet C — Prophetic office

Claim: Prophets are under solemn divine mīthāq.

- Q 33:7 solemn prophetic mīthāq
- Q 3:81 confirming-messenger compact
- Q 20:115 Ādam’s forgotten ‘ahd as warning

Status: Agreed; C4 nuance on casuistry.

Proof Sheet D — Bay‘ah elevation

Claim: Bay‘ah to the Prophet ﷺ is bay‘ah to Allah.

- Q 48:10 explicit identification
- Q 48:18 divine pleasure at Tree bay‘ah
- H10–H13 practice in Ṣaḥīḥayn

Status: Agreed.

Proof Sheet E — Eschatological purchase

Claim: Believing devotion is framed as a fulfilled bargain with Allah’s faithful ‘ahd.

- Q 9:111 purchase, promise, “who is more faithful to his ‘ahd than Allah?”
- Q 3:77 sellers of ‘ahd lose ākhirah share
- Keep Islamic soteriological limits (mercy/īmān)—no Christian CT import

Status: Agreed with limit note.

Drill — Level 04 Ultimate

A. State from memory

- The one-sentence core of the Mithāq Paradigm
- Six axioms
- Five theorems (T1–T5)
- Why Christian CT mapping is rejected (C8)

B. Proof construction

Build a 6-bullet proof that sharīʿa is a covenantal program (use at least Q 6:152, 16:91, 5:1).

C. Dispute handling

A student says: “If you don’t accept literal extraction of particles from Ādam’s back, you deny Alast.” Respond in METHOD-compliant paragraphs.

D. Integration essay (1–2 pages)

Trace one ethical act—keeping a business contract—from Axis 5 up through fidelity axiom, sharīʿa program, and eschatological questioning (Q 17:34).

Capstone checklist

- ☐ Read MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md end to end
- ☐ Completed Proof Sheets A–E
- ☐ Reviewed contested register
- ☐ Read Christian CT appendix last

Level 04 — Ultimate: The Mīthāq Paradigm

Systematic Islamic Covenant Theology. Read Levels 00–03 first. Disputed items remain labeled; see ../03-advanced/05-contested-issues.md.

| Chapter | File

0 | Paradigm overview | 00-paradigm-overview.md

1 | Ontology of the divine–human bond | 01-ontology.md

2 | Primordial mīthāq (Alast) | 02-primordial-mithaq.md

3 | Prophetological covenant | 03-prophetological.md

4 | Scripture communities | 04-scripture-communities.md

5 | Sharīʿa as covenantal program | 05-sharia-program.md

6 | Political and social covenants | 06-political-social.md

7 | Eschatology | 07-eschatology.md

8 | Synthesis: axioms, theorems, limits | 08-synthesis.md

9 | Worked proof sheets | 09-proof-sheets.md

— | Drills | drills/drill.md

— | Consolidated treatise | ../MITHAQ-PARADIGM.md

Root: ‘ayn–hā–dāl

Gloss: covenant, pledge, commitment, charge, compact

Sense in this corpus

‘Ahd names a solemn binding commitment. In Qur’anic usage it may emphasize:

- An obligation imposed or taken (including divine charge upon servants or prophets)
- A pledge humans make and must fulfill
- Allah’s own faithful commitment (where context indicates)

Classical lexical notes often contrast ‘ahd (commitment/obligation) with mīthāq (confirmed, mutual compact)—but the Qur’an sometimes uses them in overlapping contexts. Always read locally.

Representative loci

Reference | Note

Q 2:27 | Those who break Allah’s ‘ahd after its ratification

Q 2:40 | Banī Isrā’īl: fulfill My ‘ahd; I fulfill your ‘ahd

Q 2:80 | False claim of a limited promise/‘ahd regarding Fire

Q 2:100 | Is it that whenever they make an ‘ahd, a party casts it aside?

Q 2:124 | Ibrāhīm tried with words; then “I am making you an imām...” (covenantal charge context in tafsīr)

Q 2:177 | Fulfillment of ‘ahd when one has made ‘ahd

Q 3:76–77 | Who fulfills ‘ahd vs who sell Allah’s ‘ahd for a small price

Q 6:152 | Fulfill Allah’s ‘ahd; that He has enjoined

Q 7:102 | Most of them We found not keeping ‘ahd

Q 9:111 | Allah has purchased from the believers... (related covenantal “sale”)

Q 13:20 | Who fulfill Allah’s ‘ahd and do not break the mīthāq

Q 13:25 | Who break Allah’s ‘ahd after ratification and sever what Allah ordered joined

Q 16:91 | Fulfill Allah’s ‘ahd when you have made ‘ahd; do not break oaths after confirming them

Q 17:34 | Fulfill the ‘ahd; the ‘ahd will be questioned

Q 19:78; 19:87 | Claimed ‘ahd with the Most Merciful

Q 20:115 | We had taken an ‘ahd from Ādam before, but he forgot

Q 23:8; 70:32 | Who are keepers of trusts and covenants

Q 33:7; 33:15 | Prophetic mīthāq / ‘ahd contexts (read with mīthāq)

Q 36:60 | Did I not take an ‘ahd from you, O children of Ādam...

Doctrinal use

- Ethical: fulfilling ‘ahd is piety; breaking it is major censure (Q 2:27; 13:25; 16:91; 17:34)
- Heilsgeschichte / salvation history: Banī Isrā’īl charged to fulfill reciprocal ‘ahd (Q 2:40)
- Prophetology: charges upon Ādam and the prophets (Q 20:115; with Q 33:7)

See also

mithaq.md · wad.md · sources/quran-index.md

Root: hamza–mīm–nūn

Gloss: trust, deposit, fiduciary charge

Sense in this corpus

Amānah is the trust placed with a person—often linked to moral reliability and to the cosmic trust humanity bears. It intersects covenant theology as the content of responsibility under the divine–human bond.

Representative loci

Reference | Note

Q 2:283 | If some of you trust others, let the trustee discharge his amānah

Q 4:58 | Allah commands you to render amānāt to their owners

Q 8:27 | Do not betray Allah and the Messenger, nor betray your amānāt

Q 23:8; 70:32 | Believers who keep trusts and covenants

Q 33:72 | We offered the amānah to the heavens and earth and mountains...

Doctrinal use

- Ethical: betrayal of trusts is betrayal in the covenantal field
- Cosmic: Q 33:72 frames amānah as a weighty charge (tafsīr differs on exact referent—record as disputed detail)
- Paired with covenant-keeping in descriptions of the successful believer (Q 23:8)

See also

ahd.md · Level 02 hadith dossier on amānah

Root: bā-yā-'ayn

Gloss: pledge of allegiance; contractual pledge of loyalty

Sense in this corpus

Bay'ah is the pledge given to the Prophet ﷺ (and later to legitimate leadership in Islamic political thought). It is a primary lived form of covenant between Messenger and community (Axis 4).

Qur'anic anchors

Reference | Note

Q 48:10 | Those who pledge bay'ah to you pledge bay'ah to Allah; Hand of Allah over their hands

Q 48:18 | Allah was pleased with the believers when they pledged bay'ah under the tree

Q 60:12 | Bay'ah of believing women—conditions listed

Sunnah field

Bay'ah upon Islam, upon hearing and obeying, upon the conditions of women, and related pledges appear extensively in Bukhārī and Muslim. See sources/hadith-index.md and Level 02.

Doctrinal use

- Links personal faith commitment to communal prophetic authority
- Q 48:10 theologically elevates bay'ah to the Messenger as bay'ah to Allah
- Distinct from the primordial Alast mīthāq, yet both structure obligation

See also

ahd.md · Level 02 bay'ah dossier

Root: dhāl–mīm–mīm

Gloss: covenant of protection; liability; inviolable care owed under pact

Sense in this corpus

Dhimma names a protective covenantal status / liability of care—historically applied in Islamic governance to protected non-Muslim subjects under treaty terms, and more broadly to any inviolable pact-based responsibility.

In theology of coexistence, dhimma is Axis 4/5 adjacent: human treaties under divine ethic of fidelity (Q 16:91; Q 9:4 regarding treaty-keepers, etc.).

Notes on sources

- Qur'anic treaty ethics: keep covenants with those who keep them; rules for breach and hostility appear in Sūrat al-Tawbah and elsewhere—read with tafsīr, not slogans
- [history][fiqh] Classical dhimma regulations are juristic-historical applications—not identical to revelation itself
- This corpus treats dhimma as covenantal ethics of pledged protection, citing primary ethics first

Doctrinal use

- Fidelity to treaties is covenantal piety
- Breach of pledged protection is grave in prophetic teaching (see Level 02 hadith index)
- Avoid modern polemical framing; stay with sources and classical categories

See also

ahd.md · Level 02 Madinah practice · Level 04 political/social covenants chapter

Root: wāw–thā–qāf

Gloss: covenant, compact, confirmed pact (often implying ratification / mutual bond)

Sense in this corpus

Mīthāq typically signals a confirmed covenant—something taken, ratified, or mutually binding. Classical notes often stress reciprocity more than for ‘ahd, though contexts vary.

The locus classicus for the primordial human covenant is Q 7:172 (Alast / a-lastu bi-rabbikum).

Representative loci

Reference | Note

Q 2:27 | Break ‘ahd after mīthāq (ratification)

Q 2:63; 2:83; 2:84; 2:93 | Mīthāq with Banī Isrā’īl; mountain raised

Q 3:81 | Mīthāq of the prophets regarding a later messenger

Q 3:187 | Mīthāq of those given the Book to make it clear

Q 4:21 | Solemn mīthāq of marriage

Q 4:90; 4:92 | Treaty / mīthāq contexts with groups

Q 4:154–155 | Mīthāq; mountain; breaking and disbelief

Q 5:7 | Remember Allah’s favor and His mīthāq upon you

Q 5:12–14 | Mīthāq of Banī Isrā’īl / Christians; breach

Q 5:70 | We took mīthāq of Banī Isrā’īl and sent messengers

Q 7:169 | Taking the mīthāq of the Book

Q 7:172 | Primordial mīthāq: “Am I not your Lord?”

Q 8:72 | Guardianship / alliance until hijra-related bond (read carefully)

Q 13:20; 13:25 | Keep ‘ahd / do not break mīthāq

Q 33:7 | Mīthāq from the prophets; from you, Nūḥ, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, ‘Īsā

Q 57:8 | Believe in Allah and His Messenger... and He has taken your mīthāq

Doctrinal use

- Primordial theology: Alast grounds human accountability (Q 7:172–173)
- Prophetology: mīthāq al-nabiyyīn (Q 3:81; Q 33:7)
- Scripture communities: repeated remonstrance for breaking mīthāq
- Family law: marriage as mīthāq ghalīz (Q 4:21)

See also

ahd.md · Level 01 Alast chapter · sources/quran-index.md

Lexicon Index

Arabic key terms for Islamic Covenant Theology. Read these before Level 01+.

Term | File | Role

‘Ahd | ahd.md | Covenant, pledge, commitment (often unilateral charge or obligation)

Mīthāq | mithaq.md | Confirmed covenant / compact (often reciprocal, sworn)

Wa‘d | wad.md | Promise (divine or human)

Amānah | amanah.md | Trust / fiduciary charge

Bay‘ah | bayah.md | Pledge of allegiance

‘Uqūd | uqud.md | Binding contracts

Dhimma | dhimma.md | Covenant of protection / liability of care

Related field | related.md | Aymān, iṣr, al-‘urwa al-wuthqā, ‘āhada

Related Field Terms

Terms that belong to the covenantal semantic field without being synonyms of ‘ahd/mīthāq.

Aymān (أيمان) — oaths

Solemn oaths reinforce covenants. Breaking confirmed oaths is censured.

- Q 16:91 — do not break oaths after confirming them
- Q 5:89 — expiation for oaths
- Q 2:224–225 — oaths and Allah’s name

Iṣr (إصر) — burden / covenant-burden

Sometimes linked by commentators to covenantal load or taken pledges.

- Q 2:286 — “do not impose upon us an iṣr as You imposed upon those before us”
- Q 7:157 — he relieves them of their burdens and the shackles upon them

Al-‘urwa al-wuthqā (العروة الوثقى) — the firmest handhold

Image of secure bond to Allah through true faith.

- Q 2:256 — whoever disbelieves in ṭāghūt and believes in Allah has grasped the firmest handhold
- Q 31:22 — whoever submits his face to Allah while excelling has grasped the firmest handhold

‘Āhada / ‘ahida (verbs)

Verbal forms of the ‘ahd root: to covenant, to charge, to pledge.

- Track in sources/quran-index.md under root ‘-h-d

Mawthiq / wathāq / wuthqā

Same w-th-q family as mīthāq: bond, fetter, firmness—context decides legal vs theological sense.

Bāya‘a (بايع)

Verb of bay‘ah—see bayah.md.

Root: ‘ayn–qāf–dāl

Gloss: contracts, knots, binding agreements

Sense in this corpus

‘Uqūd are binding contracts. Qur’anic command to fulfill contracts situates commercial, social, and personal agreements inside the ethic of covenant-keeping—without collapsing every contract into the primordial mīthāq.

Primary locus

Reference | Note

Q 5:1 | O you who believe, fulfill the contracts (awfū bi-l-‘uqūd)

Related

Marriage as mīthāq ghalīḏ (Q 4:21) shows family bonds using covenantal vocabulary. Oaths (aymān) reinforce contracts (see related.md).

Doctrinal / ethical use

- Fulfilling ‘uqūd is a mark of faith practice
- [fiqh] develops detailed contract law; this corpus tracks the theological ethic, not a furū‘ manual
- Distinguish: legal ‘aqd vs theological mīthāq (Level 03)

See also

mithaq.md · ahd.md

Root: wāw-ʿayn-dāl

Gloss: promise

Sense in this corpus

Wa'd is a promise—divine or human. It belongs to the covenantal field because covenants often contain or rest on promises, but wa'd is not identical to ʿahd/mīthāq.

Representative loci

Reference | Note

Q 2:80 | Claim: Fire will not touch us except days—false reliance on “promise”

Q 3:9; 3:194 | Lord, You do not break the promise

Q 4:122 | Promise of Allah is true

Q 9:72; 9:111 | Gardens promised; purchase of believers

Q 13:31 | Promise of Allah

Q 30:6 | Promise of Allah—Allah does not break His promise

Q 39:20 | Promise of Allah

Doctrinal use

- Allah's wa'd is truthful and unbroken
- Human claims of special wa'd without warrant are censured
- Eschatological hope is framed as divine promise within the wider covenantal bond

See also

ahd.md · mithaq.md

Bibliography

Primary

- The Qur'an (any reliable muṣṣḥaf; study with Arabic text)
- Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī
- Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim
- Other Kutub al-Sittah as needed (Abū Dāwūd, Tirmidhī, Nasā'ī, Ibn Mājah)—with grading

Classical tafsīr [tafsīr]

- al-Ṭabarī, Jāmi' al-Bayān
- Ibn Kathīr, Tafsīr al-Qur'ān al-'Aẓīm
- al-Qurṭubī, al-Jāmi' li-Aḥkām al-Qur'ān
- Fakhr al-Dīn al-Rāzī, Mafātīḥ al-Ghayb

Lexicon / ulūm

- Standard Arabic lexica (Lisān al-'Arab, etc.) for 'ahd / mīthāq
- Hadith commentaries on Bukhārī/Muslim for bay'ah and nifāq traits

Kalām / taṣawwuf / fiqh (genre-tagged use only)

- Classical kalām discussions of taklīf, fitrah, and Alast
- Sufi receptions of Q 7:172 (e.g. later ethico-spiritual readings)—not creed substitutes
- Fiqh chapters on 'uqūd, aymān, 'ahd, and ahl al-dhimma

Modern academic maps [modern] — orientation only

- Joseph E. B. Lumbard, work on Qur'anic covenant / Q 7:172
- Tariq Jaffer, studies on covenant and Q 7:172
- Analyses of 'ahd/mīthāq and maqāṣid (e.g. content analyses in journals of Islamic studies)
- Encyclopaedia of Islam entries on pre-eternal covenant ('ahd, mīthāq)

These do not rank above Qur'an, Sunnah, or classical tafsīr in this corpus (see METHOD.md).

Historical documents [history]

- Constitution / Charter of Madinah — covenantal practice under the Prophet ﷺ; not Qur'an
- Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah — narrative in sīrah/hadith; linked to Q 48

Citation Template

Copy this block when adding new doctrinal notes.

Claim

[One sentence.]

Primary loci

- Qur'an: Q X:Y — [short gloss]
- Hadith: [collection] — [short gloss] — grade: [ṣaḥīḥ / ḥasan / verify]

Classical support (optional)

- [tafsīr] Author, Work — note
- [fiqh/kalām/taṣawwuf] Author — note

Status

- [] Agreed (broad classical sense)
- [] Disputed (record positions)
- [] Speculative (do not treat as creed)
- [] Historical application only

Cross-links

- Lexicon: ...
- Level chapter: ...

Field-Terms Index (Companion Roots)

Terms that orbit ‘ahd/mīthāq. Full morphology belongs to a tagged corpus; this is the doctrinal shortlist.

Wa‘d / wa‘īd (promise / threat)

Ref | Note

Q 30:6 | Allah does not break His promise

Q 4:122 | Promise of Allah is truth

Q 9:111 | Promise binding in Torah, Gospel, Qur’an

Q 14:22 | Shayṭān’s broken promise

Amānah

Ref | Note

Q 4:58 | Render amānāt

Q 8:27 | Do not betray amānāt

Q 23:8; 70:32 | Keepers of trusts

Q 33:72 | Cosmic amānah

‘Uqūd / ‘aqd

Ref | Note

Q 5:1 | Fulfill the contracts

Aymān (oaths)

Ref | Note

Q 16:91 | Do not break after confirmation

Q 5:89 | Expiation

Q 2:224–225 | Oaths and Allah’s name

Q 9:12 | Breaking oaths after ‘ahd

Bay‘ah / bāya‘a

Ref | Note

Q 48:10; 48:18; 60:12 | Pledge texts

Iṣr

Ref | Note

Q 2:286 | Do not impose iṣr as upon those before

Q 3:81 | “My iṣr” in prophetic compact

Q 7:157 | Relief from burdens/shackles

Al-‘urwa al-wuthqā

Ref | Note

Q 2:256; 31:22 | Firmest handhold

Wathāq / mawthiq

Ref | Note

Q 12:66; 12:80 | Ya‘qūb’s bond from sons

Q 47:4; 89:26 | Fetters (context-sensitive; not always “covenant”)

Expanded Hadith Index — Numbered Anchors

Prefer your relied-upon edition's numbering. Themes below are stable across major prints.

A. Hypocrisy, trusts, covenants

ID | Theme | Collections | Grade | Teaching use

H01 | Signs of hypocrite: lies, breaks promise, betrays trust | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Amānah + 'ahd ethic

H02 | Four traits of hypocrisy incl. treachery when covenants | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Axis 1/5 fidelity

H03 | Render the trust to the one who entrusted you | Abū Dāwūd, Tirmidhī (common citation) | verify | Aligns Q 4:58

B. Bay'ah

ID | Theme | Collections | Grade | Teaching use

H10 | Bay'ah upon Islam | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Axis 4 entry

H11 | Bay'ah to hear and obey (in energy and ease) | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Obedience bond

H12 | Women's bay'ah conditions | Bukhārī | ṣaḥīḥ | Q 60:12

H13 | Bay'ah al-Riḍwān / Tree | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Q 48:18

H14 | Dying without bay'ah (imāmah narrations) | Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Political theology—careful

C. Treaty / mu'āhid

ID | Theme | Collections | Grade | Teaching use

H20 | Warning against wronging a mu'āhid | Bukhārī | ṣaḥīḥ | Dhimma/protection ethic

H21 | Fulfillment and treachery in war/siyar | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Axis 4 fidelity

D. Fitrah / Alast support

ID | Theme | Collections | Grade | Teaching use

H30 | Every child born on fitrah | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Level 03 Alast/fitrah

H31 | Extraction/testimony narratives on Q 7:172 | Aḥmad / tafsīr chains | verify/disputed | Never override āyah

E. Responsibility

ID | Theme | Collections | Grade | Teaching use

H40 | Each of you is a shepherd | Bukhārī, Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Amānah of authority

H41 | Conveyance / "Have I conveyed?" | Bukhārī (Farewell contexts) | ṣaḥīḥ | Prophetic charge

Study protocol

- Teach H01–H02, H10–H13, H20, H30, H40 at Intermediate before disputed H31
- Always pair with Qur'an locus when claiming doctrine
- Update grades from your muḥaddith when verifying non-Ṣaḥīḥayn material

See also: hadith-index.md

Hadith Index (Covenantal Themes)

Primary Sunnah anchors for Axes 1, 4, 5, and ethics of fidelity. Prefer Bukhārī and Muslim. Grades for other collections: verify before doctrinal use.

1. Bay‘ah (pledge)

Theme | Locus (standard citation practice) | Grade | Note

Bay‘ah upon Islam / hearing and obeying | Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim — Kitāb al-Aḥkām / Imān sections | ṣaḥīḥ | Foundational Axis 4

Bay‘ah under the tree (Ḥudaybiyah) | Bukhārī; Muslim — Maghāzī / Faḍā’il | ṣaḥīḥ | Aligns Q 48:18

Bay‘ah of women | Bukhārī — conditions paralleling Q 60:12 | ṣaḥīḥ | Ethical stipulations

“Whoever dies without a bay‘ah...” | Muslim (imāmah discussions) | ṣaḥīḥ | Political-theological; read with fiqh of leadership

Dossier: levels/02-intermediate/01-bayah-dossier.md

2. Amānah and betrayal

Theme | Locus | Grade | Note

Signs of the hypocrite: when entrusted, betrays | Bukhārī; Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Links amānah to faith integrity

Render trusts to those who entrust you | Often cited from Abū Dāwūd / Tirmidhī — grade: verify chain in your edition | verify | Aligns Q 4:58 ethic

Betrayal of dhimmah / protected people’s rights | Bukhārī (warnings against injustice to mu’āhid) | ṣaḥīḥ | Axis 4/5 ethics

3. Fulfilling covenants and treaties

Theme | Locus | Grade | Note

Muslims bound by their conditions (with shar‘ī limits) | Abū Dāwūd / Tirmidhī — grade: verify | verify | Contract ethic

Warning against treachery in war and treaty | Bukhārī; Muslim — Jihād / Siyar | ṣaḥīḥ | Fidelity even with opponents under pact

“Four traits of hypocrisy” including treachery when covenanting | Bukhārī; Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Direct covenantal ethic

4. Primordial covenant / Alast (reports)

Theme | Locus | Grade | Note

Extraction of progeny from Ādam’s back; testimony | Aḥmad; others — widely discussed in tafsīr of Q 7:172 | disputed chains / verify | Use as tafsīr support, not independent creed over Qur’an

Fitrah of every child | Bukhārī; Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Often related to Alast in theological synthesis [kalām]

Rule: Qur’an Q 7:172 remains primary; reports clarify mode of the taking—classical disagreement remains (Level 03).

5. Prophetic charge and responsibility

Theme | Locus | Grade | Note

Conveyance of the message; “have I conveyed?” | Bukhārī — Farewell contexts | ṣaḥīḥ | Prophetic fidelity to divine charge

Each of you is a shepherd responsible for his flock | Bukhārī; Muslim | ṣaḥīḥ | Amānah structure of authority

Citation practice in this corpus

- Quote or paraphrase with collection name
- Prefer agreed-upon (Bukhārī + Muslim) reports for Level 01–02 teaching
- Mark non-Ṣaḥīḥayn material verify until graded in a relied-upon takhrīj
- Never let a contested Alast report override the āyah

Additional ‘Ahd / Mīthāq Hits (Supplement)

Supplement to quran-index.md. Add these when drilling exhaustiveness.

Further ‘ahd-family

Ref | Note | Axis

Q 2:225 | Allah will not call you to account for unintentional oaths... (oath field) | 5

Q 3:183 | Claimed divine ‘ahd restricting belief in messengers | 3

Q 7:134 | Plea linked to covenanted removal of torment | 3

Q 9:77 | Hypocrisy sealed because they broke what they ‘āhadū Allah | 1

Q 33:15 | Prior ‘ahd not to turn backs | 4

Q 48:10 | ‘āhada clause inside bay‘ah verse | 4

Further mīthāq-family

Ref | Note | Axis

Q 2:27 | mīthāq as ratification of ‘ahd | 1

Q 4:154–155 | mountain + breaking | 3

Q 5:7 | mīthāq upon the believers | 1/4

Q 57:8 | He took your mīthāq | 1

Exhaustiveness note

Root counts (~46 ‘-h-d; ~34 w-th-q) include morphological forms not all listed as separate doctrinal rows. For research completeness, run a digital root search (e.g. corpus.quran.com) and tick every hit against this corpus’s axis tags.

Qur'anic Index: 'Ahd and Mithāq

Master map of covenantal vocabulary. Counts follow standard corpus tallies (~46 for root 'h-d; ~34 for root w-th-q across forms). English glosses are study aids, not a translation authority.

How to use: find the āyah → note axis → open the Level chapter → check tafsīr at Level 02–03 before Ultimate synthesis.

A. Root 'ayn-hā-dāl ('ahd and verbs)

Noun 'ahd (عهد) — selected complete map by surah

Ref | Gloss / covenantal note | Axis

- Q 2:27 | Break Allah's 'ahd after ratification | 1
- Q 2:40 | Fulfill My 'ahd; I fulfill yours (Banī Isrā'īl) | 3
- Q 2:80 | Claimed 'ahd that Fire touches only days | 1 / 6
- Q 2:100 | Whenever they make 'ahd, a party casts it aside | 3
- Q 2:124 | Ibrāhīm's trial; covenantal imāmah charge [tafsīr] | 2
- Q 2:177 | Fulfill 'ahd when one has pledged | 1 / 5
- Q 3:76 | Who fulfills 'ahd and is godfearing | 1
- Q 3:77 | Who sell Allah's 'ahd and oaths for a small price | 1 / 6
- Q 6:152 | Fulfill Allah's 'ahd; He has enjoined this | 1
- Q 7:102 | Most not found keeping covenant | 1 / 3
- Q 8:56 | Those with whom you made 'ahd then they break | 4
- Q 9:4 | Except those with whom you made 'ahd... then fulfill | 4
- Q 9:7 | How can there be 'ahd for mushrikīn with Allah and Messenger... except those at Masjid al-Ḥarām | 4
- Q 9:12 | If they break oaths after 'ahd | 4
- Q 9:75 | Among them who made 'ahd with Allah... | 1
- Q 9:111 | Allah purchased from believers their lives and wealth... | 1 / 6
- Q 13:20 | Fulfill 'ahd of Allah; do not break mīthāq | 1
- Q 13:25 | Break 'ahd after ratification | 1
- Q 16:91 | Fulfill 'ahd of Allah when you have made 'ahd | 1 / 5
- Q 16:95 | Do not sell Allah's 'ahd for a small price | 1
- Q 17:34 | Fulfill the 'ahd; 'ahd will be questioned | 1 / 5
- Q 19:78 | Has he looked into the Unseen or taken 'ahd with the Most Merciful? | 1
- Q 19:87 | None will possess intercession except who took 'ahd with the Most Merciful | 6
- Q 20:86 | Did your Lord fail you in a promise / 'ahd? (Mūsā to people) | 2 / 3
- Q 20:115 | 'Ahd taken from Ādam; he forgot | 2
- Q 23:8 | Who are keepers of their trusts and 'ahd | 1 / 5
- Q 33:15 | They had made 'ahd with Allah before not to turn backs | 4
- Q 33:23 | Men true to what they 'āhadū Allah upon | 1 / 4
- Q 36:60 | Did I not take 'ahd from you, O children of Ādam, not to worship Shayṭān? | 1 / 6
- Q 43:49 | O magician, invoke your Lord by what He 'ahida with you | 2
- Q 48:10 | Who break... (context with bay'ah; related fidelity) | 4
- Q 70:32 | Keepers of trusts and 'ahd | 1 / 5

Verb forms ('ahida / 'āhada) — key hits

Ref | Note | Axis

Q 2:125 | We 'ahidnā to Ibrāhīm and Ismā'īl: purify My House... | 2

Q 3:183 | Claim: Allah 'ahida to us not to believe a messenger until... | 3

Q 7:134 | If you remove the wrath... we will believe and send Banī Isrā'īl with you ('ahd language in context) | 3

Q 43:49 | Invoke your Lord by what He covenanted with you | 2

(Full morphological inventory belongs with a tagged Qur'an corpus; this index prioritizes doctrinal hits.)

B. Root wāw–thā–qāf (mīthāq and cognates)

Noun mīthāq (ميثاق)

Ref | Gloss / covenantal note | Axis

Q 2:27 | After its mīthāq (ratification) | 1

Q 2:63 | Took your mīthāq; raised the mountain | 3

Q 2:83 | Took mīthāq of Banī Isrā'īl: worship Allah... | 3

Q 2:84 | Took your mīthāq: do not shed blood... | 3

Q 2:93 | Took your mīthāq; raised the mountain | 3

Q 3:81 | Allah took mīthāq of the prophets | 2

Q 3:187 | Allah took mīthāq of those given the Book | 3

Q 4:21 | They have taken from you a solemn mīthāq | 5

Q 4:90 | Except those who join a people between you and whom is a mīthāq | 4

Q 4:92 | If from a people between you and them is a mīthāq | 4

Q 4:154 | We raised the mountain by their mīthāq | 3

Q 4:155 | For their breaking the mīthāq and disbelief | 3

Q 5:7 | Remember Allah's favor and His mīthāq which He bound you with | 1 / 4

Q 5:12 | Allah took mīthāq of Banī Isrā'īl | 3

Q 5:13 | For their breaking the mīthāq We cursed them | 3

Q 5:14 | From those who say "We are Christians" We took mīthāq | 3

Q 5:70 | We took mīthāq of Banī Isrā'īl and sent messengers | 3

Q 7:169 | Did not the mīthāq of the Book bind them... | 3

Q 7:172 | Took from Banī Ādam... "Am I not your Lord?" | 1

Q 8:72 | ...until they make hijrah; (alliance/mīthāq field—read tafsīr) | 4

Q 13:20 | Do not break the mīthāq | 1

Q 13:25 | Who break... and cut what Allah ordered joined | 1

Q 33:7 | We took from the prophets their mīthāq | 2

Q 57:8 | Believe... He already took your mīthāq | 1

Other w–th–q forms (select)

Ref | Form | Note

Q 2:256; 31:22 | al-'urwa al-wuthqā | Firmest handhold

Q 5:85–? | — | Check local tafsīr for nearby bond language

Q 12:66; 12:80 | mawthiq | Bond/pledge Ya'qūb takes from sons

Q 47:4 | wathāq | Fetters in war context (not theological covenant)

Q 89:26 | wathāqa | Binding on that Day

C. Clustered by the six axes

1. Allah ↔ humanity

Q 2:27; 2:177; 3:76–77; 6:152; 7:172–173; 13:20; 13:25; 16:91; 16:95; 17:34; 23:8; 36:60; 57:8; 70:32; 9:111

2. Allah ↔ prophets

Q 2:125; 3:81; 20:115; 33:7; 43:49; (Ibrāhīm Q 2:124 with tafsīr)

3. Allah ↔ People of Scripture / Banī Isrāʾīl

Q 2:40; 2:63; 2:83–84; 2:93; 2:100; 3:187; 4:154–155; 5:12–14; 5:70; 7:102; 7:169

4. Prophet ﷺ ↔ community / treaties

Q 5:7; 8:56; 8:72; 9:4; 9:7; 9:12; 33:15; 33:23; 48:10; 48:18; 60:12; 4:90; 4:92

5. Interpersonal / family / contracts

Q 4:21; 5:1 (ʿuqūd); 16:91; 17:34; 23:8; 70:32; 12:66

6. Eschatology / accountability

Q 3:77; 7:172–173; 9:111; 17:34; 19:87; 36:60; 89:26 (imagery)

D. Companion verses (field, not always ʿahd/mīthāq lexeme)

Ref | Term/theme

Q 5:1 | ʿuqūd

Q 33:72 | amānah

Q 2:256; 31:22 | al-ʿurwa al-wuthqā

Q 48:10; 48:18; 60:12 | bayʿah

Q 30:6 | Allah does not break His waʿd

E. Study sequence (Beginner)

- Q 7:172–173 (Alast)
- Q 16:91; 17:34; 13:20–25 (fulfill / do not break)
- Q 33:7; 3:81 (prophets)
- Q 2:40; 2:83; 5:12–13 (Banī Isrāʾīl)
- Q 48:10; 5:1; 4:21 (bayʿah / contracts / marriage)
- Q 9:111 (purchase / eschatological bond)

Sources

File | Purpose

quran-index.md | Master 'ahd / mīthāq āyah map

quran-index-supplement.md | Extra hits for exhaustiveness

field-terms-index.md | Wa'd, amānah, 'uqūd, aymān, etc.

hadith-index.md | Sunnah themes (overview)

hadith-expanded.md | Numbered hadith anchors H01+

ayah-dossiers/ | Arabic deep dives for spine āyāt

bibliography.md | Primary, classical, modern maps

citation-template.md | Note-taking template

All doctrinal work follows ../METHOD.md.